Attorney for Appellant

NOW COMES Appellant, William McFarland, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, and moves this Honorable Court for an extension of thirty (30) days' additional time to file/serve his initial brief and corresponding designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal.

Presently, by order of this Court filed October 13, 2020, the deadline for Appellants' initial brief and designation of matter is November 13, 2020. On account of work-related and other time commitments, Appellant's counsel respectfully requests that this deadline be extended by 30 days, i.e., through December 14, 2020. The undersigned respectfully submits that this relief is consistent with the interests of justice and will not work any undue prejudice upon Respondent.

WHEREFORE, Appellant moves for an additional extension of 30 days' time to file/serve his initial brief and corresponding designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. With the extension requested herein, the new deadline for filing/serving his initial brief and designation of matter would be December 14, 2020, according to the undersigned's calculations.¹ Further,

¹ Rule 263(a) provides, "In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by the[] [South Carolina Appellate Court] Rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a state or

Appellant respectfully requests that the Court hold his present initial-briefing/designation-of-matter deadline in abeyance until it acts upon this motion.

Respectfully submitted,
YOUNG CLEMENT RIVERS, LLP
