IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
Case No. 2016-CP-32-815

ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY JUDGMENT
MOTION OF STATE FARM AND DENYING SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTION OF WINDHAM

This matter comes before me upon cross Motions for Summary Judgment by the Plaintiff and Defendant. A hearing was held on June 23, 2016 at the Lexington County Courthouse. A. Johnston Cox appeared for State Farm and Steve Cook appeared for Windham. After consideration of the pleadings, stipulation of facts, the policies at issue, legal authority and arguments of the parties, State Farm's Motion for Summary Judgment is granted and Windham's Motion for Summary Judgment is denied.

State Farm brought this action seeking a determination from this Court that Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of automobile policies issued to her by State Farm or South Carolina law because none of her vehicles were involved in an automobile accident that occurred on October 5, 2012. Windham counterclaimed seeking a determination from this Court that she is entitled to stack the UIM limits from policies issued by State Farm because the rental car she was driving at the time qualifies as a temporary substitute vehicle as defined in the policy.

The parties stipulated to all material facts and asked the Court to determine the issue presented as a matter of law. The stipulated facts are as follows:

On September 29, 2012, Myra Windham ("Windham") was involved in an automobile accident with Stephen H. Keever ("Keever") while operating her 2007 Toyota Camry, which was repaired sometime after the October 5, 2012 accident. On October 5, 2012, six days after the first wreck, Ms. Windham was involved in an automobile accident with Jennifer Mary McArdle ("McArdle") while operating a 2013 Dodge rental car owned by Enterprise Leasing Corporation as a replacement for her automobile which was damaged and out of service from the September 29, 2012 accident. Windham was using the rental car on October 5, 2012, as a temporary substitute vehicle because her vehicle had been rendered inoperable following the accident on September 29, 2012. None of the Windhams' vehicles were involved in the accident on October 5, 2012.

Windham was injured as a result of the October 5, 2012, accident and claims that her injuries exceed the amount of McArdle's liability insurance, which has already been paid in full.

State Farm issued five automobile policies, policy numbers: 162-8590-D19-40C; 234-0370-A08-40M; 203-0684-F04-40C; 186-4629-A16-40Q; and 457-1883-B10-40A ("the Policy or Policies"), to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham that were in effect at the time of the accidents. All of the Policies contain identical language.

Myra M. Windham was an insured under all of the aforementioned Policies issued by State Farm. State Farm has paid a single limit of UIM from one of the Windhams' policies in the amount of $100,000.00 to Windham as a result of the October 5, 2012 accident. Windham claims that she is entitled to stack UIM from the other State Farm policies up to an additional $400,000. State Farm disputes the ability to stack.

ER-2

The Policy contains several defined terms that are issue in this case. The parties stipulated that the Dodge owned by Enterprise Leasing and rented to Windham at the time of the accident is not a vehicle shown under "YOUR CAR" on the Declarations Page of any of the Policies issued to Myra. M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham. In addition, the Dodge rental car being driven by Windham at the time of the October 5, 2012 accident does not meet the definition of "owned by" in the policy. However, the Dodge rental car meets the definition of a "temporary substitute car" as defined by each of the Policies.

Summary judgment should be granted where the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, show there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56(c), SCRPC. "The purpose of summary judgment is to expedite disposition of cases which do not require the services of a fact finder." George v. Gabri, 345 S.C. 440, 452, 548 S.E.2d 868, 874 (2001).

"Stacking is generally permitted unless limited by statute or by a valid policy provision." Jackson v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co., 288 S.C. 335, 336, 342 S.E.2d 603, 604 (1986) (emphasis added). I find that the ability to stack UIM coverages is controlled by S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160 and unambiguous policy language contained within the Underinsured Motorist Coverage portion of the Policies. Based upon South Carolina law and the State Farm's policies at issue in this case, Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverages when driving a car that meets the policy definition of a "temporary substitute car."

