Re: Greenville Bistro, LLC v. Greenville County
Appellate Case No. 2017-001747

and

Greenville Bistro, LLC v. Greenville County (2)
Appellate Case No. 2018-001393

Dear Counsel:

As you know, these cases have been consolidated for oral argument next week, and it is my understanding that you will be making the arguments. Since you are both admitted pro hac vice in these cases, an inquiry was made as to whether the South Carolina attorney associated with your admission pro hac vice will need to attend the arguments. See Rule 404(i), SCACR ("The South Carolina attorney of record shall at all times be prepared to go forward with the case; sign all papers subsequently filed; and attend all subsequent proceedings in the matter, unless the tribunal specifically excuses the South Carolina attorney of record from attendance." [emphasis added]).

This is to advise you that the associated South Carolina attorney will not be excused from attending, and must be present for the oral arguments. Therefore, I am now expecting four lawyers to be present for arguments next week.

Very truly yours,
