Re: Michael Dayse v. The State

Appellate Case No.2018-001583

Lower Court No.2017-CP-10-06347

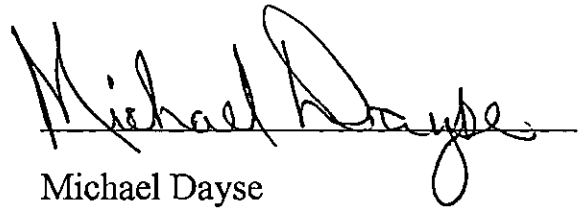

Dear Mr. Allen:

I am sending the August 10, 2015 Order saying I Michael Dayse wishes to withdraw and dismiss this matter of remittitur Order to the lower court (Exhibit A). I Michael Dayse never said or submit anything I was belligerent day one May 27, 2011 with Attorney Arthur C. McFarland petition Probate Court Case No.2011-GC-10-0081 (Exhibit B). I have to go public with this because someone used Michael Dayse name to withdraw and dismiss the remittitur Order from The Court of Appeal to the lower court. The case number was alter from Appellate Case No.2012-208726 April 22, 2013 remittitur to a heading The South Carolina Court of Appeals date August 28, 2015 Case No.2014-CP-10-07868 the same Case No. from The Circuit Court appeal from Probate Court Case No.2011-GC-10-0081 date December 29, 2014 of Judge Irvin G. Condon Order have a Case No.14-CP-10-6246 for The Circuit Court on it. Appellate Case No.2015-001145 filed August 10, 2015 in your court and August 28, 2015 in Julie J.

Armstrong court (Exhibit C). At the appeal Judge R. Markley Dennis Jr. didnt like what I said about Judge Irvin G. Condon, Attorney Charles S. Goldberg and Joseph Mendelsohn my sister attorney's. Being belligerent and have a meritorious defense MUSC Institute Psychiatry admission date 3/22/2011 date discharge 4/08/2011 diagnosis Alzheimer's Dementia with behavioral disturbances Gaddy v. Douglas, 359 SC 329; 597 SE 2d 12 (SC App. 2004) (Exhibit D). Declaratory Judgment & Injunctive Relief was filed default by the Clerk of Court Julie J. Armstrong date 11/02/2011 notice of judgment / order pursuant to rule 77 SCRPC. It was no judgment on this or Declaratory Judgment or Judgment on the Pleading two case's never had a hearing in Probate Court (Exhibit E). Deprived of liberty and due process of law by the Bill of Right Amendment V and Amendment VI Right to a Fair Trail didnt by rule 57 to Declaratory Judgment. Amendment VII according to the rules of the common law rules 57 and 77 never happen (Exhibit F). Amendment XIV Jurisdiction the state wherein they reside I filed in SC live in SC and the case lack jurisdiction if another state is more appropriate forum, in this instance Tennessee it so Order 12/29/2014 Case No.2011-GC-10-0081 (Exhibit G). The Court of Common Pleas for the Ninth Judicial Circuit, The Circuit Court for the Ninth Judicial Circuit, The Probate Court County of Charleston and The South Carolina Court of Appeals deprive Michael Dayse within its judiction the equal protection of the laws. The August 02, 2012 letter to Mr. Allen received August 06, 2012 asking for the case to come back to Probate Court by Charles S. Goldberg The Steinberg Law Firm 61 Broad Street Charleston, SC 29402 granted this and deprive Michael Dayse (Exhibit H). Judgment to the fact of law Gaddy v. Douglas, 359 SC 329; 597 SE 2d 12 (SC APP.2004) MUSC Institute of Psychiatry diagnosis Alzheimer's Dementia with behavioral disturbances Exhibit I). Judge Irvin Condon phone call to Shelby County Tennessee to Probate Judge Kathleen N. Gomes date October 17, 2014. Probate Judge Irvin Condon hold Guardian and Conservator from May 27, 2011 to Order Dismissed December 29, 2014 deprive Michael Dayse the right to a fair trail (Exhibit J). My PCR appeal will I get a fair trail do to the fact of law no notice of counsel no notice of hearing by the court or petitioner counsel. Trial in absentia began immediately because if I knew it was Judge Roger M. Young Sr. I'll contest to the hearing. I Michael Dayse was involved with my case every turn and the court's seen that I am belligerent and it's common to received a Order of Dismiss and I'll appeal. All this for two attorney's of Broad Street and they errorest in this case in the facts for them.