Section 38-77-160 of the South Carolina Code states, in pertinent part:

Automobile insurance carriers shall offer, at the option of the insured, uninsured motorist coverage up to the limits of the insured's liability coverage in addition to the mandatory coverage prescribed by Section 38-77-150. Such carriers shall also offer, at the option of the insured, underinsured motorist coverage up to the limits of the insured liability coverage to provide coverage in the event that damages are sustained in excess of the liability limits carried by an at-fault insured or underinsured motorist or in excess of any damages cap or limitation imposed by statute. If, however, an insured or named insured is protected by uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage in excess of the basic limits, the policy shall provide that the insured or named insured is protected only to the extent of the coverage he has on the vehicle involved in the accident. If none of the insured's or named insured's vehicles is involved in the accident, coverage is available only to the extent of coverage on any one of the vehicles with the excess or underinsured coverage.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160 (emphasis added).

To ascertain whether an insured may stack under section 38-77-160 the court must determine whether the insured qualifies as a Class I or Class II insured. A Class I insured is an insured or named insured that has a vehicle involved in the accident. South Carolina Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mooneyham, 304 S.C. 442, 442 n.1, 405 S.E.2d 396, 397 n.1 (1991); Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d 477 (2012). In Rhoden, the Supreme Court analyzed section 38-77-160 and reasoned that “[h]aving” a vehicle involved in the accident reasonably implies ownership of the vehicle.” Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d at 481. A Class II insured is an insured whose vehicle was not involved in an accident. Id. Although Class I insureds may stack coverage, Class II insureds may not. Fireman's Ins. Co. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 295 S.C. 538, 370 S.E.2d 85 (1988) (stating “where the insured is a member of the second class (none of the insureds vehicles is involved in the accident), UIM recover is limited to the extent of coverage on one vehicle with UIM coverage”).

At the time of the October 5, 2012 accident, Windham occupied a vehicle that was owned by Enterprise and was temporarily rented to her. It is stipulated that Windham had no ownership interest in this vehicle and that none of her vehicles were involved in the accident. South Carolina law is clear that, pursuant to S.C. Code § 38-77-160, in order to be a Class I insured, the insured must “have” a vehicle involved in the accident and “having” a vehicle involved in the accident reasonably implies ownership of the vehicle. James, 522 S.E. 2d at 868; Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d at 481. Because there is no dispute that Windham did not own the vehicle involved in the accident and none of her vehicles were involved in the accident, she did not "have" a vehicle in the accident as is required by the statute. Thus, pursuant to section 38-77-160 and Rhoden, Windham "ha[d]" no vehicle in the accident and is a necessarily Class II insured, thereby prohibiting Windham from stacking UIM coverage.

State Farm's policy does not conflict with 38-77-160 and does not voluntarily allow stacking of UIM coverages to a greater extent provided for in 38-77-160. The UIM portions of the Policies contain the following anti-stacking provision:

3. If:
 - a. you or any resident relative sustains bodily injury or property damage:
 - (1) while occupying a motor vehicle not owned by you or any resident relative; or
 - (2) while not occupying a motor vehicle; and
 - b. Underinsured Motor Vehicle Coverage provided by this policy and one or more other vehicle policies issued to you or any resident relative by the State Farm Companies apply to the same bodily injury or property damage, then the maximum amount that may be paid from all such policies combined is the single highest limit provided by any one of the policies. We may choose one or more policies from which to make payment.

"Where the contract's language is clear and unambiguous, the language alone determines the contract's force and effect." McGill v. Moore, 381 S.C. 179, 185, 672 S.E.2d 571, 574 (2009) (citation omitted). "Courts must enforce, not write, contracts of insurance, and their language must be given its plain, ordinary[,] and popular meaning." Sloan Constr. Co. v. Cent. Nat'l Ins. Co. of Omaha, 269 S.C. 183, 185, 236 S.E.2d 818, 819 (1977) (citation omitted). "[I]f the intention of the parties is clear, courts have no authority to torture the meaning of policy language to extend or defeat coverage that was never intended by the parties. MGC Mgmt., Inc. v. Kinghorn Ins. Agency, 336 S.C. 542, 549, 520 S.E.2d 820, 823 (Ct. App. 1999). There is no basis in law or the Policy to alter the express definition of "owned by" to include "temporary substitute car" for purposes of stacking.

