Re: Wanda McClendon v. Brenda Bridges
Appellate Case No. 2020-001305

Dear Ms. McClendon,

Our records reflect you are currently represented by counsel. We will consider your motion to relieve counsel upon receipt of a proof of service showing you mailed a copy of the motion to counsel for the respondents, Ryan McCarty and Darryl Holland. Your corrected proof of service must be received within 15 days, or we will proceed to review your appeal without consideration of the documents filed pro se. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel.")

Very truly yours,

CLERK
