Re: William Burnett v. State
Appellate Case No. 2020-001310

Dear Mr. Burnett:

This Office is in receipt of several emails from you related to the above matter. Two of these emails contain attachments that appear to be photographs of documents that are in .jpeg format, and the third email indicates you have had difficulty transmitting documents via email.

Please be advised that under section (c)(6) of the Supreme Court's Order titled RE: Operation of the Appellate Courts During the Coronavirus Emergency (As Amended May 29, 2020), documents may be filed with this Court via email. However "[a] document filed by this method must be in an Adobe Acrobat file format (.pdf)."¹

Accordingly, the Court cannot consider the documents you have submitted. If you wish for the Court to consider these documents, you must file them by one of the following methods: (1) via email in Adobe Acrobat file format (.pdf) to supctfilings@sccourts.org; (2) by U.S. Mail at the above address; (3) by facsimile to 803-734-1499; or (4) by delivery to the drop box located at the rear doors of the Supreme Court Building in Columbia.

Further, I have construed your statement that you are having difficulty submitting documents as a request for an extension of time to file your pro se explanation required by Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. The time to file your response is extended until November 25, 2020.

Very truly yours,

DEPUTY CLERK