Under the clear and unambiguous language of the anti-stacking provision, if an insured sustains bodily injury while occupying a motor vehicle not "owned by" an insured, then the insured is prohibited from stacking and may only recover the single highest limit by any one of the policies. Conversely, it is clear that an insured must be driving a vehicle meeting the policy definition of "owned by" in order to stack UIM coverages from other State Farm policies.

The term "owned by" is defined in the Policy as:

1. owned by;
2. registered to; or
3. leased, if the lease is written for a period of 31 or more consecutive days, to.

It is undisputed that the Dodge rental car Windham was driving at the time of the accident does not meet the definition of "owned by" contained in the policy. Windham has stipulated that the rental car involved in the accident does not meet the definition of "owned by." Her stipulation on this issue of fact is dispositive of the issue presented.

Windham's argument that because the Dodge rental car meets the definition of a "temporary substitute car" she should be entitled to stack UIM coverages is unavailing.

The term "Temporary Substitute Car" is defined in the Policy as:

[A] car that is in the lawful possession of the person operating it and that:

1. Replaces your car for a short time while your car is out of use due to its:
 - a. Breakdown;

- b. Repair;
- c. Servicing;
- d. Damage; or
- e. Theft; and

2. Neither you nor the person operating it own or have registered.

If a car qualifies as both a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car, then it is considered a temporary substitute car only.

Windham argues that because a temporary substitute car cannot be considered a "non-owned car" as defined by the policy, it is therefore converted into a car that the insured owns for purposes of stacking UIM coverage. However, a "temporary substitute car," by its very definition, cannot be owned by the insured. It is clear that a car that is classified as "temporary substitute car" serves a different purpose under the policy than a car that is classified as a "non-owned car," yet it is clear that both classifications involve cars that the insured does not own.

When the Policy is read as a whole, it is clear that the "Non-owned car" and "temporary substitute car" definitions do not and were not intended to apply to UIM coverage. In order to stack, the UIM policy unequivocally states that the vehicle being operated at the time of the accident must be "owned by" the insured and provides a definition for that term. The definition of "owned by" clearly does not include cars that are classified as either "temporary substitute cars" or "non-owned cars." If State Farm had intended that insureds could stack UIM coverages from other policies while the insured was using a "temporary substitute car" it would have included temporary substitute cars in the definition of "owned by."

In order for stacking to be allowed under the Policies, Windham must be operating a car that is "owned by" an insured. She has stipulated that she did not own it, it was not registered to her and she was not leasing it for a period of more than 31 days. Therefore, the rental car does not meet the definition of "owned by", and Windham is not permitted to stack under the terms of the UIM coverage. State Farm's policy is consistent with S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160, and Windham is not entitled to stack UIM coverages from her other policies as a matter of law.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT: stacking of UIM coverages while Windham is operating a temporary substitute car is not permitted under South Carolina law or the State Farm policies at issue in this case. State Farm's Motion for Summary Judgment is GRANTED and Windham's Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Plaintiff State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company ("State Farm"), by and through its undersigned counsel, complaining of the Defendant Myra M. Windham ("Windham"), respectfully alleges and states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. State Farm is an insurance company organized and existing under the laws of the state of Illinois, with its principal place of business in the County of McLean, and writes insurance policies in the state of South Carolina.
2. Defendant Myra M. Windham is a citizen and resident of Lexington County, South Carolina.
3. The loss and claims at issue in this case arise out of incidents that occurred in South Carolina. This case involves the interpretation of insurance policies entered into in South Carolina and that insures interests in South Carolina.
4. This is an insurance coverage action brought pursuant to the provisions of the South Carolina Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act, as codified in S.C. Code Ann. § 15-53-10, et. al. to determine whether automobile policies issued by State Farm to Windham permit stacking of Underinsured Motorist Coverage arising out of an accident that occurred on October 5, 2012, while Windham was operating a rental car owned by Enterprise Leasing.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Automobile Accident

5. On October 5, 2012, Windham was involved in an automobile accident with Jennifer Mary McCardle ("McCardle") while operating a rental car owned by Enterprise Leasing.

6. Windham was using the rental car as a temporary substitute vehicle following an automobile accident that occurred on September 29, 2010.

