IN THE PROBATE COURT
 CASE NUMBER: 2016-ES-10-01631

ORDER DENYING SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Hearing Date: October 25, 2017
 Presiding Judge: Honorable Irvin G. Condon
 Petitioner: Mary K. Ward, a/k/a Mary Kimberly Ward
 Petitioner's Attorney: Jane A. McFaddin, Esq.
 Respondents: Stephanie Ward Cibinic, David
 D. Ward, and Brian C. Ward
 Respondents' Attorney: George E. Morrison, Esq.
 Amanda A. Bailey, Esq.
 Court Reporter: Anne Bouley Meyer

This matter comes on for hearing on a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Respondents as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Stephen Day Ward, Jr., to the Petition of Petitioner pursuant to the Omitted Spouse statute, S.C. Code 1976 as amended Sect. 62-2-301. Petitioner appeared at the hearing by her court-appointed Conservator, Ann-Noble Kiley. All other appearances of parties and counsel were as referenced above.

The Respondents have argued that the April 21, 2005 Last Will and Testament of the decedent, now admitted to probate ("2005 Will"), incorporates by reference an "Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, "2005 Agreement", also dated April 21, 2005, and apparently executed by decedent and his then-wife, Nancy L. Ward. (Respondents filed said Agreement as Exhibit A to their Motion for Summary Judgment). Nancy L. Ward died on June 4, 2011, leaving decedent as her surviving spouse. Decedent thereafter married Mary K. Ward, Petitioner herein, on September 7, 2013. Stephen Day Ward, Jr. died on September 16, 2016, leaving Petitioner Mary K. Ward as his surviving spouse.

Decedent's "2005 Will" was admitted to informal probate in this Court on September 30, 2016, and Respondents were appointed as Co-Personal Representatives pursuant to its terms. No further testamentary documents have been presented by Respondents.

The "2005 Will" makes no mention of, or provision for, Petitioner Mary K. Ward, decedent's surviving spouse at his death in 2016. Petitioner then filed an action, pursuant to S.C. Code 1976 Sect. 62-2-301, as amended, claiming her statutory share of decedent's estate.

The "Omitted Spouse statute", as currently amended, replaces an earlier statutory version which declared a will, executed by one spouse prior to a marriage, was presumptively revoked by a subsequent marriage. (former S.C. Code Sect. 21-7-220, SC Code 1962 Sect. 19-222). The current statutory provision, amended in 1986, provides two specific exceptions to the presumption of revocation. Sect. 62-2-301(a)(1) excepts the instance where "it appears from the will that the omission was intentional" emphasis added, and (2) allows an exception if the decedent "provided for the spouse by transfer outside the Will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence."

Respondents have presented no evidence, nor made any allegation, that Stephen D. Ward, Jr. "provided" for his spouse, Mary K. Ward, outside his 2005 Will or in lieu of any testamentary provision.

Their sole argument is that certain language in the “2005 Agreement”, admittedly made with his then-wife, Nancy Ward, would apply to the “2005 Will” so as to allow an “appearance” in the Will that the omission of Mary K. Ward, as surviving spouse, was “intentional”.

Clearly, by all reasonable laws of construction, a 2005 Will, executed during the decedent’s marriage to Nancy L. Ward, could not “intentionally” omit provision for Mary K. Ward, as a surviving spouse, as Mary K. Ward did not and could not, by any legal or actual, factual construction, have the status of “spouse” to Stephen D. Ward in 2005. Petitioner states the parties did not even know one another until 2012. “A spouse has not been “provided for” under Sect. 62-2-301(a) (the omitted spouse statute) in the absence of specific language in a will or sufficient extrinsic evidence that a bequest was made in contemplation of marriage.”(emphasis added) Miles v. Miles (S.C. 1994) 312 S.C. 408, 440 S.E. 2d 882, rehearing denied.

Further, as a matter of public policy, non-specific “blanket” language in an Agreement between two parties, even if married to each other at the time and held to be applicable to their testamentary wishes during their lifetime together, could not be construed to apply as a limitation on the rights of a third-party, “innocent”, subsequent spouse of one of the parties to the former agreement. S.C. law has long been promulgated to limit and restrict the otherwise expansive right of an individual to direct the disposition of his or her estate, after his death, by valid Will, regardless of the otherwise reasonableness, in third party eyes, of the distribution. But this individual right, long protected and largely unfettered, is clearly held, by S.C. public policy and statute, to be overridden by the paramount responsibility for a surviving spouse to be reasonably “provided for” after the death of a spouse. Even if the purported language in the “2005 Agreement” is considered to become a governing part of the “2005 Will”, which is doubtful, it would not override long-standing S.C. statutory provisions and public policy. Weeks v. New York Life Ins. Co., Supreme Court of South Carolina, April 15, 1924.

This Court finds that S.C. Code 1976 Sect. 62-2-301, as amended (“Omitted Spouse Statute”) applies to the instant estate and the “2005 Will” of Stephen Day Ward, Jr., and that neither of the two clearly specified, statutory exceptions have been shown to be present or applicable.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Respondents’ Motion for Summary Judgment is hereby denied and dismissed, with prejudice.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Judge
Charleston County Probate Court

Rule 56(c) states summary judgment is appropriate if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56(c), SCRCF. "In determining whether any triable issue of fact exists, the evidence and all inferences which can reasonably be drawn therefrom must be viewed in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party." Grimsley v. S.C. Law Enft Div., 415 S.C. 33, 40, 780 S.E.2d 897, 900 (2015). "Even though courts are required to view the facts in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, to survive a motion for summary judgment, 'it is not sufficient for a party to create an inference that is not reasonable or an issue of fact that is not genuine.'" Id. (quoting Town of Hollywood v. Floyd, 403 S.C. 466, 477, 744 S.E.2d 161, 166 (2013)). "The party seeking summary judgment has the burden of clearly establishing the absence of a genuine issue of material fact." Bennett v. Inv'rs Title Ins. Co., 370 S.C. 578, 588- 89, 635 S.E.2d 649, 654 (Ct. App. 2006). If the moving party is successful, the nonmoving party must then come forward with specific facts showing there is a genuine issue for trial. Id.

Previously in this matter, this Court held a hearing on October 25, 2017. At that hearing, both sides presented facts and arguments. After that hearing it is very clear that there are some genuine issues of material fact that need to be addressed. Those issues require a hearing on the merits and a judgment will be made after all of the evidence has been presented.

Additionally, in reaching its decision this Court relied on S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-102(b)(2) and S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-102(a). Section 62-1-102(b)(2) provides that an underlying purpose and policy of the South Carolina Probate Code is "to discover and make effective the intent of a decedent in the distribution of his property." S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-102(b)(2). Section 62-1-102(a) provides that the South Carolina Probate Code shall be liberally construed and applied to promote this purpose and policy. S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-102(a).

Similarly, summary judgment is a drastic remedy and “should be cautiously invoked to ensure that a litigant is not improperly deprived of a trial on disputed factual issues. BPS, Inc. v. Worthy, 262 S.C. 319, 236, 608 S.E.2d 155, 159 (Ct. App. 2005). Furthermore, “[s]ummary judgment is not appropriate where further inquiry into the facts of the case is desirable to clarify the application of the law.” Id. at 325, 155. This Court finds that further inquiry into the facts of the case is desirable to clarify the application of the law and thus, summary judgment is not appropriate.

Therefore, the Motion for Reconsideration of Order Denying Summary Judgment is hereby DENIED.

This matter comes on for hearing on a Summons and Petition for Omitted Spouse share filed by Petitioner pursuant to the Omitted Spouse statute, S.C. Code 1976 as amended Sect. 62-2-301. Petitioner appeared at the hearing by her court-appointed Conservator, Ann Noble-Kiley. All other appearances of parties and counsel were as referenced above.

Petitioner's Petition includes the License and Certificate of Marriage between Stephen Day Ward, Jr. and Mary Kimberly Walker certifying that the named parties were married on September 7, 2013 at Seabrook Island, Charleston County, S.C. Signing as officiant for the ceremony was Jack Guedalia, former Associate Judge of Probate of the Charleston County Probate Court.

Additionally, Petitioner's daughter, Ann Noble-Kiley, testified she attended and witnessed the wedding of her mother and Stephen Day Ward, Jr. in 2013. Ms. Noble-Kiley further testified her mother was married to Mr. Ward at his death on September 16, 2016, and continues to survive him as his widow at the present date.

At the death of Stephen Day Ward, Jr., Respondents, children of the decedent, entered for probate his Last Will and Testament dated April 21, 2005 ("2005 Will"). Their Application for Informal Probate of Will filed September 29, 2016, lists "Mary Kimberly Ward – wife" as an intestate heir. The Application further affirms that they are unaware of any subsequent unrevoked Will or Codicil and that the April 21, 2005 Will is the Decedent's validly executed last Will.

This "2005 Will" makes no mention of Petitioner, the surviving spouse of Stephen Day Ward, Jr., as it specifically states that, at the time of execution, Stephen Day Ward, Jr. was married to Nancy L. Ward.

This Court finds that this estate falls squarely within the provisions of S.C. Code 1976 as amended Sect. 62-2-301 ("Omitted Spouse Statute"), and that Petitioner has fulfilled all her procedural obligations to present a rightful claim pursuant to said statute.

The Respondents argue that the "2005 Last Will" admitted to probate, incorporates by reference an "Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts ("2005 Agreement"), also dated April 21, 2005, and apparently executed by decedent and his then-wife, Nancy L. Ward. Nancy L. Ward died on June 4, 2011, and decedent thereafter married Mary K. Ward.

Decedent's "2005 Will" was admitted to informal probate in this Court on September 30, 2016, and Respondents were appointed as Co-Personal Representatives pursuant to its terms.

The "Omitted Spouse statute", as currently amended, replaces an earlier statutory version which declared a will, executed by one spouse prior to a marriage, was presumptively revoked by a subsequent marriage. (former S.C. Code Sect. 21-7-220, SC Code 1962 Sect. 19-222). The current statutory provision, amended in 1986, provides two specific and limited exceptions to the presumption of revocation. Sect. 62-2-301(a)(1) allows an exception where “it appears from the will that the omission was intentional” emphasis added, Sect. (a)(2) allows an alternate exception if the decedent “provided for the spouse by transfer outside the Will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.”

Respondents argue that the “2005 Agreement”, (Respondents’ Exhibit 6), operates to make Stephen D. Ward, Jr.’s “2005 Will” irrevocable upon Nancy L. Ward’s death. (“2005 Agreement”, Article 3.2). They argue that the language in the “2005 Agreement”, as read in combination with the “2005 Will”, satisfies the statutory requirement of the Omitted Spouse statute to constitute an exception if “it appears from the will that the omission was intentional”.

However, nothing in the 2005 “Last Will” or “Agreement” makes any specific mention of Mary K. Ward. Clearly, by all reasonable laws of construction, the “2005 Will”, executed during the decedent’s marriage to Nancy L. Ward, could not “intentionally” omit provision for Mary K. Ward, as a surviving spouse, as Mary K. Ward did not, and could not, by any legal or actual, factual construction, have the status of “spouse” to Stephen D. Ward in 2005. Ms. Noble-Kiley testified that the parties did not even know one another until 2012.

Further, as a matter of public policy, non-specific “blanket” language in an Agreement between two parties, even if married to each other at the time and held to be applicable to their testamentary wishes during their lifetime together, could not be construed to apply as a limitation on the rights of a third-party, “innocent”, subsequent spouse of one of the parties to the former agreement. S.C. law has long been construed to support the right of an individual to direct the disposition of his or her estate after his death by valid Will, regardless of the otherwise unreasonableness, in third party eyes, of the distribution. But this individual right, long protected and largely unfettered, is clearly held, by S.C. public policy and current statute, to be overridden by the paramount responsibility for a surviving spouse to be reasonably “provided for” after the death of a spouse. Even if the purported language in the “2005 Agreement” is considered to become a governing part of the “2005 Will”, it would not override long-standing S.C. statutory provisions and public policy. Weeks v. New York Life Ins. Co., Supreme Court of South Carolina, April 15, 1924.

However, the same “2005 Agreement” relied upon by Respondents to exclude Mary K. Ward also specifically requires that the survivor of Stephen L. Ward, Jr. and Nancy L. Ward will take all “necessary” or “required” measures “to maintain his or her Will and Trust in full force until his or her death” (Article 4.1). Additionally should a survivor of the two of them subsequently remarry, the remarried Survivor shall “Thereafter ratify his or her Will and Trust in the form and with the provisions contained in his or her Will and Trust annexed hereto (emphasis added); and As a condition of such remarriage, require any person he or she remarries to legally and unconditionally waive his or her right to an Elective share...” (Articles 4.2.1 and 4.2.2).

The “2005 Agreement” relied upon by Respondents clearly acknowledges and anticipates the controlling provisions of the S.C. Probate Code, reflecting the public policy of this State, that a surviving spouse be reasonably provided for from a deceased spouse’ estate.

Indeed, as witness Brett Bluestein, an attorney previously in practice at Respondent’s counsel firm, and the drafter of Mr. Ward’s “2005 Will” and the “2005 Agreement”, testified, all provisions of all relevant estate planning documents were intended to be governed by, and construed according to the laws of the State of South Carolina (“2005 Agreement” – Article VII).

Respondents have presented no document of Mr. Ward's ratifying his "2005 Will" after his 2013 marriage to Petitioner, and indeed their Application for Probate states there is no testamentary instrument subsequent to the "2005 Will". Likewise, Respondents present no document of Petitioner waiving any of her statutory rights of inheritance as a surviving spouse.

Petitioner's counsel objected to the testimony sought by Respondent's counsel from several witnesses as to conversations with decedent about the effect of his marriage to Mary Ward on his 2005 Will, as prohibited by the Dead Man's Statute.

The S.C. Dead Man's Statute, S.C. Code Ann. Sect. 19-11-20 (S.C. 1976) prohibits admission of testimony from a "party to an action or proceeding" or "person who has a legal or equitable interest which may be affected by the event of the action or proceeding," regarding "any transaction or communication between such person and a person at the time of the examination deceased...against a party then prosecuting or defending the action...when such examination or any judgment or determination in such action or proceeding can in any manner affect the interest of such witness...". As held in Brooks v. Brooks, 530 S.E. 2d 120 (S.C. 2000) and Hanahan v. Simpson, 326 S.C. 140, 485 S.E. 2d 903 (1991), this rule prohibits any "interested persons" from testifying concerning conversations or transactions with the decedent if the testimony could affect his or her interest in the proceeding.

In this case, the rule clearly excludes any testimony from the three Respondents, beneficiaries under the 2005 Will, as to conversations with their late father that might bear on Petitioner's claim of spousal inheritance and thereby reduce their own beneficial interest. The objection to the proffered testimony of Respondents is sustained, and such testimony is not admitted or continued by this Court.

As to the objection to Ms. Einstrom's testimony, the Seabrook Island realtor and former social friend of the decedent and his former wife, Nancy, the Court finds that even though she has a current listing contract with Respondents for the marketing and sale of decedent's residence, her financial interest in the future sale of such property is not sufficiently affected by the outcome of this proceeding to exclude her testimony. Petitioner's objection was therefore overruled.

Secondly, Respondents argue in their Response to Petition that Stephen Day Ward, Jr. provided for Petitioner outside the 2005 Will, as provided in S.C. Code 1976 amended Sect. 62-2-301(a)(2). This "transfer outside-the-will" provision must be intentionally in lieu of a testamentary provision as shown by either the statements of the testator or the amount of the transfer.

