Appellate Case No. 2020-000054

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

Noel Owens, Appellant,

v.

Mountain Air Heating & Cooling, South Market Real Estate, Demetra Caldera, and Ronald Gilmer, Respondents.

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME

Respondent South Market Real Estate ("South Market") moves to extend time to file their final brief based upon the following:

1. The Final Brief is ready for submission and attached to this Motion, so no further delay will occur.
2. The delay was caused by, in part, a miscalculation of dates given the intervening holiday.
3. The delay was also caused, in part, due to an unexpected injury suffered by the attorney on the record for South Market.
4. Neither Respondent Caldera nor Appellant object to the late submission of South Market's Final Brief.

For these reasons, Respondent South Market requests an extension of time to file their Final Brief, on this 11th day of December 2020.