7. Windham claims that she was injured as a result of the October 5, 2012 accident and that her injuries exceed the amount of McCardle's liability insurance.

B. The Policies

8. State Farm issued five automobile policies, policy numbers 162 8590-D19-40C; 234 0370-A08-40M; 203 0864-F04-40C; 4629-A16-40Q; and 457 1883-B10-40A ("the Policy or Policies"), to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham. True and correct copies of the Policies are attached as Exhibits A, B, C, D and E, and the terms of the policies are incorporated as if fully stated here.

9. The Policies were in full force and effect on the date of the accident.

10. The Policies included Underinsured Motorist Coverage limits in the amount of $100,000/$300,000/$50,000.

11. The Policies provide:

3. If:

a. you or any resident relative sustains bodily injury or property damage:

(1) while occupying a motor vehicle not owned by you or any resident relative; or

(2) while not occupying a motor vehicle; and

- b. Underinsured Motor Vehicle Coverage provided by this policy and one or more other vehicle policies issued to you or any resident relative by the State Farm Companies apply to the same bodily injury or property damage, then the maximum amount that may be paid from all such policies combined is the single highest limit provided by any one of the policies. We may choose one or more policies from which to make payment.

12. The policy further provides,

4. If you or any resident relative sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying a motor vehicle other than your car that is owned by you or any resident relative, then this coverage applies only to the extent of the underinsured motor vehicle coverage applicable to the motor vehicle that the insured was occupying.

However, if the motor vehicle that the insured was occupying was not insured for underinsured motor vehicle coverage at the time of the accident, then the maximum amount that may be paid from all policies combined that are issued to you or any resident relative by the State Farm Companies is the minimum limits required by the Financial Responsibility Act. We may choose one or more policies from which to make payment.

13. The term "owned by" is defined in the Policy as:

1. owned by;
2. registered to; or
3. leased, if the lease is written for a period of 31 or more consecutive days, to.

14. The term "Your car" is defined in the policy as, "the vehicle shown under 'YOUR CAR' on the Declarations Page. Your car does not include a vehicle that you no longer own or lease."

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(DECLARATORY JUDGMENT)

15. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 14 are incorporated as if fully stated here.

16. The Dodge being driven by Windham at the time of the accident is not a vehicle shown under "YOUR CAR" on the Declarations Page of any of the Policies issued to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham.

17. The Dodge being driven by Windham at the time of the accident does not meet the definition of "owned by" in the policy.

18. Windham nor any other resident relative owned the Dodge rental car she was driving at the time of the accident.

19. The Dodge rental car being driven by Windham at the time of the accident was owned by Enterprise Leasing.

20. None of the Windhams' vehicles were involved in the accident on October 2, 2012.

21. As a result of the accident, State Farm has issued payment to Windham under the Underinsured Motorist Coverage in the amount of $100,000.

22. Windham contends that she is entitled to stack the remaining UIM limits from the other vehicles listed in the Policy Declarations.

23. State Farm seeks a determination from this Court that Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of State Farm's Policies or South Carolina law because none of her vehicles were involved in the accident on October 2, 2012.

24. State Farm is entitled to a judicial declaration that Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of State Farm's Policies and the law of South Carolina.

WHEREFORE, a justiciable controversy exists between the parties in this action arising out of these claims. Therefore, State Farm asks this Court to construe and determine the rights of the parties and to declare whether Windham is permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of State Farm's Policies or South Carolina law when none of her vehicles were involved in the accident on October 2, 2012. State Farm prays that it be granted the relief set forth above and any such other and further relief as this Court shall deem just and proper.

Furthermore, Defendant craves reference to the subject insurance policies for the exact terms and conditions and denies the allegations of these paragraphs to the extent they are inconsistent therewith. Defendant craves particular attention to the definitions and language regarding temporary substitute vehicle as set forth on page 5 of Plaintiff's policy which reads as follows:

Temporary substitute car means a car that is in the lawful possession of the person operating it and that:

1. Replaces your car for a short time while your car is out of use due to its:
 - a. breakdown;
 - b. repair;
 - c. servicing;
 - d. damage; or
 - e. theft; and
2. Neither you nor the person operating it own or have registered.