In considering the limited exceptions to the statutory protection of a surviving spouse not named in a pre-marriage Will, S.C. Law has held that even when an earlier Will specifically includes the person who later marries the decedent, by name and with a specific bequest, unless the bequest also states the bequest is made in contemplation of marriage, the bequest does not satisfy a provision for the survivor in their capacity as a spouse. [A spouse has not been "provided for" under Sect. 62-2-301(a) (the omitted spouse statute) in the absence of specific language in a will or sufficient extrinsic evidence that a bequest was made in contemplation of marriage. (emphasis added) Miles v. Miles (S.C. 1994) 312 S.C. 408, 440 S.E. 2d 882, rehearing denied.] (emphasis added) Miles v. Miles, 312 S.C. 408, 440 S.E. 2d 882 (S.C. 1994), Green ex rel. Estate of Cottrell v. Cottrell ex rel. Estate of Cottrell, 346 S.C. 53 (2001).

Here, the "2005 Will" makes no mention of Mary K. Ward by name, and makes no provision for her in any capacity, much less any bequest in anticipation or contemplation of marriage to her, as decedent was happily, presumably, married to Nancy K. Ward in 2005.

Similarly, a pre-marriage Will which omits provision for a surviving spouse may be valid if the decedent alternatively provides for the surviving spouse outside the Will, and the testator specifically states that the transfer of assets is in lieu of a testamentary provision. Green ex re. Estate of Cottrell v. Cottrell ex rel. Estate of Cottrell, 346 S.C. 53 (2001)(testator specifically provided for spouse before marriage in Will, as well as QTIP Trust to take effect after marriage.) Or, if specific statements of the testator's intent are not evident, the amount of the non-testamentary transfer ("sheer magnitude") can be inference of intent to substitute provision outside the Will. In re Timmerman, 331 S.C. 455, 502 S.E. 2d 920 (S.C. App. 1998) (Testator's transfer to surviving spouse outside Will totaled $1,191,000.00).

In the instant case, Respondents present no statements or documents of decedent regarding any intent to provide for Mary K. Ward outside his Will. Further, there is no evidence of any transfers of assets from decedent to Petitioner during their marriage, or established by decedent to take effect at his death that would bear any reasonable proportion to the size of his estate as a substitute spousal provision outside his Will.

Respondents attempted to introduce testimony of general statements made to them by their father, the decedent, but the objections of Petitioner's counsel were sustained by this Court. Even were such proffered testimony considered by this Court, none of the three Respondents presented any statement from their father of his intent to specifically transfer assets to Petitioner in lieu of testamentary provision.

Further, Respondents fail to show any intent of the decedent for spousal provision outside his Will, by virtue of the amount of any transfer. Respondents' only evidence, gleaned from a review of decedent's financial records after his death, is that the couple maintained a joint bank account after their marriage for marital household expenses, to which decedent's income was the primary, if not sole, contributor. Respondents also testified that the decedent, at some 20 years his wife's junior, reported income at an estimated four times greater than his wife. His Estate Inventory, as amended by testimony of Respondent Brian Ward, reflects a net value of more than $999,000.00.

Respondents also point to a payment of $1600.00 for property taxes on a Seabrook Island property owned by Petitioner prior to the marriage, and an estimated payment of $7500.00 for medical and healthcare in-home assistance for Petitioner following a broken leg. Both payments appear to have been made from the couple's joint account. Neither of these fall beyond the realm of reasonable family support arrangements, given Stephen and Mary Ward's relative ages, incomes and assets.

Accordingly, this Court finds that Petitioner has clearly proved her claim to a spousal share of the Estate of her late husband, Stephen Day Ward, Jr., as provided by S.C. Code 1976 Sect. 62-2-301, which share shall be equal to one-half of the probate estate of the decedent.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court upon a Motion for Reconsideration filed by the Respondents in this case. Respondents filed the present to Motion for Reconsideration on August 20, 2018 in response to this Court's Order dated August 9, 2018. Respondents argue that the August 9, 2018 Order should be altered or amended pursuant to Rule 59(e) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure due to several errors in the findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Therefore, pursuant to Rule 59(e) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, the Order of this Court dated August 9, 2018 is hereby amended to read as follows:

THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Mary K. Ward's (hereinafter "Petitioner") Petition for Omitted Spouse Share filed on January 19, 2017. Present at the hearing were Ann Noble-Kiley, daughter and conservator for Petitioner, along with Jane McFaddin, Esquire, attorney for Petitioner, and Amanda K. Bailey, Esquire and George Morrison, Esquire, along with their clients Stephanie Cibinic, David Ward, and Brian Ward (hereinafter "Respondents").

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Stephen Day Ward (hereinafter "Decedent") and Nancy L. Ward, Decedent's third wife, were married on May 23, 1998. Decedent and Nancy Ward executed an "Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts" on April 21, 2005. Nancy L. Ward passed away on June 4, 2011, leaving Decedent as her surviving spouse. Thereafter, on September 7, 2013, Decedent and Petitioner were married on Seabrook Island, Charleston County. Decedent passed away on September 16, 2016, a resident of Charleston County, leaving Petitioner as his surviving spouse.

On September 29, 2016, Respondents filed a Petition for Informal Probate of Will and Appointment, along with the 2005 Last Will and Testament of the Decedent, pursuant to which they were appointed as Co-Personal Representatives of the Estate of Stephen Day Ward on September 30, 2016. On the Application, Respondents listed Mary K. Ward as an intestate heir of the Decedent. On January 28, 2017, Petitioner filed a Petition for Omitted Spouse Share. On April 11, 2017, Respondents filed a Response to Petition for Omitted Spouse Share denying Petitioner's claim for omitted spouse share.

On June 30, 2017, Respondents filed a Motion for Summary Judgment. On October 23, 2017, Petitioner filed a Reply to Motion for Summary Judgment. This Court issued an Order Denying Summary Judgment on October 25, 2017. Respondents filed a Motion for Reconsideration of Order Denying Summary Judgment on November 27, 2017. This Court issued an Order Denying Respondents' Motion for Reconsideration on February 9, 2018.

This Court issued a Notice of Hearing on March 2, 2018. In lieu of closing statements and with the parties' consent, the Court accepted proposed orders from attorneys for Petitioner and Respondents at the conclusion of the hearing.

Based upon a review of the record in this matter, evidence and testimony presented, and proposed orders submitted, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Decedent died testate on September 16, 2016, a resident of Charleston County, South Carolina.
2. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter and venue is proper pursuant to S.C. Code of Laws Ann. §§ 62-1-302 and 62-3-201 (a) (1).
3. The Court finds that proper notice was given to all parties in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-401.
4. Petitioner called Ann Noble-Kiley as her only witness. Noble-Kiley testified that she is the daughter and court-appointed conservator for the Petitioner. She further testified that she attended the wedding of the Decedent and Petitioner on September 7, 2013 on Seabrook Island, and that at the time of Decedent's passing, he was still married to Petitioner.
5. Following the testimony of Ms. Noble-Kiley, Respondents moved for involuntary non-suit, which the Court denied on the record.
6. Respondents called Brett Bluestein as their first witness. Mr. Bluestein testified that he is currently a wealth strategist, but prior to that, he was a practicing attorney with the South Carolina Bar.

7. Prior to answering questions relevant to the case at bar, Respondents waived any attorney-client privilege that the Decedent may have had with Mr. Bluestein.
8. While in private practice, Bluestein provided legal services to Stephen Ward and his then-wife, Nancy Ward, in 2005, including the preparation the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts for the Decedent.
9. Bluestein testified that an Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts is a document used in very limited circumstances involving couples with children from prior marriages, in order to ensure the distribution of assets is made according to the estate plan even in the event one spouse predeceased the other and the other spouse remarried.
10. Bluestein stated that he would not have suggested or offered up an agreement for mutual wills as part of the Decedent's estate plan unless the Decedent intended for his will and trust agreement to be enforced in the event Nancy Ward predeceased him and he subsequently remarried. Bluestein "would not have offered this agreement to mutual clients unless that was exactly what they wanted to do. Protecting against distribution of their assets after the death of the first spouse."
11. Bluestein clarified that he would not have suggested this document nor offered it up to Nancy Ward or Stephen Ward if it were not crystal clear that their intent in drafting the Agreement for Mutual Wills, their Last Wills and Testaments, and their Trusts Agreement, was to omit any subsequent spouse from inheriting from the surviving spouse's estate.
12. Bluestein testified that he was not aware of any amendments, modifications, or alterations to any of the estate planning documents, nor did Nancy Ward or Stephen Ward reach out to him to do so.

JK
4/6/12

13. The April 21, 2005 Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward ("Will") is the valid Last Will and Testament of Decedent.
14. At the time of execution of the 2005 Will, Decedent was married to his third wife, Nancy Ward.
15. Nancy Ward predeceased the Decedent in 2011.
16. Decedent and Petitioner were married in September 2013 on Seabrook Island, Charleston County, South Carolina.
17. At the time of their marriage, Petitioner owned a home at 1220 Creek Watch Trace on Seabrook Island and Decedent owned a home at 2412 High Hammock Road on Seabrook Island. Resp.'s Ex. 7.
18. Item XIII of the 2005 Will incorporates by reference The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts between Stephen D. Ward ("Husband") and Nancy L. Ward ("Wife"), dated April 21, 2005 ("Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts").
19. Sections 2.5 and 7.1 of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts expressly incorporates by reference the following exhibits:
  1. Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward, April 21, 2005;
  2. Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward, April 21, 2005;
  3. Nancy Diemer Trust, April 28, 1998;
  4. First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward, April 21, 2005; and
  5. Last Will and Testament of Nancy L. Ward, April 21, 2005.
20. In addition, the Trust Agreement for Stephen D. Ward, the Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward, the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L.

Ward, and the Last Will and Testament of Nancy L. Ward each contain express provisions incorporating by reference the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trust.

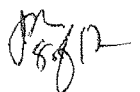

21. Respondents called Trisha Ernstrom as a witness. Ernstrom was friends with the Decedent and Nancy Ward during their lifetimes.
22. Ernstrom testified that after the execution of the 2005 Agreement for Mutual Wills, but prior to Nancy Ward's death in 2011, Ernstrom discussed with the Decedent his and Nancy's estate plan on many occasions. Ernstrom testified that the Decedent stated that he and Nancy had arranged through an attorney and intended to provide for their respective children to inherit the house and all their assets.
23. Ernstrom testified that after Nancy Ward passed away, Ernstrom remained friends with the Decedent and discussed his relationship and subsequent marriage to his fourth wife, Petitioner.
24. Ernstrom testified that prior to their marriage, the Decedent and Petitioner each had a home on Seabrook Island. Ernstrom testified that she had concerns about the Decedent's decision to marry Petitioner and the marriage's impact on the Decedent and Nancy Ward's estate plan, and discussed those concerns with him.
25. Ernstrom testified that when Ernstrom and Decedent discussed his marriage with Petitioner, on at least three occasions, Decedent insisted that the marriage to Petitioner was not going to effect the estate plan he and Nancy Ward had planned, that nothing would change, and that "everything was going to stay as he and Nancy had planned."
26. After the Decedent and Petitioner were married in 2013, Petitioner continued to own her own home at 1220 Creek Watch Trace on Seabrook Island, but moved in with the Decedent at 2412 High Hammock Road on Seabrook Island.

27. Respondent Brian Ward is one of the Decedent's children. Brian Ward testified that the Decedent had property on Seabrook Island since the 1970s that Brian Ward and his siblings would visit during the summers for more than twenty (20) years.
28. Brian Ward testified that in 2005 or 2006, Decedent provided Brian Ward with a bound copy of Decedent's estate planning documents, which included the Agreement for Mutual Wills and its exhibits, which was admitted into evidence without objection as Exhibit 8.
29. Brian Ward testified that he discussed these estate planning documents with the Decedent at the time he delivered them in 2005 or 2006, and then again in 2013, prior to the Decedent's marriage to the Petitioner.
30. Petitioner's attorney objected to testimony on discussions with the Decedent pursuant to the Dead Man's Statute, which the Court sustained. Respondents proffered the testimony of Brian Ward's discussions with the Decedent.
31. Brian Ward testified that at no time did he observe the Decedent unable to make his own decisions, care for himself, communicate freely, or maintain his finances.
32. Brian Ward testified that after Decedent passed away, Brian Ward, as Co-Personal Representative of the estate, reviewed the Decedent's finances and located assets.
33. Brian Ward testified that a joint BB&T account was held between the Decedent and Petitioner, funded entirely by pension and Social Security income of the Decedent, and was used to pay the living expenses of both Decedent and Petitioner during Decedent's lifetime, tax expenses of Petitioner's property on Seabrook Island in the amount of $1,600.00, and Petitioner's health care expenses of at least $7,500.00.

34. Brian Ward testified that the BB&T account was a joint account with rights of survivorship and transferred to Mary Ward outside of the Estate, with a balance of approximately $4,000.00 upon Decedent's death.
35. Brian Ward testified that the Decedent owned, with rights of survivorship to Petitioner, a time-share in Las Vegas with an unknown value, a Toyota Camry lease with an unknown value, and a Seabrook Island Club membership valued at $17,000, all of which transferred to Petitioner outside of the estate.
36. Brian Ward testified that in his role as Co-Personal Representative, he was able to identify Social Security and other investment income of the Decedent, but that the Petitioner's income was not used to pay Petitioner and Decedent's living expenses and was not deposited into the BB&T joint account.
37. Brian Ward testified that he has not received any documentation that the Decedent amended, revoked, or modified any of the estate planning documents in Exhibit 8.
38. Respondent David Ward, also one of Decedent's children, testified similarly that in 2006, Decedent provided him a bound copy of his estate planning documents, Exhibit 8, and that to his knowledge, at no time thereafter, was Exhibit 8 amended, ratified, modified, or revoked.
39. David Ward testified that he discussed these estate planning documents with the Decedent in 2011 and then again in 2013, prior to his marriage to Mary Ward.
40. Petitioner's attorney objected to testimony on discussions with the Decedent pursuant to the Dead Man's Statute, which the Court sustained. Respondents proffered the testimony of David Ward's discussions with the Decedent.

41. Respondent Stephanie Cibinic, Decedent's daughter, also testified similarly that in late 2005 or 2006, Decedent provided her a with bound copy of his estate planning documents, Exhibit 8, and that to her knowledge, at no time thereafter, was Exhibit 8 amended, ratified, modified, or revoked.
42. Cibinic testified, without objection, that Decedent called her in August 2013, prior to his marriage to the Petitioner, and told her he was going to get married and said, "This does not impact the Will."

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

43. An action under the omitted spouse statute is an action at law. Green ex rel. Estate of Cottrell v. Cottrell ex rel. Estate of Cottrell, 346 S.C. 53, 60, 550 S.E.2d 324, 328 (Ct. App. 2001).
44. The Omitted Spouse Statute, S.C. Code Ann. § Section 62-2-301, provides in relevant part:
- (a) If a testator fails to provide by will for his surviving spouse who married the testator after the execution of the will, the omitted spouse, upon compliance with the provisions of subsection (c), shall receive the same share of the estate he would have received if the decedent left no will unless:
- (1) it appears from the will that the omission was intentional;
- or
- (2) the testator provided for the spouse by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.
45. In Green ex rel. Estate of Cottrell, the Court noted that the legislative purpose behind the Probate Code was "(2) to discover and make effective the intent of a decedent in the distribution of his property." Id. (emphasis supplied).

46. A surviving spouse who wishes to qualify as an omitted spouse must demonstrate:

- (1) the decedent spouse executed the Will in question prior to the marriage;
- (2) the Will does not provide for her as the surviving spouse;
- (3) the omission was unintentional; and
- (4) the decedent did not provide for the spouse with transfers outside of the Will.

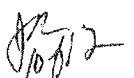

Id. at 60–62, 550 S.E.2d 324, 328–29.

47. The reporter’s comments to the Omitted Spouse Statute specifically contemplates evidence of the Decedent’s intentions from the face of the Will, from the Decedent’s statements, or other evidence.

