PETITION FOR REHEARING

Now come Plaintiffs Patricia Ford and Cleveland Ford asking the court to grant a rehearing in the above styled case. Plaintiffs feel they were deprived of their day in court and assert the following facts in support of this position:

1. Incident occurred on November 11, 2017 at Wendy's Restaurant #74 Garners Ferry Road Columbia; South Carolina county of Richland time Approximate 6:33 PM
2. Attorneys were negligent in investigating statement of "poor lighting" and failed to request work orders made by Wendy's Manager Maria Shannon who wrote the accident report.
3. Plaintiff Patricia Ford's left hand was broken, impeding her ability to write. Manager completed an incident report on Mrs. Ford's behalf and listed poor lighting as a primary reason for the incident and subsequent injuries Mrs. Ford suffered.
4. Attorney has mandated that plaintiff no longer contact their office and has refused to represent her further in taking the matter to trial
5. Attorneys, per the court, have not filed proper documentation to withdraw from representation
6. Attorneys have failed to provide plaintiffs with all legal documents to include mediation transcript between John Michael Montgomery, Esq., plaintiffs, and plaintiff's former counsel
7. During mediation, attorney made unprofessional comments such as: "We know where this is going." Implying that plaintiff was engaged in misuse of the court's resources or some other frivolity
8. Attorneys continued with mediation against plaintiff's wishes. Plaintiff was offered settlement as an ultimatum. Plaintiff stated that she was on medication and not well. Plaintiff feels she was coerced into accepting the settlement offer as the attorney characterized the offer as "the best [plaintiff was] going to get."
