MOTION FOR SUBSTITUTION OF PARTY

Teri Chappell, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby files this Motion to Substitute Party in the above-captioned case pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 265(b) which states in relevant part:

[i]f a party to an appeal dies or becomes incompetent, the appellate court may, upon motion or on its own initiative, order substitution of the proper parties or remand the case to the trial court for the substitution of the proper parties as provided by Rule 25, SCRPC.

S.C. App. Ct. R. 265(b)

Appellant Craig Chappell died on or about September 27, 2020. After receiving notification of Plaintiff's death, Ben Le Clercq and David D. Ashley, on behalf of the Appellant and pursuant to S.C. App. Ct. R. 265(a), filed the Suggestion of Death with the court on October 27, 2020. In order to administer Mr. Chappell's estate, Appellant's sister, Teri Chappell, petitioned to be appointed Personal Representative of Craig Chappell's estate after compiling all necessary records and receiving the consent of his heirs. Teri Chappell was duly appointed as the Personal Representative of Craig Chappell by the Charleston County Probate Court on December 8, 2020. A copy of the Fiduciary Letters is attached as Exhibit A.

This is an appeal on an action for a violation of the South Carolina payment of wages act, breach of contract, and conversion and the claims for a violation of the South Carolina payment of wages act, breach of contract, and conversion was not extinguished by the death of Appellant.

Wherefore, Appellant moves the court for an order substituting Teri Chappell, as Personal Representative of the estate of Craig Chappell, as the Appellant in the above captioned matter.
