MR. Daniel Shearouse

ORDER. Case No. 2018-000145

Remittitur Case No. 2015CP4001658

I writing you in concern's of my writ of certiorari being denied. I also have the copy of my Remittitur. Neither tells me why my writ was denied! How can I moved forward probably with my case. To the next stage federal Habeas. If, I don't know why my writ of certiorari was denied? As you can see from my copies. My lawyer doesn't know or have any explanation why my writ was denied either. So, I was hoping you could help me concerning this matter.

Dear Ricky:

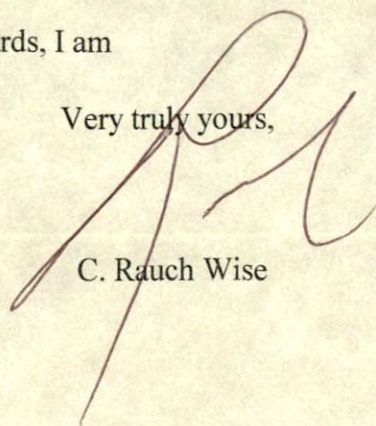

Unfortunately, I am enclosing herewith a copy of the Order of the South Carolina Court of Appeals denying our Petition for Writ of Certiorari. I am at a total loss to understand how they can deny this petition.

As a general rule, I am not hopeful of a federal habeas. Your case is an exception. A federal habeas action would take approximately one year from start to finish. This is based upon a recent case that a friend of mine handled.

If you wish to discuss a federal habeas in your case, please call me so that we can discuss it.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

C. Rauch Wise

Enclosure

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Ricky Bowman, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2018-000145

ORDER

This matter is before the court on a petition for a writ of certiorari following the denial of Petitioner's application for post-conviction relief. Based on the vote of the panel, the petition for a writ of certiorari is denied.
