SC Court of Appeals

sup. court

I'm writing you today because I'm failing to understand just how the law works. With my case being appealed in your court twice and also the court of appeals twice. On May 22, 20 Chief Justice Lockemy issued an order stating that the 2nd petition and the reviewing of the PCR transcripts be completed within 30 days of his order. Ms. Hackett did not respond back to me in the form of a letter until Sep. 3 20 telling me that she was unable to prepare the 2nd petition in those 30 days so she says that she was going to request an extension of time?? did she request one?? I'll need copies of everything pertaining to my case for the month of August from her. I also asked for a summary judgement (motion) I'm enclosing a copy of the response she sent me.

Please, sir will you please ^{LOOK} into my situation because I do not know the status of my case am I still under appeal? what else need be done to get me home to my family for X-mas it's been 6 yrs I've been going thru this wrongful conviction and false imprisonment when can I go home?? I'm innocent and I've always been that way. With this overcrowding and this Covid-19 pandemic why am I being held in here?? (unlawfully and illegally) for all

Dear Mr. McCladdie:

On August 7, 2020, my office received a letter from you dated August 3, 2020. Please consider this letter my response. You have asked how much longer your case will remain pending at the appellate court. I do not know the answer because there are no timelines on the appellate process. You have been convicted and sentenced; therefore, you must remain in prison while you challenge your conviction and sentence. You have asked that I file "an application for summary judgment." There is no such motion on the appellate level. Motions for summary judgment are appropriate for the trial level, but not the appellate level. I have not filed the second petition for writ of certiorari in your case because I was waiting for a transcript. In fact, that transcript arrived today. I hope to begin a review of your case soon. ^{??}

Sincerely,

s/Susan B. Hackett
