Re: SunTrust Bank v. Brandy K. Bryant
Appellate Case No. 2011-194366

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your return to the motion for costs. This return, which is dated March 20, 2013, was received by this Court in on March 25, 2013, in an envelope post-marked March 20, 2013. The proof of service for the return indicates that it was served on opposing counsel on March 20, 2013.

The certificate of service for the motion for costs filed by your opposing counsel shows a service date of March 7, 2013. Therefore, any return to the motion for costs had to be served and filed by March 18, 2013. Rules 240(e) and 263(a), SCACR.

On March 22, 2013, the motion for costs was granted. In light of this, no action will be taken on your untimely return to the motion for costs.

Sincerely,

Daniel E. Shearouse