If a car qualifies as both a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car, then it is considered a temporary substitute car only.

7. Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 9 and 10.

10. Answering paragraphs 16 through 20, Defendant craves reference to the subject insurance policies for the exact terms and conditions and denies the allegations of

11. As to paragraph 21, Defendant admits that a check was issued for a portion of the UIM limits available under her UIM coverage but demands the $400,000 balance under the remaining policies.
12. Defendant admits the allegations of paragraph 22.
13. Answering paragraph 23, Defendant Windham admits that Plaintiff is seeking an Order denying stacking but Plaintiff is seeking an Order allowing the policies to be stacked in accordance with the terms of the policy regarding a temporary substitute vehicle which permits stacking as determined by other courts in South Carolina with the same facts.
14. Defendant denies the allegations of paragraph 24 and demands strict thereof.

RESERVATION OF AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

15. Defendant reserves the right to amend her Answer or plead additional affirmative defenses after filing this pleading.

AS A THIRD DEFENSE BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

(BREACH OF CONTRACT)

16. Defendant, Myra M. Windham, entered into five mutually binding insurance contracts with Plaintiff for UIM coverage.
17. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff has breached the terms of these policies by not allowing the Defendant to stack the subject policies; specifically, Plaintiff breached the terms of page 5 set forth above as well as page twenty-five (25) of the policy (see policy attached as an exhibit to Plaintiff's complaint) under Insuring Agreement which states "we will pay damages for bodily injury or property damage an insured is legally entitled to collect from the owner or driver of an underinsured motor vehicle..."

18. Defendant prays that this Court declare that the Defendant was at all times relevant to the subject collision and incurred under the subject insurance policy and that she is entitled to stack UIM coverage under the five State Farm policies in question for a total of $500,000 in UIM coverage available.

19. In filing this suit for declaratory judgment, requiring the Defendant to hire counsel to represent her, Plaintiff is liable to the Defendant for this breach of contract in the amount of Defendant's attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the defense of this declaratory judgment action.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered Plaintiffs Complaint and Counterclaimed, Defendant prays that this Court declare that Plaintiff be denied the relief they are seeking and grant Defendant the relief she is seeking by allowing her to stack all her UIM policies for a total of $500,000. Defendant also requests that she be awarded reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and such further relief as the Court may deem reasonable and proper due to Plaintiff's breach of their obligations under the contract.

STIPULATION OF FACTS

The Parties to this action stipulate to the following facts:

1. On September 29, 2012, Myra Windham ("Windham") was involved in an automobile accident with Stephen H. Keever ("Keever") while operating her 2007 Toyota Camry, which was repaired sometime after the October 5, 2012 accident.
2. On October 5, 2012, six days after the first wreck, Ms. Windham was involved in an automobile accident with Jennifer Mary McArdle ("McArdle") while operating a 2013 Dodge rental car from Enterprise Leasing Corporation as a replacement for her automobile which was damaged and out of service from the September 29, 2012 accident.
3. Windham was using the rental car on October 5, 2012, as a temporary substitute vehicle because her vehicle had been rendered inoperable following the accident on September 29, 2012.
4. The rental car was paid for by Keever's liability carrier, Allstate Insurance Company.
5. None of the Windhams' vehicles were involved in the accident on October 5, 2012.
6. Windham was injured as a result of the October 5, 2012, accident and claims that her injuries exceed the amount of McArdle's liability insurance, which has already been paid in full.
7. State Farm issued five automobile policies, policy numbers: 162-8590-D19-40C; 234-0370-A08-40M; 203-0684-F04-40C; 186-4629-A16-40Q; and 457-1883-B10-40A ("the Policy or Policies"), to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham that were in effect at the time of the accidents. All of the Policies contain identical language.

