APPELLATE'S MOTION FOR REINSTATEMENT

Appellant hereby files a motion to reinstate this case. Appellant received an order dated November 12, 2020, from the Honorable Court dismissing Appellant's case stating, "Appellant has failed to serve and file a record of appeal that is in compliance with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules". However,

- 1) Appellant filed his record of appeal and the final brief according to the Appellant Court and Temporary Covid regulations on time by hand delivering same to the Appellate Court. Respondent was served appropriately via USPS.

2) Within the filed Record on Appeal, Appellant included an expert witness affidavit substantiating the malpractice and damages. Appellant has a great interest in getting this case to a jury since hundreds of thousands of dollars are at stake. This Respondent's actions and inactions have caused this Appellant to become indigent for years.

3) It was Appellant's understanding that should there be any deficiency in Appellant's Record of Appeal, Appellant would receive a deficiency letter from the Honorable Appellate Court outlining such deficiencies giving Appellant a reasonable period of time to correct any stated deficiencies.

Appellant pleads with the Honorable Court that this case be reinstated. This Pro Se has never previously been in, nor previously filed a record of appeal prior to this year, but certainly was diligent in his attempts to compile documentation that was acceptable. Furthermore, Appellant wants to make any corrections that may be determined as needed by the Appellate Court.

Respectfully Submitted November 16, 2020.
