Charleston County

Trial Court Case No. 2015CP1004558

Dear Jenny Abbott Kitchings:

The last time I spoke to you, "you told me you were waiting to hear from attorney Natasha D. Chisolm around the 17th of September 2020." Have you heard from her? I told you I would wait to hear from you after the attorney's response to your notice.

Thank you for your service!

Sincerely

Estella N. Slovney

Trial Court Case No. 2015CP1004558

To whom it may concern:

This is in response to the letter I received on September 9, 2020 Re - Estella N. Slovney v. Alexander Nesbitt. The new name for the property was changed in a 2006 hearing to Jeffrey Nesbitt and the late Charles Seymour Goldberg was the acting attorney. I spoke to my then attorney, Natasha D. Chisolm, Esquire and requested her to file the necessary papers together with the $250.00 filing fee to appeal the verdict on my case. She agreed to work on it. When I had not heard from her in a while, I tried to contact her by phone and email for an up date. She never contacted me back. Then I filed my own appeal Unfortunately to learn that only an attorney can file the appeal. Due to the Coronavirus and courts closing, I have been unable to hire an attorney to take my case. I feel that most of the attorneys in Charleston have worked on this case (started in 1995) and the ones that have not do not want to go up against Mikell R. Scarborough master-in - equity in this town. It is impossible for me to hire an attorney that will work for my rights and benefit. See attached article -page 3 from " The Post and Courier.Com". It outlines the many duties that fall under his jurisdiction such as mortgage foreclosures, property disputes, debt collection, Charleston 's auctions of property sold at foreclosure and wills in the probate court. It seems to me the Judge Scarborough has a conflict of interest issue! My case has been on-going for me from 1995 to 2020 and continues with no satisfactory results in sight. I need help!

Sincerely,

Estella Slovney