8. The Policies attached as exhibits to the Complaint in this case are true and accurate copies of the Policies issued to Myra Windham.
9. Myra M. Windham was an insured under all of the aforementioned Policies issued by State Farm.
10. The 2013 Dodge rental car meets the definition of a "temporary substitute car" as defined by each of the Policies.
11. The Dodge owned by Enterprise Leasing and rented to Windham at the time of the accident is not a vehicle shown under "YOUR CAR" on the Declarations Page of any of the Policies issued to Myra. M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham.
12. The Dodge rental car being driven by Windham at the time of the October 5, 2012 accident does not meet the definition of "owned by" in the policy.
13. State Farm has paid a single limit of UIM from one of the Windhams' policies in the amount of $100,000.00 to Windham as a result of the October 5, 2012 accident.
14. State Farm seeks a determination from this Court that Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of State Farm's Policies or South Carolina law because none of her vehicles were involved in the accident on October 5, 2012.
15. Ms. Windham seeks a determination from this Court that she is entitled to stack the remaining UIM limits from her other Policies with State Farm because the 2013 Dodge rental car qualifies as a temporary substitute vehicle.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
Case No. 2016-CP-32-815

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Plaintiff (hereinafter sometimes referred to as "State Farm"), by and through the undersigned counsel, submits this memorandum of law in support of its motion for summary judgment. As explained below, summary judgment is proper in State Farm's favor because no genuine issue of material fact exists and State Farm is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law.

I. BACKGROUND

This is a declaratory judgment action to determine whether Myra M. Windham ("Windham") is entitled to stack UIM coverages when she was involved in an automobile accident while driving a car that she does not own. She should not be entitled to stack coverages, because allowing her to do so under these circumstances violate statutory law of South Carolina and the provisions of the policies issued by State Farm.

On October 5, 2012, Windham was involved in an automobile accident with Jennifer Mary McCardle ("McCardle") while operating a rental car owned by Enterprise Leasing Corporation. Windham was using the rental car as a temporary substitute vehicle following an automobile accident with Stephen Keever ("Keever") that occurred on September 29, 2012. Windham claims that she was injured as a result of both accidents and that her injuries exceed the amount of Keever's and McCardle's liability insurance. Windham filed suit against Keever and McCardle in March 2013 in the Lexington County Court of Common Pleas, c/a number 2013-CP-3201043 ("underlying case").

In 2014, Windham served State Farm as UIM carrier, seeking recovery of UIM benefits against State Farm. State Farm issued five automobile policies to Myra Windham and/or Paul Windham. As a result of the October 5, 2012 accident, Windham has received $100,000 from McCardle's liability carrier and State Farm issued payment to Windham under the Underinsured Motorist ("UIM") Coverage in the amount of $100,000.00. Windham contends that she is entitled to stack the remaining UIM limits from the other vehicles listed in the Policy Declarations because she was operating a "temporary substitute car." State Farm disputes that Windham was entitled to stack coverage to recover UIM benefits under multiple policies because none of her vehicles were involved in the October 5, 2012 accident.

State Farm filed this declaratory judgment action, seeking a declaration that Windham is not permitted to stack UIM coverage under the terms of State Farm's Policies or South Carolina law because none of her vehicles were involved in the accident on October 5, 2012.¹ This declaration is sought based upon the following grounds: (1) the Dodge being driven by Windham at the time of the accident is not a vehicle shown under "YOUR CAR" on the Declarations Page of any of the Policies issued to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham; (2) the Dodge being driven by Windham at the time of the accident does not meet the definition of "owned by" in the policy; (3) neither Windham nor any other resident relative owned the Dodge rental car she was driving at the time of the accident; (4) the Dodge rental car being driven by Windham at the time of the accident was owned by Enterprise Leasing; and (5) none of the Windhams' vehicles were involved in the accident on October 5, 2012.

II. THE POLICIES

State Farm issued five automobile policies to Myra Windham and/or Paul Windham, policy numbers 162 8590-D19-40C; 234 0370-A08-40M; 203 0864-F04-40C; 4629-A16-40Q; and 457 1883-B10-40A ("the Policy or Policies"), to Myra M. Windham and/or Paul A. Windham. True and correct copies of the Policies are attached as Exhibits A, B, C, D and E, and the terms of the policies are incorporated as if fully stated here. The Policies were in full force and effect on the date of the accident. The Policies included Underinsured Motorist ("UIM") Coverage limits in the amount of $100,000/$300,000/$50,000.

