MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

I, Taylor M. Morris, move for an Order of this Court withdrawing as attorney of record for Respondents, Centex Real Estate Company, LLC and Centex Homes, A Nevada General Partnership. The grounds for this Motion are that I, Taylor M. Morris, am leaving the firm of Parker Poe Adams and Bernstein, LLP effective November 13, 2020. Furthermore, Respondents will continue to be represented by Thomas C. Hildebrand, Jr. of the firm Parker Poe Adams and Bernstein, LLP and any other attorney from the firm of Parker Poe Adams and Bernstein, LLP that may make an appearance in this matter. I have obtained the consent of opposing counsel for this motion and opposing counsel is notified that any future communications, filings and briefs should continue to be served on Thomas C. Hildebrand, Jr. and any future attorneys that may make an appearance on behalf of Respondents.

The filing fee of $50 associated with this Motion is being mailed to the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

Taylor,

You absolutely have my consent and I wish you the best on your future endeavors. 2020 seems like a good time to make a change.

Best,

Will

Attached is my Motion to Withdraw as Counsel in the Brown v. Centex Court of Appeals matter. The reason for the Motion is that I am leaving Parker Poe next Friday, November 13. Tom (and whoever else he assigns to the case) will continue to represent the Centex entities in the appeal.

I am sending this email for two reasons. First, as proof of service pursuant to Supreme Court Order 2020-05-29-02. Second, to request your consent to the Motion. If you could advise whether you consent, I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you in advance,

Taylor