48. The Omitted Spouse Statute, as currently amended, replaces an earlier statutory version, which declared a will, executed by one spouse prior to a marriage, was presumptively revoked by a subsequent marriage. Former S.C. Code § 21-7-220, S.C. Code 1962 § 19-222. The current statutory provision, amended in 1986, provides two specific and limited exceptions to the presumption of revocation. S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-301 (a) (1) allows an exception where “it appears from the will that the omission was intentional.” S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-301(a)(2) allows an alternate exception if the decedent “provided for the spouse by transfer outside the Will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence.”

49. In the present case, it is undisputed that the Petitioner meets the first two elements to qualify as an omitted spouse, as the Decedent executed the 2005 Will prior to his marriage to Petitioner and the 2005 Will does not provide for the Petitioner.

50. Respondents argue that the omission was intentional, as evidenced by the language of the Will and the documents incorporated by reference therein.

51. South Carolina law permits an expressed testamentary compact for joint wills, which becomes irrevocable when one party predeceases. S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-701.
52. Additionally, South Carolina law provides for documents to be incorporated into a will by reference. S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-509.
53. Section IV 4.2 states that if the surviving spouse remarries, he or she will “Thereafter ratify his or her Will and Trust in the form and with the provisions contained in his or her Will and Trust...and as a condition of such re-marriage, require any person he or she remarries to legally and unconditionally waive his or her right to an Elective Share in the Property provided them under South Carolina Law.”
54. Decedent did not ratify his Will or Trust and did not condition his marriage to Petitioner on the requirement that she waive any right to his Estate.
55. While South Carolina Courts have held that a Decedent’s choice to leave a previous Will intact is evidence of an intentional omission, the opposite is true in this case. Green ex rel. Estate of Cottrell v. Cottrell ex rel. Estate of Cottrell, 550 S.E.2d 324 (Ct. App. 2001).
56. The Court finds that the Decedent’s failure to comply with Section IV 4.2 of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts is evidence that the Decedent did not intentionally omit the Petitioner from his Estate.
57. With respect to the fourth element, Petitioner must demonstrate that “that the Decedent did not provide for Petitioner outside of the Will.”
58. To satisfy the fourth element, the testator must provide for the spouse outside the will and intend this provision to be in lieu of any testamentary disposition. S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-301.

59. In re Estate of Timmerman, 502 S.E.2d 920 (Ct. App. 1998), the Court found that the Decedent provided for the spouse outside the will, in lieu of any testamentary disposition, based on “the sheer magnitude” of the transfers to the surviving spouse. In Timmerman, the transfers from the Decedent to the Petitioner amounted to $1.2 million, including joint bank accounts and substantial gifts to the surviving spouse and her children. Id.
60. Respondents argue that the Decedent provided for Petitioner outside of the Will, during his lifetime, by paying for Petitioner’s living expenses, expenses related to Petitioner’s own individual home on Seabrook, Petitioner’s health care related expenses, and providing for rights of survivorship to the BB&T account, time share, Toyota Camry lease, and Seabrook Island Club membership.
61. The Court finds that, although the Decedent shared expenses with the Petitioner during their marriage, there is no evidence that the Decedent intended these transfers to be in lieu of any testamentary disposition.

Based on the foregoing, it is hereby,

ORDERED ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Petitioner’s claim for omitted spouse share is GRANTED; it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the Petitioner is entitled to her intestate share of the Decedent’s estate; it is further

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the parties shall have ten (10) days from the date of this Supplemental Order to file any post-hearing motions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

COUNTY OF CHARLESTON

CASE NO. 2016-ES-10-1631

IN RE: ESTATE OF STEPHEN DAY WARD, JR.

MARY K. WARD A/K/A MARY
KIMBERLY WARD

ORDER DENYING RESPONDENTS'
MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION
OF JANUARY 18, 2019 ORDER

Petitioner,

v.

STEPHANIE WARD CIBINIC,
DAVID D. WARD, AND BRIAN C.
WARD, Personal Representatives,

Respondents.

Presiding Judge:	Irvin G. Condon
Petitioner:	Mary K. Ward a/k/a Mary Kimberly Ward
Petitioner's Attorney:	Jane A. McFaddin, Esq.
Respondents:	Stephanie Ward Cibinic, David D. Ward, and Brian C. Ward
Respondents' Attorneys:	Amanda K. Bailey, Esq. and George E. Morrison, Esq.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court upon a Motion to Reconsider, Alter & Amend Order dated and filed January 28, 2019 by Respondents. The present Motion is captioned as a "Motion for Reconsideration of January 18, 2019 Order," and is properly considered as a Rule 59(e) motion to alter or amend judgment.

Pursuant to Rule 59(f), SCRCP, this Court issues its ruling on the Respondents' Motion to Reconsider without holding a hearing. The filing of motions and other pleadings in the Probate Court is governed by the South Carolina Probate Code and, where not inconsistent, the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including Rule 59(e). In re: Estate of Timmerman, 331 S.C.

455, 460, 502 S.E.2d 920, 922 (Ct. App. 1998) (see also S.C. Code Ann. §§ 14-23-280, 62-1-304).

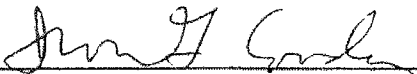

A party may not use a Rule 59 motion to re-litigate old matters or present issues that could have been raised prior to the judgment, but were not. Exxon Shipping Co. v. Baker, 554 U.S. 471, 485 n.5 (2008); Hickman v. Hickman, 301 S.C. 455, 456, 392 S.E.2d 481, 482 (Ct. App. 1990).

After a review of the relevant pleadings, memoranda, and hearing notes, the Court finds that the Motion filed raises no new argument and presents no new evidence, therefore, the Court respectfully DENIES the Motion.

Based upon the foregoing, it is now therefore, hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Movant's Motion to Alter or Amend Judgment and Reconsider Order Dated January 18, 2019 is respectfully DENIED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

The Appellants/Respondents, Stephanie Ward Cibinic, David D. Ward, and Brian C. Ward, Personal Representatives of the Estate of Stephen Day Ward, hereby submit their Statement of Issues on Appeal:

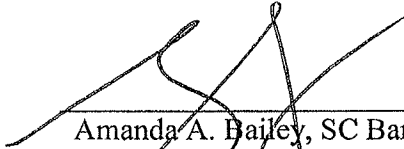

- 1) Whether the Probate Court erred in granting Petitioner an omitted spousal share because such finding is controlled by an erroneous conception of the application of the law?
- 2) Whether the Probate Court erred in failing to find Decedent intentionally omitted Petitioner from the Will because any intent to the contrary is wholly unsupported by the evidence?
- 3) Whether the Probate Court erred in denying Appellant’s Motion for Summary Judgment and Motion for Involuntary Non-Suit because it appears from the Decedent’s Will that the omission of the Respondent from the Will was intentional?

- 4) Whether the Probate Court erred in excluding the testimony of witnesses proffered by Appellants/Respondents?

Respondents' Attorneys:	Amanda K. Bailey, Esq. and George E. Morrison, Esq.

THIS MATTER comes before the Court upon a Motion to Reconsider, Alter & Amend Order dated and filed January 28, 2019 by Respondents. The present Motion is captioned as a "Motion for Reconsideration of January 18, 2019 Order," and is properly considered as a Rule 59(e) motion to alter or amend judgment.

Pursuant to Rule 59(f), SCRPC, this Court issues its ruling on the Respondents' Motion to Reconsider without holding a hearing. The filing of motions and other pleadings in the Probate Court is governed by the South Carolina Probate Code and, where not inconsistent, the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, including Rule 59(e). In re: Estate of Timmerman, 331 S.C.

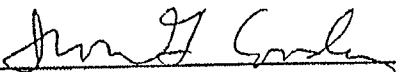

455, 460, 502 S.E.2d 920, 922 (Ct. App. 1998) (see also S.C. Code Ann. §§ 14-23-280, 62-1-304). A party may not use a Rule 59 motion to re-litigate old matters or present issues that could have been raised prior to the judgment, but were not. Exxon Shipping Co. v. Baker, 554 U.S. 471, 485 n.5 (2008); Hickman v. Hickman, 301 S.C. 455, 456, 392 S.E.2d 481, 482 (Ct. App. 1990).

After a review of the relevant pleadings, memoranda, and hearing notes, the Court finds that the Motion filed raises no new argument and presents no new evidence, therefore, the Court respectfully DENIES the Motion.

Based upon the foregoing, it is now therefore, hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that Movant's Motion to Alter or Amend Judgment and Reconsider Order Dated January 18, 2019 is respectfully DENIED.

Respondents Stephanie Ward Cibinic, David D. Ward, and Brian C. Ward, Personal Representatives of the Estate of Stephen Day Ward, Jr., hereby file and serve this Motion for Summary Judgment. By this motion, Respondents seek an order granting them summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56, SCRPC because there is no genuine issue of material fact as to the claim alleged in the Petition for Omitted Spouse Share in this case (the "Petition").

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

In the Petition, Petitioner alleges that she is entitled to the omitted spousal share under S.C. Code Ann § 62-2-301 (the "Omitted Spouse Statute"). Petitioner, however, is not entitled to the omitted spousal share because it is apparent from the Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward (the "Will") that Petitioner's omission therefrom was intentional.

FILED
17 JUN 30 PM 12:49
PROBATE COURT
CHARLESTON COUNTY

FACTS

Decedent executed the Will on April 21, 2005. At the time, Decedent was married to Nancy L. Ward (the "Prior Wife"). The Will was not executed as a standalone document; rather, it was executed as an exhibit to a document entitled Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, which was also executed on April 21, 2005. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts contained five Exhibits:

- (1) Exhibit 1 was the Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward, which was also executed on April 21, 2005;
- (2) Exhibit 2 was the Will (entitled the Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward);
- (3) Exhibit 3 was the Nancy Diemer Trust, which was executed on April 28, 1998;
- (4) Exhibit 4 was the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward, which was also executed on April 21, 2005; and
- (5) Exhibit 5 Last Will and Testament of Nancy L. Ward, which was also executed on April 21, 2005.

A true and correct copy of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, along with all of its Exhibits, is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Item XII of the Will expressly provides that: "The Agreement for Mutual Will sand Trusts dated as of even date herewith between Stephen D. Ward and Nancy L. Ward is incorporated by reference into this Last Will and Testament."

The purpose of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts is apparent from the four corners of the document. In short:

Husband and Wife mutually desire for the Survivor to have full use of the Property during his or her life with the Property after the death of the Survivor to be distributed as provided for in the Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward (dated of even date herewith and the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward (dated of even date herewith).

Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts ¶ II.2.3. Prior Wife pre-deceased the Decedent and thus, Decedent has been the Survivor under the terms of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts until his death. Per the plain and ordinary language of the Decedent's Will, the Decedent, as the Survivor under the Agreement for Mutual Wills Trusts, intended to omit any future spouse and intended to distribute the Property as provided for in the Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward upon his death.

ANALYSIS

The Omitted Spouse Statute provides, in relevant part:

If a testator fails to provide by will for his surviving spouse who married the testator after the execution of the will, the omitted spouse . . . shall receive the same share of the estate he would have received if the decedent left no will unless: . . . it appears from the will that the omission was intentional . . . .

S.C. Code Ann § 62-2-301(a)(1). Here, there is no dispute over the facts that Decedent married Petitioner after he executed the Will, that the Will did not provide for Petitioner, and that Petitioner survived Decedent. However, it is also apparent from the Will that Petitioner's omission of Petitioner therefrom was intentional.

Specifically, the Will provides for a general bequest of the personal and household effects by memoranda. Will, Item II. The Will further establishes a pour over gift of all the rest, residue and remainder to the "Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and me as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 21st day of April 21, 2005." Will, Item III. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trust is expressly incorporated into the Will. Will, Item XIII.

Section 62-2-509 of the South Carolina Code provides that: "Any writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification." In this case, there can be no dispute that the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts was in existence when the Will was executed based on the plain and ordinary language of the Will. Further, there can be no dispute that Item XIII of the Will expressly and clearly manifests the intent of the Decedent to incorporate the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts by reference. Thus, the terms and the language used in the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts are part and parcel of the Will.

The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts clearly and unequivocally expresses the Decedent's intent to omit future spouses from the Will. Specifically, the terms of the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts provides:

II. RECITALS.

2.1 Husband and Wife are now married.

2.2 Husband and Wife each have children from a former marriage.

2.3 Husband and Wife mutually desire for the Survivor to have full use of the Property during his or her life with the Property after the death of the Survivor to be distributed as provided for in the Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward (dated as of even date herewith) and the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward (dated as of even date herewith).

2.4 Husband and Wife have executed their Wills and Trusts, copies of which have been annexed hereto as Exhibits 1 through 5.

2.5 The Wills and Trusts of the Parties have been made as they are on the condition that the disposition of the Property be made according to their Wills and Trusts, unless this Agreement is altered, amended or revoked as provided for hereinafter.

2.6 This Agreement is made to insure that the mutual plan of the Parties shall not be altered by acts subsequent to date hereof, except as agreed upon between the Parties.

Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, Section II (Emphasis supplied).

Further, the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts provides that while both Husband and Wife are living, the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts may not be altered, amended or revoked except pursuant to a writing signed by both parties. Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, Sections III, ¶ 3.1, and VI. There is not a writing signed by both the Decedent and Prior Wife altering, amending, or revoking the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts. Moreover, upon Prior Wife's death, the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts became irrevocable. Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, Section III, ¶ 3.2.

As a result, the clear and unambiguous intent expressed in the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts, and incorporated by reference in the Will, expresses the intentional omission of any subsequent spouse, including Petitioner, from the Will.

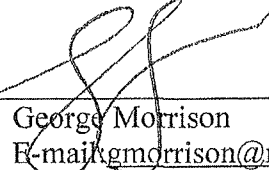

For the foregoing reasons, as well as any further or additional reasons to be set forth in a Memorandum in support of this Motion that will be filed and served before the hearing on the Motion, there is no genuine issue of material fact that Petitioner was intentionally omitted from the Will, and thus, precluded from recovering from the Estate pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-2-301(a)(1).

This Motion is based upon the pleadings, the affidavits and other evidence attached hereto, any forthcoming Memorandum in support of this Motion, any additional affidavits and other evidence attached to the Memorandum, and applicable law.

estate*

II. RECITALS.

2.1 Husband and Wife are now married.

2.2 Husband and Wife each have children from a former marriage.

2.3 Husband and Wife mutually desire for the Survivor to have full use of the Property during his or her life with the Property after the death of the Survivor to be distributed as provided for in the Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward (dated as of even date herewith) and the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward (dated as of even date herewith).

2.4 Husband and Wife have executed their Wills and Trusts, copies of which have been annexed hereto as Exhibits 1 through 5.

2.5 The Wills and Trusts of the Parties have been made as they are on the condition that the disposition of the Property be made according to their Wills and Trusts, unless this Agreement is altered, amended or revoked as provided for hereinafter.

2.6 This Agreement is made to insure that the mutual plan of the Parties shall not be altered by acts subsequent to date hereof, except as agreed upon between the Parties.

III. ALTERATION, AMENDMENT AND REVOCATION OF WILLS. The Parties mutually covenant with each other and agree that:

3.1 While both Husband and Wife are living, except by amendment, modification or revocation of this Agreement as hereinafter provided, neither he nor she shall in any manner alter, amend or revoke his or her Will or Trust, including amendment by codicil, alteration by defacement, or revocation by destruction.

3.2 Upon the Predecessor's death, this Agreement and the Survivor's Will and Trust shall become irrevocable and the Survivor shall have no right or power to thereafter alter, amend or revoke this Agreement or his or her Will or Trust.

IV. SURVIVOR'S AFFIRMATIVE COVENANTS. The Parties mutually covenant with each other and agree that if he or she is the Survivor of them:

4.1 He or she will take such measures as may be necessary or required to maintain his or her Will and Trust in full force until his or her death and as will maintain title to the Property in a form that shall cause the same, at the Survivor's death, to be disposed of according to the terms and provisions of his or her Will and Trust annexed hereto.

