Re: 2019-1671
Doe v. Alka et al

Dear Jenny:

We hope you and your kind staff have a blessed Thanksgiving and stay safe from Covid-19. Please be advised and you are hereby on notice of inadvertent error. Enclosed please find the requested timely status update and a copy of the successful fax transmission sheet on October 11, 2020. Also, enclosed please find a copy of the SCCA correspondence. It is understood that the unprecedented and extraordinary Covid-19 public health and affiliated economic emergencies still unfolding have contributed to the inadvertent error. Please advise if there is another fax number to use. See Operation of the Appellate Courts During the Coronavirus Emergency.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions. Thanking you in advance for your kind consideration and with best personal regards, I remain

Yours very truly,

Re: Doe v. DRB et al
2019-CP-10-03131

Dear Mr. Holmes:

I am writing in response to your letter received by this office on October 5, 2020, regarding your attempts to obtain a transcript from Ms. Sallie Beth Todd, the court reporter who captured the record of the hearing on February 19, 2020. Court reporters are required to acknowledge and respond to transcript requests within five (5) days of receipt. Ms. Todd has been contacted and instructed to contact you to make arrangements for payment and delivery of this transcript. Ms. Todd is copied on this correspondence so that everyone is aware of what needs to occur next.

Please do not hesitate to contact this office again, if you have questions regarding court reporters and/or to obtain transcripts from proceedings in circuit or family court in this state.

Sincerely,

Karama Bailey
Deputy Director
