Re: The State v. Grover L. Miller

Appellate Case No. 2020-001423

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

I went to court on Oct 13, 2020 to plea to a time serve on a 2nd degree Assault / Assault + Battery They drop my 1st to a 2nd..... My misdemeanor got dismissal 2019AD210900107 / 2019AD210900108, that lead to the felony. The only reason I plead is that my lawyer promise me time serve! Other than that I would have went to trial. Because on the voluntary statement the witness lied, & is PTSD, so by law his statement is not credit ability, also the victim lied so, so much I showed my lawyer all that also. So my question is why they drop my misdemeanor 1st to a 2nd, if it's not beatable, I'm being violated of my constitution right + pain and suffering, Curle and unuassly punishment. I will like for the court to take a look at my motion, and voluntary statement. Too the court I cry mercy.....

I at also stressed that the social security number on the warrant is not mines neither the address. Then they have a felony on a ^{warrant} mister minor which is nullity don't have no legal force.