4.2 If he or she remarries after the death of the Predecessor, he or she will:

4.2.1 Thereafter ratify his or her Will and Trust in the form and with the provisions contained in his or her Will and Trust annexed hereto; and

4.2.2 As a condition of such re-marriage, require any person he or she remarries to legally and unconditionally waive his or her right to an Elective Share in the Property provided to them under S.C. Code Ann. Section 62-2-201 (1976, as amended from time to time).

V. NEGATIVE COVENANTS. The Parties mutually covenant with each other and agree that if he or she is the survivor of them, he or she will not create, commit, permit, or suffer to exist:

5.1 Any condition that would alter the plan of distribution contained in his or her Will or Trust annexed hereto;

5.2 Any condition that would cause the alteration, amendment or revocation of his or her Will or Trust annexed hereto;

5.3 The dissipation of any of the Property other than through consumption by him or her;

5.4 Any transfer of the Property, or any part thereof from the Survivor to any other person, including any gift to a spouse, child or relative, provided, nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting him or her from making customary and reasonable gifts to a spouse or child;

5.5 Any transfer of title to the Property or any part thereof to the name or joint name of any other person or party;

5.6 Any transfer of title to the Property, or any part thereof, in such manner as would cause the Property to be transmitted upon the Survivor's death, by any means other than through the provisions of his or her Will or Trust annexed hereto; and

5.7 Any investment of the Property or any part thereof, in any form of investment that would or may cause the same to be transmitted upon his or her death through any means other than according to the terms and provisions of his or her Will or Trust annexed hereto.

VI. FORM OF AMENDMENT OR MODIFICATION. The ability of one of the Parties to this Agreement to unilaterally rescind and revoke this Agreement and their Will or Trust by giving notice to the non-revoking person before death as permitted in Wilson v. Gordon, 53 S.E. 79 (S.C. 1905), is not a sufficient method to allow the parties to this Agreement to revoke their respective Will or Trust and this Agreement. No agreement between the Parties shall be effective to alter, amend, modify or revoke this Agreement, unless such Agreement is reduced to writing and signed by both Parties.

VII. MISCELLANEOUS.

7.1 Governing Law. This Agreement is made and shall be construed under and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

AW ESW

7.2 Non-assignability. This Agreement shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign the same by either party shall be ineffective, null and void.

7.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior discussions and agreements between the Parties and contains the sole and entire understanding between them with regard to matters contained herein. All promises, inducements, offers, agreements, commitments and representations heretofore made between such Parties are merged into this Agreement.

7.4 Exhibits. Each and every exhibit referred to or otherwise mentioned in this Agreement is attached to this Agreement and is and shall be construed to be made a part of this Agreement by such reference or other mention at each point at which such reference or other mention occurs, in the same manner and with the same effect as if such exhibit were set forth in full and at length every time it is referred to or otherwise mentioned.

7.5 Captions. All captions, headings, paragraph and subparagraph numbers and letters and other reference numbers or letters are solely for the purpose of facilitating reference to this Agreement and shall not supplement, limit or otherwise vary in any respect the text of this Agreement.

TRUST AGREEMENT
OF
STEPHEN D. WARD

Introductory Clause. This Trust Agreement of STEPHEN D. WARD made this 21st day of April, 2005, between STEPHEN D. WARD, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and STEPHEN D. WARD, hereinafter referred to as the Trustee.

The Settlor is married to NANCY L. WARD and has five living children: STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. The Settlor's children STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD and their respective issue shall not receive any benefits under this Trust Agreement as they will be provided for by their mother with assets she received from the Settlor pursuant to their divorce. Their omission is intentional.

The Settlor has two living step-children: ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER.

ARTICLE I

Trustee Succession if Settlor Dies or Becomes Incapacitated. If the Settlor dies or is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of two licensed physicians, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee named below shall immediately become the Trustee under this Trust Agreement. The Settlor names the following as successor Trustee:

NANCY L. WARD

Third parties may rely on an affidavit by the Trustee named above stating that the successor Trustee is now acting as Trustee hereunder.

ARTICLE II

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee certain property, and has caused or will cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. These insurance policies, and any other insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE III

Rights of Settlor and Trustee in Insurance Policies. During the Settlor's lifetime, the Settlor shall have all rights under any life insurance policies payable to the Trustee, including the right to change the beneficiary, to receive any dividends or other earnings of such policies without accountability therefor to the Trustee or any beneficiary hereunder, and may assign any policies to any lender, including the Trustee, as security for any loan to the Settlor or any other person; and the Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to any policies, for the payment of premiums or otherwise, except to hold any policies received by the Trustee in safekeeping and to deliver them upon the Settlor's written request and upon the payment to the Trustee of reasonable compensation for services. The rights of any assignee of any policy shall be superior to the rights of the Trustee. If any policy is surrendered or if the beneficiary of any policy is changed, this trust shall be revoked with respect to such policy. However, no revocation of the trust with respect to any policy, whether pursuant to the provisions of the preceding sentence or otherwise, shall be effective unless the surrender or change in beneficiary of the policy is accepted by the insurance company. Upon the death of the insured under any policy held by or known to, and payable to, the Trustee, or upon the occurrence of some event prior to the death of the Settlor that matures any such policy, the Trustee, in its discretion, either may collect the net proceeds and hold them as part of the principal of the Trust Estate, or may exercise any optional method of settlement available to it, and the Trustee shall deliver any policies on the Settlor's life held by it and payable to any other beneficiaries as those beneficiaries may direct. Payment to, and the receipt of, the Trustee shall be a full discharge of the liability of any insurance company, which need not take notice of this agreement or see to the application of any payment. The Trustee need not engage in litigation to enforce payment of any policy without indemnification satisfactory to it for any resulting expenses.

ARTICLE IV

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

1. During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.
2. During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.
3. During the Settlor's lifetime and in the event that the Settlor is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of the Trustee, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee shall have the authorization to engage in additional estate planning to reduce the expected gift and estate tax liability as well as provide for additional resources for family transfers and, if consistent with the Settlor's desires, charitable purposes. The estate planning, which is specifically authorized, may include the design, implementation, and funding of techniques such as limited partnerships, limited liability companies, lifetime gifts and transfers, qualified personal residence trusts, charitable trusts, family foundations, and other trusts and techniques designed to reduce the total estate and gift taxes anticipated to be paid by the Settlor and the Settlor's estate to increase the expected benefit to the Settlor's family, beneficiaries, and charities, if any.

4. During the Settlor's lifetime and in the event that the Settlor is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of the Trustee, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee shall have the authorization to (but shall not be required to) make gifts equal to or in excess of the annual gift tax exclusion to the Settlor's children and their issue, and their respective spouses, if appropriate, and in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, shall determine.

ARTICLE V

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. Except as provided for in the AGREEMENT FOR MUTUAL WILLS AND TRUSTS, dated as of even date herewith and entered into between the Settlor and the Settlor's wife, NANCY L. WARD, the Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE VI

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's executors or administrators, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Ward Family Trust and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the executors or administrators of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the executors or administrators of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Ward Family Trust. The Trustee shall have the power to charge expenses of administration against income or principal, or apportion such expenses; provided, however, this power may not be exercised in a way which would reduce or otherwise adversely affect the marital or charitable deduction otherwise available for federal estate tax purposes. The Trustee shall not exercise this discretion in a manner which is inconsistent with the IRC regulations now in effect or subsequently promulgated.

ARTICLE VII

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) Specific Distribution. The Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. Account Number 8041-2928 shall be distributed outright and free of trust to the Settlor's children STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD, who survive the Settlor, in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the surviving issue of a deceased child shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor.

(2) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VIII

Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall divide the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) as follows:

1. Creation of The Marital Trust and The Ward Family Trust. If the Settlor is survived by the Settlor's wife, NANCY L. WARD, the Trustee shall divide the Trust Estate into Two (2) separate shares, hereinafter designated as "the Marital Trust" and "the Ward Family Trust." The Marital Trust shall be composed of cash, securities or other property of the Trust Estate (undiminished by any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes) having a value equal to the maximum marital deduction as finally determined in the Settlor's federal estate tax proceedings, less the aggregate amount of marital deductions, if any, allowed for such estate tax purposes by reason of property or interests in property passing or which have passed to the Settlor's wife otherwise than pursuant to the provisions of this Article; provided, however, the amount for the Marital Trust hereunder shall be reduced by the amount, if any, needed to increase the Settlor's taxable estate (for federal estate tax purposes) to the largest amount that, after allowing for the unified credit against the federal estate tax, and the state death tax credit against such tax (but only to the extent that the use of such state death tax credit does not increase the death tax payable to any state), will result in the smallest (if any) federal estate tax being imposed on the Settlor's estate. The term "maximum marital deduction" shall not be construed as a direction by the Settlor to exercise any election respecting the deduction of estate administration expenses, the determination of the estate tax valuation date, or any other tax election which may be available under any tax laws, only in such manner as will result in a larger allowable estate tax marital deduction than if the contrary election had been made. The Trustee shall have the sole discretion to select the assets which shall constitute the Marital Trust. In no event, however, shall there be included in this the Marital Trust any asset or the proceeds of any asset which will not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction, and this the Marital Trust shall be reduced to the extent that it cannot be created with such qualifying assets. The Trustee shall value any asset selected by the Trustee for distribution in kind as a part of the Marital Trust hereunder at the value of such asset at the date of distribution of such asset. The Marital Trust shall be administered as hereinafter set forth. The Ward Family Trust shall be the balance of the Trust Estate after the assets have been selected for the Marital Trust.

2. Creation of The Ward Family Trust. If the Settlor's wife shall not survive the Settlor, the Ward Family Trust shall be the entire Trust Estate.

The Marital Trust and the Ward Family Trust shall be administered as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE IX

The Ward Family Trust Introductory Provision. The Ward Family Trust shall be held, administered and distributed as follows:

1. Payment to Wife of All Income. If the Settlor's wife shall survive the Settlor, then commencing with the date of the Settlor's death, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's wife during her lifetime all the net income from the Ward Family Trust in convenient installments but no less frequently than quarter-annually.

2. Discretionary Payments of Principal for Wife. If the Settlor's wife shall survive the Settlor, and if there is no principal remaining in the Marital Trust, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's wife during her lifetime, such sums from the principal of the Ward Family Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor's wife, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor's wife known to the Trustee.

3. Outright Final Distribution if Wife is Deceased. Upon or after the death of the survivor of the Settlor's wife and the Settlor, the Ward Family Trust shall be distributed outright and free of trust to STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER, in five (5) approximately equal shares; provided, however, if one of these individuals are deceased then the issue of the deceased individual surviving the Settlor and the Settlor's wife shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor and the Settlor's wife. If any of STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD or BRIAN C. WARD predecease the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's wife and has no issue then living, the share of such predeceased individual shall be distributed per stirpes to the Settlor's issue. If ELIZABETH A. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's wife and has no issue then living, the share of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of GARETT C.

DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to GARETT C. DIEMER. If GARETT C. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's wife and has no issue then living, the share of GARETT C. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to ELIZABETH A. DIEMER.

ARTICLE X

The Marital Trust Introductory Provision. The Marital Trust shall be held, administered and distributed as follows:

1. Direction to Pay All Income to Wife. Commencing with the date of the Settlor's death, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's wife during her lifetime all the net income from the Marital Trust in convenient installments but no less frequently than quarter-annually. Any accrued and undistributed income at the death of the Settlor's wife shall be paid with the entire remaining principal as provided in this the Marital Trust.

2. Discretionary Payments of Principal by Trustee for Benefit of Wife. In addition, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's wife such sums from the principal of the Marital Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor's wife, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor's wife known to the Trustee.

3. Power in Wife to Cause Nonproductive Property to Be Made Productive. The Settlor's wife may at any time by written notice, require the Trustee either to make any nonproductive property of this trust productive or to convert such nonproductive property to productive property within a reasonable time.

4. Payment of Death Taxes From The Marital Trust on Death of Wife. Unless the Settlor's wife's Will specifically provides that the estate, succession, death or similar taxes assessed with respect to the assets of the Marital Trust be paid otherwise, the Trustee shall pay to the executors or administrators of the estate of the wife for the purposes of paying such taxes, the amount by which such taxes assessed by reason of the Settlor's wife's death shall be increased as a result of the inclusion of the assets of the Marital Trust in her estate for such tax purposes.

5. Trust Property to Be Added to The Ward Family Trust on Wife's Death. Upon the death of the Settlor's wife, the entire remaining principal of the Marital Trust shall be added to and become a part of the Ward Family Trust and shall be held and administered or distributed in whole or in part, as if it had been an original part of the Ward Family Trust.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

1. Individual Trustees Succession. If NANCY L. WARD should fail to qualify as successor Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's brother DUDLEY M. WARD.

2. Final Succession If Individual Successor Trustee Cannot Act. If NANCY L. WARD and DUDLEY M. WARD should fail to qualify as individual successor Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD. If any individual Trustee named herein should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining Trustees named herein shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

3. Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive no compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

4. Trustee Voting Rights. If there is more than one Trustee serving, then the vote of the Trustees for any action hereunder must be by majority action of the Trustees. Provided, however, that if only two Trustees shall be serving as co-Trustees, then the Trustees shall act with unanimity on all actions, unless the co-Trustees shall have otherwise agreed in writing.

5. Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

6. Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations.

ARTICLE XII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Trustee named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee acting hereunder.

and such successor or substitute Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XIII

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

1. To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.
2. To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.
3. To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or upon credit, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.
4. To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.
5. To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.
6. To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.
7. To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

8. To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

9. To borrow money and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

10. To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust.

11. To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration.

12. To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.

13. To continue and operate any business owned by the Settlor at the Settlor's death and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as it shall deem advisable, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for its own negligence; and to close out, liquidate or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as it shall deem best.

14. To collect, receive, and receipt for rents, issues, profits, and income of the Trust Estate.

15. To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and the Trustee against liability with respect to third persons.

16. In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with itself in its separate, or any fiduciary capacity.

17. To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate as the Trustee shall deem best.

18. To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors, and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.

19. To determine what shall be fairly and equitably charged or credited to income and what to principal.

20. To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

21. To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value; and when dividing fractional interests in property among several beneficiaries to allocate entire interests in some property to one beneficiary and entire interests in other property to another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

22. In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as it may reasonably deem best, and to do all acts which it may deem reasonably necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust Agreement.

23. To purchase property, real or personal, from the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased as a part of the Trust Estate although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

24. To lend funds to the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities, and security as the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee shall agree, the fact that they may be the same in no way affecting the validity of this provision.

25. To receive property bequeathed, devised or donated to the Trustee by the Settlor or any other person; to receive the proceeds of any insurance policy which names the Trustee as beneficiary; to execute all necessary receipts and releases to Executors, donors, insurance companies and other parties adding property to the Trust Estate.

26. To combine assets of two or more trusts if the provisions and terms of each trust are substantially identical, and to administer them as a single trust, if the Trustee reasonably determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

27. To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

28. To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

29. If the Trustee shall act as the Executor of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Executor will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then to the Ward Family Trust, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Executor deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE XIV

Trustee's Discretion to Allow Beneficiary or Beneficiaries to Occupy Residential Real Estate. The Trustee may in its discretion permit any beneficiary or beneficiaries to occupy rent free any residence constituting a part of the trust assets for such beneficiary or beneficiaries and to pay the real estate taxes thereon, expenses of maintaining the residence in suitable repair and condition and hazard insurance premiums on the residence. Provided, however, the Trustee shall not exercise this power in any way which would deprive the wife under the Marital Trust of the beneficial enjoyment of the Marital Trust and the wife shall have the right to limit, restrict or terminate the Trustee's exercises of this power if they interfere with such beneficial enjoyment.

