RE: Hall v. UBS, et al; Case No-2020-001195

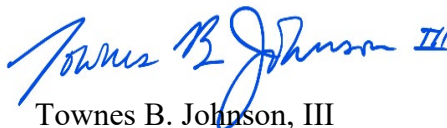

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

This firm represents the plaintiff, Curt O. Hall, in the above referenced matter which has accepted certain questions of law certified to it from the Honorable Timothy M. Cain, United States District Court Judge for the District of South Carolina, Greenville Division.

This letter is regarding the date for the plaintiff to file his brief as the defendants in this matter have requested that certain documents be added to the record and, as of today, the Honorable Timothy M. Cain has not ruled on the defendants' motion. As the addition of documents to the record might have an impact on Plaintiff's brief, Plaintiff hereby respectfully requests that the date to file his brief be extended until twenty (20) days after the Honorable Timothy M. Cain has ruled.

Please advise if the Court would require that a Motion for Extension of Time be submitted or if this correspondence is sufficient.

Regards,

Townes B. Johnson, III
