Re: Michael Davis v. Rural Economic
Appellate Case No. 2020-001467

Dear Mr. Davis:

Please be advised that your correspondence was received in our office on November 06, 2020. The information that you have provided in your letter is not sufficient to be considered a notice of appeal. According to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, a notice of appeal consists of the following:

- A notice of appeal that is substantially in the format shown by Form 1 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The notice of appeal must include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- A proof of service that is substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR showing that a copy of the notice of appeal has been served on the respondents and clerk of the lower court.
- A complete copy of the order(s) being challenged under appeal.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