ARTICLE XV

Marital Deduction Savings Clause for the Marital Trust. It is expressly provided that the grant of rights, powers, privileges and authority to the Trustee in connection with the imposition of duties upon the Trustee by any provision of this Trust Agreement or by any statute relating thereto shall not be effective if and to the extent that the same, if effective, would disqualify the marital deduction as established in the Marital Trust hereof. It is the Settlor's intention that the Settlor's wife under the provisions of the Marital Trust have substantially that degree of beneficial enjoyment of the Trust Estate during her lifetime which the principles of the law of trusts accord to a person who is unqualifiedly designated as the life beneficiary of a trust and the Trustee shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which is not in accord with this expressed intention. The Trustee shall invest the Trust Estate so it will produce for the Settlor's wife during her lifetime an income or use which is consistent with the value of the Trust Estate and with its preservation. It is expressly provided that the Trustee shall not in the exercise of its discretion make any determination inconsistent with the foregoing.

ARTICLE XVI

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her executors or administrators. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XVII

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. Provided, however, that the Trustee shall not make any payment from the Marital Trust under (3) above.

ARTICLE XVIII

Power of Trustee to Resign During Settlor's Lifetime. Any Trustee may resign this trusteeship during the Settlor's lifetime by giving the Settlor Thirty (30) days notice in writing delivered to the Settlor in person or mailed to the Settlor's last known address, the resignation to become effective as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of such notice, the Settlor shall appoint a successor Trustee. Upon the failure of the Settlor to appoint a successor Trustee who accepts the trust within Thirty (30) days from the time notice was delivered in person or mailed to the Settlor, the Trustee may resign to the court having jurisdiction over this trust, which court may, if it deems advisable, accept the resignation and appoint a successor Trustee which shall be an individual as successor to an individual trustee or a bank or trust company qualified to do business in the state of the Settlor's domicile as successor to a corporate trustee. Upon the appointment of and acceptance by the successor Trustee, the original Trustee shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer or convey to such successor Trustee the Trust Estate and make a full and proper accounting to the Settlor, whereupon its resignation shall become effective. The substitute or successor Trustee upon acceptance of this trust and the Trust Estate shall succeed to and have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XIX

Settlor During Lifetime to Designate Substitute or Successor Trustee. The Settlor during the Settlor's lifetime may name a substitute or successor Trustee by delivery to any Trustee herein a notice naming the successor or substitute Trustee and indicating an intent to replace the Trustee named. Upon receipt of such notice the Trustee named shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer or convey to such substitute or successor Trustee (which accepts the appointment as trustee), the Trust Estate and make a full and proper accounting to the Settlor, whereupon the Trustee named shall be discharged and have no further responsibility under this Trust Agreement. Upon the failure of the Trustee to make such conveyance the Settlor may apply to the court having jurisdiction of this trust and such court may compel the conveyance by the Trustee. The substitute or successor Trustee upon acceptance of this trust and the Trust Estate shall succeed to and possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

1. Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" of the Settlor means STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD, but "children" does not mean STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. For purposes of this Trust, "children" of the Settlor's wife means ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. "Issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated; however, it does not include STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD or their respective issue.

2. Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XXI

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, the words "gross estate," "adjusted gross estate," "taxable estate," "unified credit" ("unified credit" shall also mean "applicable credit amount"), "applicable exclusion amount," "state death tax credit," "maximum marital deduction," "marital deduction," "pass," "qualified terminable interest," "qualified terminable interest property," and any other word or words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XXII

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XXIII

Payment of Funeral Expenses and Expenses of Last Illness of Income Beneficiary. On the death of any person entitled to income or support from any Trust hereunder, the Trustee is authorized to pay the funeral expenses and the expenses of the last illness of such person from the principal of the Trust from which such person was entitled to income or support.

ARTICLE XXIV

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XXV

Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts dated as of even date herewith between STEPHEN D. WARD and NANCY L. WARD is incorporated by reference into this Trust Agreement of Stephen D. Ward.

Testimonium Clause. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settlor and the Trustee have executed this Trust Agreement.

Last Will and Testament of Stephen D. Ward

Attest: A True Copy
[Signature]
Deputy Clerk Probate Court
Charleston County, South Carolina

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
OF
STEPHEN D. WARD

Introductory Clause. I, STEPHEN D. WARD, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Charleston and State of South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

I am married to NANCY L. WARD.

I have five living children: STEPHANIE L. WARD; DAVID D. WARD; BRIAN C. WARD; STEPHEN A. WARD; and JEREMY W. WARD. My children STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD and their respective issue shall not receive any benefits under this Will as they will be provided for by their mother with assets she received from me pursuant to our divorce. Their omission is intentional.

I have two living step-children: ELIZABETH A. DIEMER; and GARETT C. DIEMER.

ITEM I

Direction to Pay Debts with Discretionary Refinancing by Executor. I direct that all my legally enforceable debts, secured and unsecured, be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Executor may cause any debt to be carried, renewed and refinanced from time to time upon such terms and with such securities for its repayment as my Executor may deem advisable taking into consideration the best interest of the beneficiaries hereunder. If at the time of my death any of the real property herein devised is subject to any mortgage, I direct that the devisee taking such mortgaged property shall take it subject to such mortgage and that the devisee shall not be entitled to have the obligation secured thereby paid out of my general estate.

ITEM II

General Bequest of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. I give and bequeath all my personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, as follows:

1. I may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of my tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of my death. If no such written memoranda is found or identified by my Executor within ninety (90) days after my Executor's qualification, it shall be conclusively presumed that there is no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered

memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of my death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following paragraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

2. In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, I give and bequeath the rest of my personal and household effects of every kind to my wife, NANCY L. WARD, for her lifetime, if she shall survive me. If my wife shall not survive me or upon my wife's death, I give and bequeath my personal and household effects that were acquired by me (prior to my marriage to my wife or by inheritance during my marriage to my wife) to my children STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD in approximately equal shares. If my wife shall not survive me or upon my wife's death, I give and bequeath my personal and household effects that were acquired by me and my wife during our marriage to STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER, in five (5) approximately equal shares.

However, if any of the aforementioned individuals predecease the survivor of me and my wife, then the issue of the deceased individual surviving me and my wife shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived me and my wife. If any of STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD or BRIAN C. WARD predecease the survivor of me and my wife and has no issue then living, the share of such predeceased individual shall be distributed per stirpes to my issue. If ELIZABETH A. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of me and my wife and has no issue then living, the shares of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of GARETT C. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to GARETT C. DIEMER. If GARETT C. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of me and my wife and has no issue then living, the shares of GARETT C. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to ELIZABETH A. DIEMER.

If any of the aforementioned individuals do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, my Executor shall make such division among them, the decision of my Executor to be in all respects binding upon them. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Executor may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my Executor. The cost of packing and shipping such property shall be charged against my estate as an expense of administration.

ITEM III

Pour-Over Gift to Trustee of Testator's Inter Vivos Trust. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to the successor Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and me as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 21st day of April, 2005. My Trustee shall add the property bequeathed and devised by this Item to the principal of the above Trust and shall hold, administer and distribute the property in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, including any amendments thereto made before my death.

ITEM IV

Naming the Executor, Executor Succession, Executor's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Executor, Executor succession, Executor's fees and other matters are set forth below:

1. Naming an Individual Executor. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament NANCY L. WARD and direct that she shall serve without bond.

2. Naming Individual Successor or Substitute Executor. If my individual Executor should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Executor who shall also serve without bond shall be DUDLEY M. WARD.

3. Final Succession If Individual Successor Executor Cannot Act. If my individual successor Executor should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Executors who shall also serve without bond shall be STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, and BRIAN C. WARD. If any individual Executor named herein should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Executor(s) named herein shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

4. Fee Schedule for Individual Executor. For its services as Executor, my individual Executor shall receive no compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

5. Executor Voting Rights. If there is more than one Executor serving, then the vote of the Executors for any action hereunder must be by majority action of the Executors. Provided, however, that if only two Executors shall be serving as co-Executors, then the Executors shall act with unanimity on all actions, unless the co-Executors shall have otherwise agreed in writing.

6. Delegation Among Executors. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Executors, then any Executor may delegate to any other Executor the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Executors in this Last Will and Testament, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Executor may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Executors. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Executor. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Executor receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Executor had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Executor, or co-

Executor, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Executor a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Executor shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

ITEM V

Definition of Executor. Whenever the word "Executor" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Executor named herein and to any successor or substitute Executor acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Executor shall possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Executor originally named herein.

ITEM VI

Powers for Executor. By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers granted to Executors generally, my Executor is specifically authorized and empowered with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this my Will: to allot, allocate between principal and income, assign, borrow, buy, care for, collect, compromise claims, contract with respect to, continue any business of mine, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of mine, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, to make distributions or divisions in cash or in kind or partly in each without regard to the income tax basis of such asset, and in general, to exercise all the powers in the management of my Estate which any individual could exercise in the management of similar property owned in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as to my Executor may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which my Executor may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this my Will, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order.

ITEM VII

Provision for Executor to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share or property hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years or if any real property shall be devised to a person who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years at the date of my death, then such share or property shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, my Executor acting as Trustee shall retain possession of the share or property in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share or property as my Executor deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent my Executor deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to my Executor. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share or property shall be paid over, distributed and conveyed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her executors or administrators. Whenever my Executor determines it appropriate to pay any money for the benefit of a beneficiary for whom a trust is created hereunder, then the amounts shall be paid out by my Executor in such of the following ways as my Executor deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the care, support and education of the beneficiary; (4) by my Executor using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. My Executor as trustee shall have with respect to each share or property so retained all the powers and discretions conferred upon it as Executor.

ITEM VIII

Discretion Granted to Executor in Reference to Tax Matters. My Executor as the fiduciary of my estate shall have the discretion, but shall not be required when allocating receipts of my estate between income and principal, to make adjustments in the rights of any beneficiaries, or among the principal and income accounts to compensate for the consequences of any tax decision or election, or of any investment or administrative decision, that my Executor believes has had the effect, directly or indirectly, of preferring one beneficiary or group of beneficiaries over others; provided, however, my Executor shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which would cause the loss or reduction of the marital deduction as may be herein provided. In determining the state or federal estate and income tax liabilities of my estate, my Executor shall have discretion to select the valuation date and to determine whether any or all of the allowable administration expenses in my estate shall be used as state or federal estate tax deductions or as state or federal income tax deductions and shall have the discretion to file a joint income tax return with my wife. If my estate plan includes a revocable trust agreement and it contains directions to my Executor, I direct my Executor to follow the directions in such trust agreement.

ITEM IX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

1. Definition of Children. For purposes of this Will, my "children" mean STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD, but "children" does not mean STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. For purposes of this Will, "children" of my wife means ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. "Issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated; however, it does not include STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD or their respective issue.

2. Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ITEM X

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, the words "gross estate," "adjusted gross estate," "taxable estate," "unified credit" ("unified credit" shall also mean "applicable credit amount"), "applicable exclusion amount," "state death tax credit," "maximum marital deduction," "marital deduction," "pass," and any other word or words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to my estate. For purposes of this Will, my "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of my death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of my exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of mine by me or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, I have specifically allocated to other property of my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Will if at the time of my death I have made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and I have not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that my generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of my death.

ITEM XI

Statement by Testator of Intent Not to Exercise Power of Appointment. I hereby refrain from exercising any power of appointment that I may have at the time of my death.

ITEM XII

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Testator. If any beneficiary and I should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that the beneficiary predeceased me.

ITEM XIII

Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts dated as of even date herewith between STEPHEN D. WARD and NANCY L. WARD is incorporated by reference into this Last Will and Testament.

SDW

Testimonium, Attestation and Self-Proving Affidavit. I, STEPHEN D. WARD, the Testator, sign my name to this instrument this 21st day of April, 2005, and being first duly sworn, do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that I sign and execute this instrument as my last will and that I sign it willingly (or willingly direct another to sign for me), that I execute it as my free and voluntary act for the purposes therein expressed, and that I am eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

EXHIBIT 3
Nancy Diemer Trust

NANCY DIEMER TRUST

DATED APRIL 28, 1998

I, Nancy Diemer, of Oak Park, Illinois, declare that I have transferred to myself and now hold, as Trustee, the property described in the attached Schedule [it being my intention upon signing this instrument to immediately divest myself of title to the property, individually, and to vest title in me, as Trustee, without any separate act of assignment or transfer] and I declare that I will administer the scheduled property as Trustee, together with all other property added to the trust, upon the following trusts and conditions.

ARTICLE FIRST: (a) Trust name. This instrument and the trusts hereby evidenced shall be known as the "NANCY DIEMER TRUST DATED APRIL 28, 1998."

(b) Rules and definitions. For all purposes of this instrument: (1) the word "trust" refers, respectively, to the entire trust prior to the division of the whole into separate trusts and, thereafter, to each separate trust administered at the time of reference; (2) the word "Trustee" denotes the plural when two or more Trustees are acting at the time of reference, except where the context otherwise requires or specifically provides; (3) the term "support" includes maintenance of the beneficiary's health and accustomed manner of living, determined at the time the relevant power of the Trustee is exercised; (4) after my death no discretionary payment of trust principal may be made to or for any beneficiary that would discharge any legal obligation to support the beneficiary imposed on any Trustee, individually, or on any person who then has power [either alone or with others] to remove the Trustee; and (5) each reference to education includes, without limitation, primary through college education, postgraduate, professional and trade or vocational education. Titles of Articles and paragraphs are included for reference only and shall not be used to interpret this instrument.

(c) Trust additions. Any person may add other property or policies to any trust by delivery, conveyance or bequest or by causing the proceeds to be payable to the Trustee, but no additions may be made by any person other than me without the Trustee's consent. At my death all references to any trust shall include all property to which the Trustee of that trust is entitled in any manner by reason of my death.

(d) My family I am unmarried at the time of the execution of this trust. I plan to marry Stephen D. Ward on May 23, 1998 and will then be known as Nancy Ward. I have two children now living, namely Elizabeth Ann Diemer and Garrett Carter Diemer. I intend by this instrument to provide for my disability and, upon my death, to provide for my children.

ARTICLE SECOND: Trust administration during my life. During my lifetime the Trustee shall administer the trust as follows:

(a) Payments to me. Subject to paragraph (b), the net income and principal of the trust shall be paid to me or others as I shall direct from time to time and, in the absence of directions from me to the contrary, shall be paid to me or for my benefit in such manner as the Trustee determines to be for my best interests.

(b) Payments during my disability. The provisions of paragraph (a) or of any direction given by me thereunder to the contrary notwithstanding, whenever the Trustee shall determine that I have become unable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters, because of physical or mental disability or for any other reason, the Trustee shall pay to me or expend for my benefit such part or all of the net income and principal of the trust as the Trustee shall deem desirable to provide for my support, taking into account all other income and resources known to the Trustee that are readily available to me for such purposes, and the Trustee shall accumulate any undistributed net income and add it to principal.

ARTICLE THIRD: Distribution of the balance of the Trust after my death. Subject to paragraph (b) of ARTICLE FOURTH, upon my death the Trustee shall forthwith distribute the principal of the trust in equal shares to my children then living at the time of my death. If one of my children is not then living at the time of my death but has descendants then living at the time of my death, then the Trustee shall distribute the share the deceased child would have received, if living, to the child's descendants, then living at the time of my death, per stirpes and not per capita.

ARTICLE FOURTH: General trust administration provisions. The Trustee and beneficiaries of each trust shall be governed by the following:

(a) Status of beneficiaries. Unless otherwise specified in the exercise of a power of appointment granted hereunder, for all purposes of this instrument: (1) a person legally adopted shall be considered a natural child of the adopting parent; and (2) a person born out of wedlock shall not be considered a child of either parent, unless the child's parents marry each other.

