SC Court of Appeals

Case No. 2019-001794

The State, Respondent,

v.

Dameion E. Thomas, Appellant,

MOTION TO EXTEND AND ACCEPT RECORD ON APPEAL LATE

COMES NOW Defendant Damrion E. Thomas by and through his undersigned attorney Tyrone J. Walls, respectfully moves the Court to extend the time and accept the Record on Appeal late. In support of foregoing motion, the defendant would show unto the court as follows:

I.

Appellant's Attorney received the initial brief from Respondent on October 26, 2020 via email.

II.

Appellant's Attorney believed the email was merely a courtesy and that the time to serve the record on appeal would be triggered once the official copy of the Respondent's initial brief was received via mail.

III.

It has been brought to the Appellant's Attorney attention that the service by email was sufficient to trigger Appellants 30 days to prepare and serve the record on appeal.

Conclusion

Appellant's respectfully request that the Court accept the Record on Appeal late and grant a 30-day extension from today.

Respectfully Submitted,

S/ Tyrone J. Walls
