

Edward Anthony

v.

State of South Carolina

RECEIVED

NOV 30 2020

Appellate Case No. 2018-000628

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Come Now, Edward Anthony, Appealing to the higher courts at this time.

- (i) for meritorious claims challenging judgments of conviction and sentence, including cognizable claims:(i) that the conviction was obtained or sentence imposed in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the constitution or laws of the state in which the judgment was rendered;
- (ii) that the applicant was convicted under a statute that is in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the constitution of the state in which judgment was rendered, or that the conduct for which the applicant was prosecuted is constitutionally protected;
- (iii) that the court rendering judgment was without jurisdiction over the person of the applicant or the subject matter;
- (vi) that the sentence imposed exceeded the maximum authorized by law or is otherwise not in accordance with the sentence authorized by law;
- (v) that there exists evidence of material facts which were not, and in the exercise of due diligence could not have been, theretofore presented and heard in the proceedings leading to conviction and sentence, and that now require vacation of the conviction or sentence;
- (vi) that there has been a significant change in law, whether substantive or procedural, applied in the process leading to applicant's conviction or sentence where sufficient reason exists to allow retroactive application of the changed legal standard;

This day of November 24, 2020
