Re: Russell Goodwin v Russell Powell

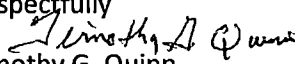

Case no. 2019-001324

To the Honorable Court:

As I recall, the last Order of this Court gave Mr. Goodwin until October 25, 2020 to properly prepare his appeal. If Mr. Goodwin did not comply with the Court's Order, his appeal would be dismissed. This Office has received nothing from Mr. Goodwin since the date of the Court's Order. In the meantime, Mr. Goodwin is living in my client's property to the extent he would owe $20,000.00 in rent which he did not pay.

The lower courts will not touch this matter because it is allegedly under appeal, however even if it was properly under appeal, Mr. Goodwin would have to put up a bond to cover lost rents. None of this has happened because of Mr. Goodwin's abuse of the Judiciary. We had earlier filed a motion to dismiss this appeal months ago, and the Court has never issued a ruling on that Motion. I would ask the Court to either dismiss this alleged appeal or hear my Motion to Dismiss.

Respectfully

Timothy G. Quinn