(b) Trust termination postponed until age 25. Any portion of the principal of any trust becoming distributable under ARTICLE THIRD to any beneficiary under twenty-five (25) years of age shall vest in the beneficiary, but distribution of the portion shall be postponed until the beneficiary attains that age. In the meantime the Trustee shall administer the portion as a separate trust and shall pay to or expend for the benefit of the beneficiary such part or all of the net income and principal of the trust as the Trustee deems desirable to provide for the support and education of the beneficiary, taking into account all other resources known to the Trustee that are readily available to the beneficiary for such purposes, and the Trustee shall accumulate any undistributed net income and add it to principal.

(c) Early termination of small trust. At any time after my death when the value of the principal of any trust shall be less than FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($50,000) and the Trustee shall determine that early distribution of the trust is desirable for any reason, the Trustee, without regard to the interests of the ultimate remaindermen [if any], may terminate the trust and distribute the principal to the beneficiary to whom the income from the trust then may be or is payable.

(d) Early termination to avoid rule against perpetuities. Unless sooner terminated in accordance with the other provisions of this instrument, any trust created hereunder or by appointment pursuant to this instrument shall cease and terminate upon the expiration of twenty-one (21) years after the death of the survivor of me and all other beneficiaries herein named or referred to living at the time of my death, whereupon the entire remaining principal of the trust shall be distributed forthwith to the person or persons then entitled to receive the income therefrom.

(e) Payments to beneficiaries under disability; no assignment of trust interests. Payments or distributions of income or principal authorized or directed to be made to any beneficiary shall be made in person or upon the personal receipt of the beneficiary or, if the beneficiary directs, may be deposited in any bank account carried in the beneficiary's name or jointly with others; provided, however, that any payment or distribution to any beneficiary whom the Trustee making such payment or distribution believes to be incapable because of physical or mental disability, or for any other reason, of giving prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters may be made: (1) directly to the beneficiary, (2) to the legal representative of the beneficiary, (3) to any relative or friend of the beneficiary to be expended for the benefit of the beneficiary, (4) to a Custodian for the beneficiary under a Uniform Gifts [or Transfers] to Minors Act of any jurisdiction, or (5) by the Trustee expending the same for the benefit of the beneficiary, and the Trustee shall not be required to see to the application of any payments or distributions so made. No interest of any beneficiary shall be assignable in anticipation of payment or distribution either by the voluntary or involuntary act of the beneficiary or by operation of law or be liable in any way for the beneficiary's debts.

(f) Satisfaction of pecuniary amounts and fractional shares. In funding any pecuniary amount or fractional share trust or making any pecuniary amount or fractional share division or distribution to or between separate trusts or beneficiaries, the Trustee may: (1) divide, allocate or distribute in cash or in kind, or both; (2) select the property to be assigned to each trust or beneficiary; (3) assign undivided interests in any property to two or more trusts or beneficiaries; and (4) where fractional shares are concerned, allocate to each beneficiary or trust the required fractional share of each asset available to fund the share or assign to each beneficiary or trust the then value of its share by allocating to it any part or all [including disproportionate fractional interests] of any available asset. If property is allocated in kind to satisfy a pecuniary amount, or to satisfy the then value of a fractional share with disproportionate interests in the available assets, the property shall be valued at the time of allocation, as determined by the Trustee, and no adjustments shall be made to compensate for any disproportionate allocation of unrealized gain or loss for income tax purposes.

(g) Commingling of separate trusts. The Trustee may combine any separate trusts administered under this instrument with each other, or with any trusts under other instruments which have similar terms and beneficiaries, for purposes of commingled investment and administration of the combined trusts, and the Trustee shall allocate all trust receipts and disbursements among the combined trusts proportionately.

(h) Principal and income allocations. The Trustee shall allocate receipts and expenses of any trust to or between income and principal in accordance with the rules of trust accounting law applicable thereto; provided, that (1) in any case where the Trustee concludes that there are no applicable rules, that the rules are ambiguous or that the application of the rules would alter the relative interests of the income and principal beneficiaries of the trust contrary to my intention hereunder, as determined by the Trustee, the Trustee may allocate the receipt or expense involved in such manner as the Trustee deems proper to carry out my intention and to fulfill the purposes of the trust; and (2) the Trustee may allocate any trust administration expenses [including, without limitation, accounting expenses, expenses of judicial proceedings and any regular or special compensation of any Trustee, investment counsel, attorney, accountant, custodian or other agent] all to income or all to principal, or partly to each, in such manner as the Trustee determines to be for the best interests of the beneficiaries, taking into account the nature of the trust assets, the trust interests benefited by the expense, the tax consequences and any other factors deemed relevant by the Trustee.

(i) General powers of Trustee; compensation. The Trustee shall have the following powers: (1) to invest and reinvest trust assets in any kind of property or undivided interests therein which the Trustee shall deem proper [including, without limitation, real estate, stocks, bonds, mortgages, debentures and shares or interests in investment companies, funds or trusts] without being restricted to investments as fixed by the laws of any jurisdiction; (2) to continue trust assets invested in any property received or acquired by the Trustee without obligation to sell all or any part thereof because not of a type or quality or constituting a diversification considered proper or wise for trust investments; (3) to hold funds uninvested during any periods of unsettled financial conditions; (4) to purchase, sell, convey, assign or exchange any trust property and to grant and exercise options with respect to trust property; (5) to purchase property from, sell property to and otherwise deal with the fiduciary representing the estate or trust of any person, whether or not the Trustee is also acting as fiduciary for the estate or other trust; (6) to lease trust property for any time even extending beyond the term of any trust; (7) to insure, improve, repair, alter, partition, subdivide, grant easements or dedicate any trust property and to erect or raze improvements thereon; (8) to settle or abandon all claims and demands in favor of or against any trust; (9) to consent to the reorganization, consolidation or readjustment of the finances of any corporation; (10) to vote in person or issue proxies to others; (11) to borrow money from any lender, including any Trustee, individually, and to mortgage or pledge any trust property for any purpose deemed proper by the Trustee, including the purchase of bonds redeemable at more than market value for the payment of federal estate tax; (12) to employ attorneys, accountants, investment advisors and other agents [including persons who are associated with the Trustee in any business or profession], to rely and act upon the advice of any investment advisors or other agents without independent investigation, and to delegate to any one or more of them any of the Trustee's powers, discretionary or otherwise, for any purpose; and the Trustee shall not be liable for any loss that may result from following the advice, or for other acts, of any investment advisor or other agents unless the Trustee has failed to use due care in their selection; (13) to hold or register any property in the Trustee's own name or in the name of a nominee without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship; and (14) in addition to any powers conferred herein or by law, to do and perform all acts which the Trustee shall deem proper to carry out the purposes of each trust, it being my intention that the enumeration of particular powers shall not be construed as limiting the general powers intended to be granted to the Trustee. Each Trustee shall be paid reasonable compensation.

(j) Trust accounts; objections barred after 2 years; settlement of accounts before distribution. A statement showing all receipts and disbursements and the property comprising each trust shall be given at least annually to each beneficiary to whom the income from the trust then may be or is payable or to the beneficiary's representative under paragraph (k) of this Article. A majority in interest of the beneficiaries to whom the income from any trust then may be or is payable, without liability to others, may approve any account of any acting or predecessor Trustee with respect to that trust and release the Trustee from liability for all matters covered by the account, which release shall bind all persons having any past, present or future interest in that trust. Each statement of account shall be deemed approved and the Trustee shall be deemed released by all beneficiaries having any past, present or future interest in the matters covered by the account unless objections to the account are filed with the Trustee within two (2) years after the account is mailed or delivered to the persons entitled thereto. Before distribution of any trust principal the Trustee shall have the right to require settlement of any open accounts of the trust from which the distribution is being made, either by the written agreement and release of all beneficiaries having any interest in the distribution or, if releases cannot be obtained, by court settlement of the open accounts. All of the Trustee's fees and expenses [including attorneys' fees] attributable to court approval of the Trustee's accounts shall be paid by the trust involved, but the trust shall not be liable if and to the extent the accounts are not approved. For all purposes of this paragraph and ARTICLE FIFTH, if more than one beneficiary is eligible to receive the same income at the time of reference, a "majority in interest" of those beneficiaries means a majority in number of the oldest generation of eligible beneficiaries.

(k) Persons to represent beneficiary during disability. If a beneficiary is under disability at the time of reference, the first of the following [in the order named] who is then living or acting and under no disability shall act for and represent the beneficiary to receive and review notices and accounts, approve or object to accounts, release Trustees from liability and appoint Trustees: the legal representative of the beneficiary's estate; the legal representative of the beneficiary's person; the person(s) having custody of the beneficiary; the beneficiary's spouse; or a majority of the adult children of the beneficiary. For all purposes of this paragraph and ARTICLE SECOND and ARTICLE FIFTH, any person shall be considered to be under "disability" if, at the time of reference: (1) the person is a minor under the law of his domicile or has been adjudicated an incompetent or disabled person or (2) two medical doctors familiar with the physical and mental condition of the person have certified in writing that the person is unable to give prompt and intelligent consideration to business matters and written notice of the determinations of disability has been delivered to the person. Once established, disability will be deemed to continue until there is a like certification, or an adjudication, that the disability has ended.

(l) Undistributed income at beneficiary's death. Upon the death of any beneficiary all accrued but uncollected income, and all undistributed income received by the Trustee since the last regular income payment date, which would have been payable to the beneficiary had the beneficiary continued to live shall be payable as income to the beneficiary who shall next be entitled upon the death of the deceased beneficiary to receive the principal, or the income from the principal, from which the income was derived.

(m) Designation of "appointed Trustee." The term "appointed Trustee" means a Trustee acting pursuant to this paragraph. If at any time or times the Trustee other than an appointed Trustee determines that it is advisable to change the situs of any part or all of any trust or is unable or unwilling to act as Trustee with respect to any trust property, such Trustee may resign as Trustee with respect to any trust property and designate an appointed Trustee thereof, which appointed Trustee shall have and exercise such of the appointing Trustee's powers, discretions and titles and on such conditions as the appointing Trustee shall specify. At any time the appointed Trustee may be removed by the Trustee who may designate another as appointed Trustee or, in the absence of such appointment, shall again have and exercise all powers, discretions and titles theretofore vested in the appointed Trustee. Each appointed Trustee so designated may delegate any and all powers, discretions and authorities to the Trustee as agent.

(n) Liabilities and transfer of powers and property between Trustees. Unless otherwise provided in this instrument: (1) the legal title to all property of any trust shall remain vested in the Trustee of that trust from time to time acting hereunder without any act of conveyance or transfer to, by or from any succeeding or retiring Trustee; (2) all of the rights, powers and authorities, discretionary or otherwise, herein granted to the original Trustee of any trust shall descend to and vest in the acting Trustee of that trust; (3) any corporation which succeeds by merger, consolidation, purchase or other means to substantially all of the assets and business of any acting or nominated corporate Trustee shall also succeed to the office of Trustee; (4) no Trustee shall ever be liable for any act or default of any other Trustee nor for any loss sustained through any error of judgment but shall only be liable for his own willful default; (5) no Trustee shall be required to give any bond or security or to render any periodic court accounting; (6) as used with reference to the Trustee, all words denoting number and gender shall be construed to denote the proper number and gender applicable to the Trustee acting at the time of reference with respect to the power or duty involved; (7) no person dealing with the Trustee shall be obliged to inquire into the Trustee's powers or to see to the application of any money or property delivered to the Trustee; and (8) a successor Trustee may accept the account rendered and the trust property delivered by the predecessor Trustee without review or liability.

(o) Co-Trustee provisions. If and while a corporate co-Trustee is acting and willing to do so, it shall have custody of all trust personal property and cash and may solely perform all ministerial duties. Any individual co-Trustee shall have the right at any time or times to delegate to a consenting co-Trustee any or all of the delegating Trustee's powers, authorities or duties, whether ministerial or discretionary in character, for any period of time or permanently by a writing delivered to the delegate.

(p) Insurance payable to Trustee. With respect to each policy of insurance upon my life subject to this instrument: (1) during my lifetime I reserve all rights and interests with respect to the policy, including without limitation the right to change the beneficiary, to borrow upon the policy from any lender [including any Trustee, individually] and to assign the policy as collateral; the Trustee shall only be responsible for the safekeeping of the policy but it may be returned to my custody and will remain subject to this instrument so long as the proceeds remain payable to the Trustee; and the Trustee shall not be obligated to pay any premiums or assessments upon the policy; and (2) upon my death only the proceeds of the policy due upon my death, after deduction of all loans and charges payable therefrom, shall be subject to this instrument and the Trustee shall take appropriate action to collect the policy, but shall not be obligated to engage in litigation unless indemnified to the Trustee's satisfaction.

(q) Payment of estate obligations by Trustee. Upon my death all estate obligations shall be paid out of the principal of my residuary probate estate [if any] or the trust, or partly from each, as my fiduciary shall determine to be for the best interests of my beneficiaries, without abatement of any nonresiduary gifts under my will and without reimbursement or contribution from any person; provided, however, that the amount by which my death taxes are increased by assets subject to generation-skipping taxes, a power of appointment or a qualifying income interest for life shall be paid out of those assets; and provided, further, that (1) property which, except for this paragraph, would be exempt, excludable or nontaxable in determining my federal estate tax shall not be used to pay estate obligations and (2) all bonds owned by my probate estate or the Trustee which are redeemable at more than market value for the payment of federal estate tax shall first be used for that purpose. In this paragraph the term "estate obligations" means all of the following obligations payable by reason of my death: all taxes, including interest and penalties thereon ["my death taxes"], all fees and other expenses of administration attributable to probate and nonprobate property and all claims allowed against my estate [or if there is no probate administration of my estate, then all claims against my estate which the Trustee considers just and proper]; and in this paragraph the term "my fiduciary" means the legal representative of my probate estate [my "legal representative"] and the Trustee, acting together, or the Trustee, alone, if no legal representative is acting. Payment of estate obligations shall be made through my legal representative, if any, and the Trustee may distribute trust property to my legal representative at any time or times to fund estate obligations, without regard to when those obligations may be due. Nothing herein shall restrict the right of my fiduciary to litigate or settle any estate obligations and any action taken by my fiduciary to litigate, settle or pay estate obligations shall be binding and conclusive on all persons. The Trustee may accept as correct and act without liability on the basis of the determination by my legal representative as to any matter of fact or law material to compliance with this paragraph. My fiduciary may make such elections under the tax laws as my fiduciary shall deem advisable and no adjustment shall be made between principal and income or in the relative interests of the beneficiaries to compensate for the effect of such elections.

ARTICLE FIFTH: Successor Trustees. Any Trustee may resign as Trustee of any trust by giving ten (10) days prior written notice to all co-Trustees, if any, then acting, to all successor Trustees, if any, hereinafter designated and to each beneficiary to whom income from that trust then may be or is payable. If I become unable to act as Trustee, then my brother, Robert A. Goelkel, currently residing in Park Ridge, Illinois, shall act as Trustee, or if he becomes unable to act then my fiance, Stephen D. Ward, currently residing in Edina, Minnesota, shall act as successor Trustee. Any Trustee acting or designated to act pursuant to this instrument shall be deemed unable to act in the event of such Trustee's death, disability, refusal to act, removal or resignation [excluding, however, a resignation for purposes of paragraph (m) of ARTICLE FOURTH]. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an appointed Trustee acting pursuant to paragraph (m) of ARTICLE FOURTH.

ARTICLE SIXTH: Governing law. Illinois law shall govern all questions concerning (a) the validity of this instrument and the trusts hereby created and (b) the interpretation of my intent as to the disposition of the trust property and all other questions relating to any trust, including all matters of trust administration.

