Case No. 20 ALJ 22 0216 - AP

Sc Dew, Sandra Grooms/
respondent,

United Cerebral Palsy/

Deborah Brooks Durden, Administartive Law Judge

v

Tamika Howard

Appellant,

BRIEF OF APPELLANT

In reference to me not responding in a untimely as stated in the November 5, 2020 decision from Administrative law court. I attempted several times to get help from Dew. I waited on phone lines for several hours at a time. I did my best at navigating through the system. I did not realize that I had to click on each appeal I made a honest human error mixing up dates.

United Cerebral palsy states that I left without good cause previously submitted to your court. I never left my work, they decided not to honor my light duty and suggested that I contact human services for support. I attempted several times to keep my position and they stated for me to check my email sent out on March 25, 2020 from Terri Carter at UCP. I had no choice but to accept the leave that was offered to me and apply for unemployment.

I ask that my case be heard and all documents previously submitted are included in this matter. I believe my case was mishandled and I was not treated fairly.

Tamika Howard
