Re: South Carolina Inmate Richard Bernard Moore;
Execution scheduled for Friday, December 4, 2020

Dear Ms. Silver, Ms. Borneisen, and Ms.Thompson:

Attached please find a scanned copy of the November 25, 2020 letter of Daniel C. Plyler, on behalf of the South Carolina Department of Corrections, sent to opposing counsel this day, confirming that the Department "will not be able to obtain the required drugs prior to December 4, 2020, and" that "the December 4, 2020 execution will have to be delayed."

Sincerely,

Melody J. Brown

Re: South Carolina Inmate Richard Bernard Moore;
Execution scheduled for Friday, December 4, 2020

Dear Ms. Silver:

Just a quick update. Please be advised that there has been no change in status at this time. The execution remains scheduled for Friday, December 4, 2020.

No court has issued a stay of execution as of this writing, nor has any other delay been announced.

At the latest, I will email another update on Monday, November 30th. If, in the interim, there is any change in status, I will advise as soon as possible.

Of course, should you need to reach us, please feel free to call any of the numbers below, or my direct line at the office – 803-734-3742.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Melody J. Brown