The UIM portions of the Policies provide:

3. If:
 - a. you or any resident relative sustains bodily injury or property damage:
 - (1) while occupying a motor vehicle not owned by you or any resident relative; or
 - (2) while not occupying a motor vehicle; and
 - b. Underinsured Motor Vehicle Coverage provided by this policy and one or more other vehicle policies issued to you or any resident relative by the State Farm Companies apply to the same bodily injury or property damage, then
- the maximum amount that may be paid from all such policies combined is the single highest limit provided by any one of the policies. We may choose one or more policies from which to make payment.

The policy further provides,

4. If you or any resident relative sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying a motor vehicle other than your car that is owned by you or any resident relative, then this coverage applies only to the extent of the underinsured motor vehicle coverage applicable to the motor vehicle that the insured was occupying.

However, if the motor vehicle that the insured was occupying was not insured for underinsured motor vehicle coverage at the time of the accident, then the maximum amount that may be paid from all policies combined that are issued to you or any resident relative by the State Farm Companies is the minimum limits required by the Financial Responsibility Act. We may choose one or more policies from which to make payment.

The term "owned by" is defined in the Policy as:

1. owned by;
2. registered to; or
3. leased, if the lease is written for a period of 31 or more consecutive days, to.

The term "Your car" is defined in the policy as, "the vehicle shown under 'YOUR CAR' on the Declarations Page. Your car does not include a vehicle that you no longer own or lease."

III. LAW/ANALYSIS

A. Summary Judgment Standard

Summary judgment should be granted where the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, show there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56(c), SCRPC. "The purpose of summary judgment is to expedite disposition of cases which do not require the services of a fact finder." George v. Gabri, 345 S.C. 440, 452, 548 S.E.2d 868, 874 (2001).

"When determining if any triable issues of fact exist, the evidence and all reasonable inferences must be viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party." Hansson v. Scalise Builders of S.C., 374 S.C. 352, 355, 650 S.E.2d 68, 70 (2007). However, "[o]nce the party moving for summary judgment meets the initial burden of showing an absence of evidentiary support for the opponent's case, the opponent cannot simply rest on mere allegations or denials contained in the pleadings[,] [but] must come forward with specific facts showing there is a genuine issue for trial.” Regions Bank v. Schmauch, 354 S.C. 648, 660, 582 S.E.2d 432, 438 (Ct. App. 2003). Finally, when reasonable minds cannot differ on plain, palpable, and indisputable facts, summary judgment should be granted. Singleton v. Sherer, 377 S.C. 185, 659 S.E.2d 196 (Ct. App. 2008).

B. State Farm is Entitled to Summary Judgment as a Matter of Law

For the reasons set forth below, State Farm is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law.

1. The Burden of Proof is on Windham to Demonstrate She is Entitled to Stack UIM Benefits Under the Policies.

As an initial matter, Windham has the burden of proving that she is entitled to UIM stacking coverage under the policies.

“The burden of proof is on the insured to show that a claim falls within the coverage of an insurance contract. The insurer bears the burden of establishing exclusions to coverage.” Gamble v. Travelers Ins. Co., 251 S.C. 98, 160 S.E.2d 523 (1968). The fact that State Farm initiated the declaratory judgment action does not alter the burden of proof. See Penn Am. Ins. Co. v. Valade, 28 Fed. Appx. 253 (4th Cir. (N.C.) 2002) (stating that party seeking coverage under an insurance policy bears the burden of proving that any claimed damage falls within the policy's terms and this burden of proof remains unchanged when the insurer initiates a declaratory judgment proceeding concerning its coverage obligations under an insurance policy). Thus, in order to survive summary judgment, Windham must meet the burden of proof in demonstrating that she is entitled to stack UIM benefits.

2. Because Windham was Operating a Rental Car at the time of the Accident, she is not Entitled to Stack UIM Benefits Under the Policies.

Pursuant to the policy language and South Carolina law, State Farm is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law, declaring that Windham is not entitled to stack UIM coverage.

