Re: State of South Carolina v. Julian C. Young; 2011-GS-38-1833.
Appellate Case No. _____

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Enclosed please find the original and three copies of my Notice of Cross-Appeal in the above captioned Post-Conviction Relief matter. Please note that I did not attach a copy of the Order being appealed. This order, granting a new trial in a murder case, is ninety-five (95) pages long and was previously attached to Respondent's Notice of Appeal filed on June 19, 2020. If the Court desires for me to provide an additional copy to attach to this Notice of Cross-Appeal, please let me know and I will have another copy delivered right away. Unfortunately, my internet service is down here at my office tonight and I was not able to file this electronically. I will get my computer specialist over here as quickly as possible to ascertain what problem has occurred and to fix it. For now, I have served opposing counsel by mail and attach a Certificate of Service to this Notice of Cross-Appeal. I have also copied the presiding judge, B. Craig Brown and the Orangeburg County Clerk of Court, Winnifa B. Clark.

I have sent a copy of this Notice to opposing counsel, Benjamin H. Limbaugh, Assistant Attorney General and to Winnifa B. Clark, Clerk of Court for Orangeburg County. I also enclose the three extra copies of this Notice of Cross-Appeal which I would appreciate having clock stamped and returned to me for my file in the enclosed self-addressed envelope with postage attached. Thank you for your kind assistance as always. I hope you and your family had a happy and safe Thanksgiving. I remain,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Tara Dawn Shurling". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