ARTICLE SEVENTH: Right to amend or terminate. I reserve the right, exercisable at any time or times by a writing signed by me, to amend or terminate this instrument and the trusts hereby created, either in whole or in part, and to direct the disposition of any part or all of the trust property; provided, however, that the Trustee's powers, duties and liabilities shall not be substantially increased without the Trustee's consent.

This instrument has been signed on the date specified in ARTICLE FIRST.

First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward

FIRST AMENDMENT AND RESTATEMENT
OF

Introductory Clause. This First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of NANCY L. WARD made this 21st day of April, 2005, between NANCY L. WARD, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and NANCY L. WARD, hereinafter referred to as the Trustee.

The Settlor is married to STEPHEN D. WARD and has two living children: ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER.

The Settlor has five living step-children: STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. The Settlor's husband's children STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD and their respective issue shall not receive any benefits under this Trust Agreement as they will be provided for by their mother with assets she received from the Settlor's husband pursuant to their divorce. Their omission is intentional.

WHEREAS, the Settlor and the Trustee entered into the NANCY DIEMER TRUST dated April 28, 1998, hereinafter called the Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, ARTICLE SEVENTH of the Trust Agreement provided that the Settlor reserved the right to amend in any manner or revoke in whole or in part the Trust Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Settlor is desirous of modifying and amending the Trust Agreement and the Trustee is agreeable to the modifications and amendments contained herein;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS AGREED that the entire Trust Agreement as modified and amended will read as follows:

ARTICLE I

Trustee Succession if Settlor Dies or Becomes Incapacitated. If the Settlor dies or is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of two licensed physicians, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee named below shall immediately become the Trustee under this Trust Agreement. The Settlor names the following as successor Trustee:

STEPHEN D. WARD

NW

Third parties may rely on an affidavit by the Trustee named above stating that the successor Trustee is now acting as Trustee hereunder.

ARTICLE II

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee certain property, and has caused or will cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. These insurance policies, and any other insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE III

Rights of Settlor and Trustee in Insurance Policies. During the Settlor's lifetime, the Settlor shall have all rights under any life insurance policies payable to the Trustee, including the right to change the beneficiary, to receive any dividends or other earnings of such policies without accountability therefor to the Trustee or any beneficiary hereunder, and may assign any policies to any lender, including the Trustee, as security for any loan to the Settlor or any other person; and the Trustee shall have no responsibility with respect to any policies, for the payment of premiums or otherwise, except to hold any policies received by the Trustee in safekeeping and to deliver them upon the Settlor's written request and upon the payment to the Trustee of reasonable compensation for services. The rights of any assignee of any policy shall be superior to the rights of the Trustee. If any policy is surrendered or if the beneficiary of any policy is changed, this trust shall be revoked with respect to such policy. However, no revocation of the trust with respect to any policy, whether pursuant to the provisions of the preceding sentence or otherwise, shall be effective unless the surrender or change in beneficiary of the policy is accepted by the insurance company. Upon the death of the insured under any policy held by or known to, and payable to, the Trustee, or upon the occurrence of some event prior to the death of the Settlor that matures any such policy, the Trustee, in its discretion, either may collect the net proceeds and hold them as part of the principal of the Trust Estate, or may exercise any optional method of settlement available to it, and the Trustee shall deliver any policies on the Settlor's life held by it and payable to any other beneficiaries as those beneficiaries may direct. Payment to, and the receipt of, the Trustee shall be a full discharge of the liability of any insurance company, which need not take notice of this agreement or see to the application of any payment. The Trustee need not engage in litigation to enforce payment of any policy without indemnification satisfactory to it for any resulting expenses.

ARTICLE IV

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

NW

1. During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.

2. During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.

3. During the Settlor's lifetime and in the event that the Settlor is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of the Trustee, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee shall have the authorization to engage in additional estate planning to reduce the expected gift and estate tax liability as well as provide for additional resources for family transfers and, if consistent with the Settlor's desires, charitable purposes. The estate planning, which is specifically authorized, may include the design, implementation, and funding of techniques such as limited partnerships, limited liability companies, lifetime gifts and transfers, qualified personal residence trusts, charitable trusts, family foundations, and other trusts and techniques designed to reduce the total estate and gift taxes anticipated to be paid by the Settlor and the Settlor's estate to increase the expected benefit to the Settlor's family, beneficiaries, and charities, if any.

4. During the Settlor's lifetime and in the event that the Settlor is adjudicated to be incompetent or in the event that the Settlor is not adjudicated incompetent, but by reason of illness or mental or physical disability is, in the opinion of the Trustee, unable to properly handle the Settlor's own affairs, then and in that event the Trustee shall have the authorization to (but shall not be required to) make gifts equal to or in excess of the annual gift tax exclusion to the Settlor's children and their issue, and their respective spouses, if appropriate, and in such amounts and upon such terms and conditions as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, shall determine.

ARTICLE V

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. Except as provided for in the AGREEMENT FOR MUTUAL WILLS AND TRUSTS, dated as of even date herewith and entered into between the Settlor and the Settlor's husband, STEPHEN D. WARD, the Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE VI

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's executors or administrators, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Family Trust and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the executors or administrators of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the executors or administrators of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Family Trust. The Trustee shall have the power to charge expenses of administration against income or principal, or apportion such expenses; provided, however, this power may not be exercised in a way which would reduce or otherwise adversely affect the marital or charitable deduction otherwise available for federal estate tax purposes. The Trustee shall not exercise this discretion in a manner which is inconsistent with the IRC regulations now in effect or subsequently promulgated.

ARTICLE VII

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) Specific Distribution. The Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. Account Number 9091-9831 shall be distributed outright and free of trust to the Settlor's surviving children in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the surviving issue of a deceased child shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. If ELIZABETH A. DIEMER predeceases the Settlor and has no issue then living, the share of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of GARETT C. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to GARETT C. DIEMER. If GARETT C. DIEMER predeceases the Settlor and has no issue then living, the share of GARETT C. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to ELIZABETH A. DIEMER.

(2) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VIII

Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall divide the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) as follows:

1. Creation of The Marital Trust and The Family Trust. If the Settlor is survived by the Settlor's husband, STEPHEN D. WARD, the Trustee shall divide the Trust Estate into Two (2) separate shares, hereinafter designated as "the Marital Trust" and "the Family Trust." The Marital Trust shall be composed of cash, securities or other property of the Trust Estate (undiminished by any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes) having a value equal to the maximum marital deduction as finally determined in the Settlor's federal estate tax proceedings, less the aggregate amount of marital deductions, if any, allowed for such estate tax purposes by reason of property or interests in property passing or which have passed to the Settlor's husband otherwise than pursuant to the provisions of this Article; provided, however, the amount for the Marital Trust hereunder shall be reduced by the amount, if any, needed to increase the Settlor's taxable estate (for federal estate tax purposes) to the largest amount that, after allowing for the unified credit against the federal estate tax, and the state death tax credit against such tax (but only to the extent that the use of such state death tax credit does not increase the death tax payable to any state), will result in the smallest (if any) federal estate tax being imposed on the Settlor's estate. The term "maximum marital deduction" shall not be construed as a direction by the Settlor to exercise any election respecting the deduction of estate administration expenses, the determination of the estate tax valuation date, or any other tax election which may be available under any tax laws, only in such manner as will result in a larger allowable estate tax marital deduction than if the contrary election had been made. The Trustee shall have the sole discretion to select the assets which shall constitute the Marital Trust. In no event, however, shall there be included in this the Marital Trust any asset or the proceeds of any asset which will not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction, and this the Marital Trust shall be reduced to the extent that it cannot be created with such qualifying assets. The Trustee shall value any asset selected by the Trustee for distribution in kind as a part of the Marital Trust hereunder at the value of such asset at the date of distribution of such asset. The Marital Trust shall be administered as hereinafter set forth. The Family Trust shall be the balance of the Trust Estate after the assets have been selected for the Marital Trust.

2. Creation of the Family Trust. If the Settlor's husband shall not survive the Settlor, the Family Trust shall be the entire Trust Estate.

The Marital Trust and the Family Trust shall be administered as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE IX

The Family Trust Introductory Provision. The Family Trust shall be held, administered and distributed as follows:

NW

1. Payment to Husband of All Income. If the Settlor's husband shall survive the Settlor, then commencing with the date of the Settlor's death, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's husband during his lifetime all the net income from the Family Trust in convenient installments but no less frequently than quarter-annually.

2. Discretionary Payments of Principal for Husband. If the Settlor's husband shall survive the Settlor, and if there is no principal remaining in the Marital Trust, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's husband during his lifetime, such sums from the principal of the Family Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor's husband, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor's husband known to the Trustee.

3. Outright Final Distribution if Husband is Deceased. Upon or after the death of the survivor of the Settlor's husband and the Settlor, the Family Trust shall be distributed outright and free of trust to STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER, in five (5) approximately equal shares; provided, however, if one of these individuals are deceased then the issue of the deceased individual surviving the Settlor and the Settlor's husband shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor and the Settlor's husband. If any of STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD or BRIAN C. WARD predecease the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's husband and has no issue then living, the share of such predeceased individual shall be distributed per stirpes to the Settlor's husband's issue. If ELIZABETH A. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's husband and has no issue then living, the share of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of GARETT C. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to GARETT C. DIEMER. If GARETT C. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of the Settlor and the Settlor's husband and has no issue then living, the share of GARETT C. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to ELIZABETH A. DIEMER.

ARTICLE X

The Marital Trust Introductory Provision. The Marital Trust shall be held, administered and distributed as follows:

1. Direction to Pay All Income to Husband. Commencing with the date of the Settlor's death, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's husband during his lifetime all the net income from the Marital Trust in convenient installments but no less frequently than quarter-annually. Any accrued and undistributed income at the death of the Settlor's husband shall be paid with the entire remaining principal as provided in this the Marital Trust.

2. Discretionary Payments of Principal by Trustee for Benefit of Husband. In addition, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor's husband such sums from the principal of the Marital Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor's husband, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor's husband known to the Trustee.

3. Power in Husband to Cause Nonproductive Property to Be Made Productive. The Settlor's husband may at any time by written notice, require the Trustee either to make any nonproductive property of this trust productive or to convert such nonproductive property to productive property within a reasonable time.

4. Payment of Death Taxes From the Marital Trust on Death of Husband. Unless the Settlor's husband's Will specifically provides that the estate, succession, death or similar taxes assessed with respect to the assets of the Marital Trust be paid otherwise, the Trustee shall pay to the executors or administrators of the estate of the husband for the purposes of paying such taxes, the amount by which such taxes assessed by reason of the Settlor's husband's death shall be increased as a result of the inclusion of the assets of the Marital Trust in his estate for such tax purposes.

5. Trust Property to Be Added to the Family Trust on Husband's Death. Upon the death of the Settlor's husband, the entire remaining principal of the Marital Trust shall be added to and become a part of the Family Trust and shall be held and administered or distributed in whole or in part, as if it had been an original part of the Family Trust.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

1. Individual Trustees Succession. If STEPHEN D. WARD should fail to qualify as successor Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's brother ROBERT A. GOEKEL.

2. Final Succession If Individual Successor Trustee Cannot Act. If STEPHEN D. WARD and ROBERT A. GOEKEL should fail to qualify as individual successor Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. If any individual Trustee named herein should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining Trustees named herein shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

3. Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive no compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

4. Trustee Voting Rights. If there is more than one Trustee serving, then the vote of the Trustees for any action hereunder must be by majority action of the Trustees. Provided, however, that if only two Trustees shall be serving as co-Trustees, then the Trustees shall act with unanimity on all actions, unless the co-Trustees shall have otherwise agreed in writing.

5. Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

6. Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations.

ARTICLE XII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Trustee named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XIII

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

1. To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

2. To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

3. To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or upon credit, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

4. To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

5. To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

6. To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

7. To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

8. To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

9. To borrow money and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

10. To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust.

NW

11. To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration.
12. To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.
13. To continue and operate any business owned by the Settlor at the Settlor's death and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as it shall deem advisable, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for its own negligence; and to close out, liquidate or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as it shall deem best.
14. To collect, receive, and receipt for rents, issues, profits, and income of the Trust Estate.
15. To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and the Trustee against liability with respect to third persons.
16. In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with itself in its separate, or any fiduciary capacity.
17. To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate as the Trustee shall deem best.
18. To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors, and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.
19. To determine what shall be fairly and equitably charged or credited to income and what to principal.
20. To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

NW

21. To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value; and when dividing fractional interests in property among several beneficiaries to allocate entire interests in some property to one beneficiary and entire interests in other property to another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

22. In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as it may reasonably deem best, and to do all acts which it may deem reasonably necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust Agreement.

23. To purchase property, real or personal, from the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased as a part of the Trust Estate although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

24. To lend funds to the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities, and security as the Settlor's executors or administrators and the Trustee shall agree, the fact that they may be the same in no way affecting the validity of this provision.

25. To receive property bequeathed, devised or donated to the Trustee by the Settlor or any other person; to receive the proceeds of any insurance policy which names the Trustee as beneficiary; to execute all necessary receipts and releases to Executors, donors, insurance companies and other parties adding property to the Trust Estate.

26. To combine assets of two or more trusts if the provisions and terms of each trust are substantially identical, and to administer them as a single trust, if the Trustee reasonably determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

27. To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

28. To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

29. If the Trustee shall act as the Executor of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Executor will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then to the Family Trust, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Executor deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE XIV

Trustee's Discretion to Allow Beneficiary or Beneficiaries to Occupy Residential Real Estate. The Trustee may in its discretion permit any beneficiary or beneficiaries to occupy rent free any residence constituting a part of the trust assets for such beneficiary or beneficiaries and to pay the real estate taxes thereon, expenses of maintaining the residence in suitable repair and condition and hazard insurance premiums on the residence. Provided, however, the Trustee shall not exercise this power in any way which would deprive the husband under the Marital Trust of the beneficial enjoyment of the Marital Trust and the husband shall have the right to limit, restrict or terminate the Trustee's exercises of this power if they interfere with such beneficial enjoyment.

ARTICLE XV

Marital Deduction Savings Clause for the Marital Trust. It is expressly provided that the grant of rights, powers, privileges and authority to the Trustee in connection with the imposition of duties upon the Trustee by any provision of this Trust Agreement or by any statute relating thereto shall not be effective if and to the extent that the same, if effective, would disqualify the marital deduction as established in the Marital Trust hereof. It is the Settlor's intention that the Settlor's husband under the provisions of the Marital Trust have substantially that degree of beneficial enjoyment of the Trust Estate during his lifetime which the principles of the law of trusts accord to a person who is unqualifiedly designated as the life beneficiary of a trust and the Trustee shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which is not in accord with this expressed intention. The Trustee shall invest the Trust Estate so it will produce for the Settlor's husband during his lifetime an income or use which is consistent with the value of the Trust Estate and with its preservation. It is expressly provided that the Trustee shall not in the exercise of its discretion make any determination inconsistent with the foregoing.

ARTICLE XVI

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of

NW

Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her executors or administrators. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XVII

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. Provided, however, that the Trustee shall not make any payment from the Marital Trust under (3) above.

