Dear Ms. Kitchings:

We are in receipt from the Court of a letter advising that this matter may be considered in February 2021. After speaking with my Client, Mr. Raymond A. Wedlake, regarding the above-captioned case, which he brought as Plaintiff both individually and derivatively and is the Appellant, we are of the opinion that the Briefs and Record on Appeal fully establish the arguments and issues in this matter before the Court. Accordingly, it is Appellant's position that oral arguments would not be necessary. We would request, respectfully, that you pass this communication on to the Court. Please note that we have copied Appellee Counsel.

Thank you!

Respectfully submitted,

GRANT H. GIBSON, ESQ.
Counsel for Appellant – Raymond Wedlake
