Re: Simmons, Roosevelt v. Bailum, Hattie
Appellate Case No. 2011-189009

Dear Mr. Simmons:

On March 15, 2013, the Court received your document entitled "A Petition to the State of South Carolina." You are represented by counsel in this appeal. "[T]here is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel." Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010). Accordingly, any "substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel." Id. Accordingly, we are returning your filings to you.

Very truly yours,