ARTICLE XVIII

Power of Trustee to Resign During Settlor's Lifetime. Any Trustee may resign this trusteeship during the Settlor's lifetime by giving the Settlor Thirty (30) days notice in writing delivered to the Settlor in person or mailed to the Settlor's last known address, the resignation to become effective as hereinafter provided. Upon receipt of such notice, the Settlor shall appoint a successor Trustee. Upon the failure of the Settlor to appoint a successor Trustee who accepts the trust within Thirty (30) days from the time notice was delivered in person or mailed to the Settlor, the Trustee may resign to the court having jurisdiction over this trust, which court may, if it deems advisable, accept the resignation and appoint a successor Trustee which shall be an individual as successor to an individual trustee or a bank or trust company qualified to do business in the state of the Settlor's domicile as successor to a corporate trustee. Upon the appointment of and acceptance by the successor Trustee, the original Trustee shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer or convey to such successor Trustee the Trust Estate and make a full and proper accounting to the Settlor, whereupon its resignation shall become effective. The substitute or successor Trustee upon acceptance of this trust and the Trust Estate shall succeed to and have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XIX

Settlor During Lifetime to Designate Substitute or Successor Trustee. The Settlor during the Settlor's lifetime may name a substitute or successor Trustee by delivery to any Trustee herein a notice naming the successor or substitute Trustee and indicating an intent to replace the Trustee named. Upon receipt of such notice the Trustee named shall pay over, deliver, assign, transfer or convey to such substitute or successor Trustee (which accepts the appointment as trustee), the Trust Estate and make a full and proper accounting to the Settlor, whereupon the Trustee named shall be discharged and have no further responsibility under this Trust Agreement. Upon the failure of the Trustee to make such conveyance the Settlor may apply to the court having jurisdiction of this trust and such court may compel the conveyance by the Trustee. The substitute or successor Trustee upon acceptance of this trust and the Trust Estate shall succeed to and possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE XX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

1. Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" of the Settlor means ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. For purposes of this Trust, "children" of the Settlor's husband means STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD, but "children" does not mean STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. "Issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated; however, it does not include STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD or their respective issue.

2. Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XXI

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, the words "gross estate," "adjusted gross estate," "taxable estate," "unified credit" ("unified credit" shall also mean "applicable credit amount"), "applicable exclusion amount," "state death tax credit," "maximum marital deduction," "marital deduction," "pass," "qualified terminable interest," "qualified terminable interest property," and any other word or words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XXII

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XXIII

Payment of Funeral Expenses and Expenses of Last Illness of Income Beneficiary. On the death of any person entitled to income or support from any Trust hereunder, the Trustee is authorized to pay the funeral expenses and the expenses of the last illness of such person from the principal of the Trust from which such person was entitled to income or support.

ARTICLE XXIV

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XXV

Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts dated as of even date herewith between STEPHEN D. WARD and NANCY L. WARD is incorporated by reference into this First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement of Nancy L. Ward.

Last Will and Testament of Nancy L. Ward

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT 2011 JUL -7 PM 12:02

Introductory Clause. I, NANCY L. WARD, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Charleston and State of South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

I am married to STEPHEN D. WARD.

I have two living children: ELIZABETH A. DIEMER; and GARETT C. DIEMER.

I have five living step-children: STEPHANIE L. WARD; DAVID D. WARD; BRIAN C. WARD; STEPHEN A. WARD; and JEREMY W. WARD. My step-children STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD and their respective issue shall not receive any benefits under this Will as they will be provided for by their mother with assets she received from my husband pursuant to their divorce. Their omission is intentional.

ITEM I

Direction to Pay Debts with Discretionary Refinancing by Executor. I direct that all my legally enforceable debts, secured and unsecured, be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Executor may cause any debt to be carried, renewed and refinanced from time to time upon such terms and with such securities for its repayment as my Executor may deem advisable taking into consideration the best interest of the beneficiaries hereunder. If at the time of my death any of the real property herein devised is subject to any mortgage, I direct that the devisee taking such mortgaged property shall take it subject to such mortgage and that the devisee shall not be entitled to have the obligation secured thereby paid out of my general estate.

ITEM II

General Bequest of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. I give and bequeath all my personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, as follows:

1. I may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of my tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of my death. If no such written memoranda is found or identified by my Executor within ninety (90) days after my Executor's qualification, it shall be conclusively presumed that there is no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of my death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following paragraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

2. In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, I give and bequeath the rest of my personal and household effects of every kind to my husband, STEPHEN D. WARD, for his lifetime, if he shall survive me. If my husband shall not survive me or upon my husband's death, I give and bequeath my personal and household effects that were acquired by me (prior to my marriage to my husband or by inheritance during my marriage to my husband) to my children ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARRET C. DIEMER in approximately equal shares. If my husband shall not survive me or upon my husband's death, I give and bequeath my personal and household effects that were acquired by me and my husband during our marriage to STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD, BRIAN C. WARD, ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER, in five (5) approximately equal shares.

However, if any of the aforementioned individuals predecease the survivor of me and my husband, then the issue of the deceased individual surviving me and my husband shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived me and my husband. If any of STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD or BRIAN C. WARD predecease the survivor of me and my husband and has no issue then living, the share of such predeceased individual shall be distributed per stirpes to my husband's issue. If ELIZABETH A. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of me and my husband and has no issue then living, the shares of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of GARETT C. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to GARETT C. DIEMER. If GARETT C. DIEMER predeceases the survivor of me and my husband and has no issue then living, the shares of GARETT C. DIEMER shall be distributed per stirpes to the issue of ELIZABETH A. DIEMER, if any, and in default of issue to ELIZABETH A. DIEMER.

If any of the aforementioned individuals do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, my Executor shall make such division among them, the decision of my Executor to be in all respects binding upon them. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Executor may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my Executor. The cost of packing and shipping such property shall be charged against my estate as an expense of administration.

ITEM III

Pour-Over Gift to Trustee of Testatrix's Inter Vivos Trust. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to the successor Trustee under the Nancy Diemer Trust Dated April 28, 1998 between me as Settlor and me as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will, as amended by the First Amendment and Restatement of Trust Agreement dated as of even date herewith. My Trustee shall add the property bequeathed and devised by this Item to the principal of the above Trust and shall hold, administer and distribute the property in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, including any amendments thereto made before my death.

ITEM IV

Naming the Executor, Executor Succession, Executor's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Executor, Executor succession, Executor's fees and other matters are set forth below:

1. Naming an Individual Executor. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as Executor of this my Last Will and Testament STEPHEN D. WARD and direct that he shall serve without bond.

2. Naming Individual Successor or Substitute Executor. If my individual Executor should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Executor who shall also serve without bond shall be ROBERT A. GOELKEL.

3. Final Succession If Individual Successor Executor Cannot Act. If my individual successor Executor should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Executors who shall also serve without bond shall be ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. If any individual Executor named herein should fail to qualify as Executor hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Executor named herein shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

4. Fee Schedule for Individual Executor. For its services as Executor, my individual Executor shall receive no compensation but shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

5. Executor Voting Rights. If there is more than one Executor serving, then the vote of the Executors for any action hereunder must be by majority action of the Executors. Provided, however, that if only two Executors shall be serving as co-Executors, then the Executors shall act with unanimity on all actions, unless the co-Executors shall have otherwise agreed in writing.

6. Delegation Among Executors. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Executors, then any Executor may delegate to any other Executor the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Executors in this Last Will and Testament, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Executor may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Executors. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Executor. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Executor receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Executor had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Executor, or co-

NW

Executor, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Executor a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Executor shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

ITEM V

Definition of Executor. Whenever the word "Executor" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Executor named herein and to any successor or substitute Executor acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Executor shall possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Executor originally named herein.

ITEM VI

Powers for Executor. By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers granted to Executors generally, my Executor is specifically authorized and empowered with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this my Will: to allot, allocate between principal and income, assign, borrow, buy, care for, collect, compromise claims, contract with respect to, continue any business of mine, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of mine, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, to make distributions or divisions in cash or in kind or partly in each without regard to the income tax basis of such asset, and in general, to exercise all the powers in the management of my Estate which any individual could exercise in the management of similar property owned in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as to my Executor may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which my Executor may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this my Will, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order.

ITEM VII

Provision for Executor to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share or property hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years or if any real property shall be devised to a person who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years at the date of my death, then such share or property shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, my Executor acting as Trustee shall retain possession of the share or property in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share or property as my Executor deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent my Executor deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to my Executor. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share or property shall be paid over, distributed and conveyed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her executors or administrators. Whenever my Executor determines it appropriate to pay any money for the benefit of a beneficiary for whom a trust is created hereunder, then the amounts shall be paid out by my Executor in such of the following ways as my Executor deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the care, support and education of the beneficiary; (4) by my Executor using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. My Executor as trustee shall have with respect to each share or property so retained all the powers and discretions conferred upon it as Executor.

ITEM VIII

Discretion Granted to Executor in Reference to Tax Matters. My Executor as the fiduciary of my estate shall have the discretion, but shall not be required when allocating receipts of my estate between income and principal, to make adjustments in the rights of any beneficiaries, or among the principal and income accounts to compensate for the consequences of any tax decision or election, or of any investment or administrative decision, that my Executor believes has had the effect, directly or indirectly, of preferring one beneficiary or group of beneficiaries over others; provided, however, my Executor shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which would cause the loss or reduction of the marital deduction as may be herein provided. In determining the state or federal estate and income tax liabilities of my estate, my Executor shall have discretion to select the valuation date and to determine whether any or all of the allowable administration expenses in my estate shall be used as state or federal estate tax deductions or as state or federal income tax deductions and shall have the discretion to file a joint income tax return with my husband. If my estate plan includes a revocable trust agreement and it contains directions to my Executor, I direct my Executor to follow the directions in such trust agreement.

ITEM IX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

1. Definition of Children. For purposes of this Will, my "children" mean ELIZABETH A. DIEMER and GARETT C. DIEMER. For purposes of this Will, "children" of my husband means STEPHANIE L. WARD, DAVID D. WARD and BRIAN C. WARD, but "children" does not mean STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD. "Issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated; however, it does not include STEPHEN A. WARD and JEREMY W. WARD or their respective issue.

2. Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ITEM X

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, the words "gross estate," "adjusted gross estate," "taxable estate," "unified credit" ("unified credit" shall also mean "applicable credit amount"), "applicable exclusion amount," "state death tax credit," "maximum marital deduction," "marital deduction," "pass," and any other word or words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to my estate. For purposes of this Will, my "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of my death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of my exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of mine by me or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, I have specifically allocated to other property of my gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Will if at the time of my death I have made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and I have not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that my generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of my death.

ITEM XI

Statement by Testatrix of Intent Not to Exercise Power of Appointment. I hereby refrain from exercising any power of appointment that I may have at the time of my death.

ITEM XII

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Testatrix. If any beneficiary and I should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that the beneficiary predeceased me.

ITEM XIII

Agreement For Mutual Wills and Trusts. The Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts dated as of even date herewith between STEPHEN D. WARD and NANCY L. WARD is incorporated by reference into this Last Will and Testament.

Testimonium, Attestation and Self-Proving Affidavit. I, NANCY L. WARD, the Testatrix, sign my name to this instrument this 21st day of April, 2005, and being first duly sworn, do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that I sign and execute this instrument as my last will and that I sign it willingly (or willingly direct another to sign for me), that I execute it as my free and voluntary act for the purposes therein expressed, and that I am eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

We, Jeanne A. Pusey and Magdalena Cruz, the witnesses, sign our names to this instrument, being first duly sworn, and do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that the Testatrix signs and executes this instrument as her last will and that she signs it willingly (or willingly directs another to sign for her), and that each of us, in the presence and hearing of the Testatrix, and in the presence of each other, hereby signs this will as witness to the Testatrix's signing, and that to the best of our knowledge the Testatrix is eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

there were no will, but keeps all the remaining terms of the will in place. The Reporter's Comment to Section 62-2-301 specifically provides that "Section 62-2-301 does not totally revoke the will...."

3. The Order further erroneously sets forth the law as provided for in S.C. Code Ann. §62-2-301(a). Specifically, the Order states that Section 62-2-301(a), "as amended in 1986, provides...." Section 62-2-301(a) was created by act in 1986, and has been amended several times thereafter.

4. The Order further erroneously relies on a revoked statute, S.C. Code Ann. Sect. 21-7-220, SC Code 1962 Sect. 19-222, for support related to public policy. The statute relied upon by Petitioner is no longer the law of the state and has been expressly revoked. In reviewing public policy, courts must determine public policy by reference to legislative enactments wherever possible. Gladden v. Boykin, 402 S.C. 140, 143, 739 S.E.2d 882, 883 (2013). That the legislature has revoked the statute Petitioner relies upon, is clear evidence that it is NOT the public policy of this state.

5. The current statute, rather, §62-2-301(a) provides for two alternate exceptions to Petitioner's claim for omitted spouse, if (1) "it appears from the will that the omission was intentional, OR (emphasis supplied) (2) the testator provided for the spouse by transfer outside the will and the intent that the transfer be in lieu of a testamentary provision is shown by statements of the testator or from the amount of the transfer or other evidence." The Order erroneously cites to "and" (emphasis supplied) between the two alternate exceptions, and erroneously requires evidence that the testator "provided" for the spouse outside the will. Rather, the omitted spouse exception does not require evidence that the omitted spouse was provided for outside the will in order to be satisfied under Section 62-2-301(a)(1).

6. The Order erroneously concludes that the 2005 Will did not evidence the testator's intent to omit a subsequent spouse. This is contrary to the plain and ordinary language of the 2005 Will and all documents incorporated therein by reference, which evidences the express intent of the testator to omit ANY future spouses from the will, even future spouses not contemplated at the time of the 2005 Will.

7. The Order overlooks Section 62-2-509 of the South Carolina Code, which provides that: "Any writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification." In this case, there can be no dispute that the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts was in existence when the 2005 Will was executed based on the plain and ordinary language of the 2005 Will. Further, there can be no dispute that Item XIII of the 2005 Will expressly and clearly manifests the intent of the Decedent to incorporate the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts by reference. Thus, the terms and the language used in the Agreement for Mutual Wills and Trusts are part and parcel of the 2005 Will.

8. The court erroneously finds, based on revoked statutory language, that the public policy of the state is for a testator to "provide" for a surviving spouse. The 1924 case cited by Petitioner, however, rightfully holds that "public policy imports something that is uncertain, fluctuating, varying with the changing economic needs, social customs, and moral aspirations of the people. A state has no public policy cognizable by the courts which is not derivable by clear implication from established law as found in its Constitution, statutes, and judicial decisions. Weeks v. New York Life Ins. Co., 128 S.C. 223, 122 S.E. 586 (1924). The public policy of South Carolina clearly allows a testator to intentionally omit a surviving spouse. See S.C. Code Ann. §62-2-301(a)(1).

9. The court disregarded the statute that provides, regardless of public policy, that a spouse may intentionally omit a surviving spouse. S.C. Code Ann. §62-2-301(a)(1).

10. The court erroneously found that the 2005 Will must have been made in contemplation of Petitioner as a specific, contemplated, future spouse, in order to intentionally omit her. This is neither the law nor the public policy of this state. On the face of the 2005 Will and according to its plain and ordinary language, the 2005 Will was made in contemplation of ANY future spouse.

11. The proposed Order was submitted to the Court ex parte, and was not copied to counsel for the Respondents. As a result of this ex parte communication, the Petitioner did not provide for counsel to the Respondents to review, object, or comment regarding Petitioner's proposed order prior to the Court's entry.

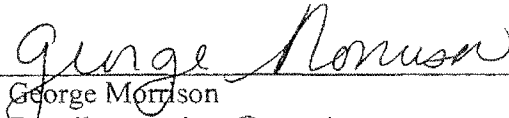

12. The Order makes erroneous and superfluous findings of fact and law. Further, the factual findings cited by the court, including but not limited to that "the parties did not even know one another until 2012", are not supported by any evidence presented to the court. The findings of fact and conclusions of law in the Order should be stricken. "[I]t is unnecessary to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in denying motions for summary judgment." Watson v. Underwood, 407 S.C. 443, 457, 756 S.E.2d 155, 163 (Ct. App. 2014).

As a light of the above, the court should reconsider the Order Denying Summary Judgment, vacate the order, and grant Respondent's Motion for Summary Judgment. In the alternative, the court should alter and amend the Order Denying Summary Judgment to remove the erroneous and superfluous findings and analysis.