Section 38-77-160 of the South Carolina Code states, in pertinent part:

Automobile insurance carriers shall offer, at the option of the insured, uninsured motorist coverage up to the limits of the insured's liability coverage in addition to the mandatory coverage prescribed by Section 38-77-150. Such carriers shall also offer, at the option of the insured, underinsured motorist coverage up to the limits of the insured liability coverage to provide coverage in the event that damages are sustained in excess of the liability limits carried by an at-fault insured or underinsured motorist or in excess of any damages cap or limitation imposed by statute. If, however, an insured or named insured is protected by uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage in excess of the basic limits, the policy shall provide that the insured or named insured is protected only to the extent of the coverage he has on the vehicle involved in the accident. If none of the insured's or named insured's vehicles is involved in the accident, coverage is available only to the extent of coverage on any one of the vehicles with the excess or underinsured coverage.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160 (emphasis added).

To ascertain whether an insured may stack under section 38-77-160 the court must determine whether the insured qualifies as a Class I or Class II insured. A Class I insured is an insured or named insured that has a vehicle involved in the accident. South Carolina Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mooneyham, 304 S.C. 442, 442 n.1, 405 S.E.2d 396, 397 n.1 (1991); Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d 477 (2012). In Rhoden, the Supreme Court analyzed section 38-77-160 and reasoned that “[h]aving’ a vehicle involved in the accident reasonably implies ownership of the vehicle.” Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d at 481. A Class II insured is an insured whose vehicle was not involved in an accident. Id. Although Class I insureds may stack coverage, Class II insureds may not. Fireman's Ins. Co. v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 295 S.C. 538, 370 S.E.2d 85 (1988) (stating “where the insured is a member of the second class (none of the insureds vehicles is involved in the accident), UIM recover is limited to the extent of coverage on one vehicle with UIM coverage”).

At the time of the October 5, 2012 accident, Windham occupied a vehicle that was owned by Enterprise and was temporarily rented to her. It is stipulated that Windham had no ownership interest in this vehicle. South Carolina law is clear that, pursuant to S.C. Code § 38-77-160, in order to be a Class I insured, the insured must “have” a vehicle involved in the accident and “having” a vehicle involved in the accident reasonably implies ownership of the vehicle. James, 522 S.E. 2d at 868; Rhoden, 728 S.E.2d at 481. Because there is no dispute that Windham did not own the vehicle involved in the accident, she did not “have” a vehicle in the accident as is required by the statute. Thus, pursuant to section 38-77-160 and Rhoden, Windham “ha[d]” no vehicle in the accident and is a necessarily Class II insured, thereby prohibiting Windham from stacking UIM coverage.

The Policy language compels the same result. Under the terms of the UIM policy coverage, if an insured sustains bodily injury while occupying a motor vehicle not “owned by” an insured, then the insured is prohibited from stacking and may only recover the single highest limit by any one of the policies. “Owned by” is expressly defined in the Policy as “[] owned by; [] registered to; or [] leased, if the lease is written for a period of 31 or more consecutive days, to.” The definition of “owned by” does not include a “temporary substitute car.” This express definition of “owned by” and its application to the prohibition on stacking is consistent with section 38-77-160 and Rhoden.

It is undisputed that the Dodge rental car Windham was driving at the time of the accident does not meet the definition of “owned by” contained in the policy. Windham has stipulated that the rental car involved in the accident does not meet the definition of “owned by.”

Her stipulation on this issue of fact is dispositive of the issue presented. In order for stacking to be allowed under the policy, she must be operating a car that is "owned by" an insured. Windham has stipulated that she did not own it, it was not registered to her and she was not leasing it for a period of more than 31 days. Therefore, the rental car does not meet the definition of "owned by", and she is not permitted to stack under the terms of the UIM coverage. State Farm's policy is consistent with 38-77-160, and Windham is not entitled to stack UIM coverages from her other policies.

However, Windham argues that State Farm's Policy is broader than South Carolina law, and allows stacking when an insured is driving a "temporary substitute car." In making this argument she relies on the definitions of "temporary substitute car" and "non-owned car," definitions that have no bearing on whether an insured can stack UIM coverages.

The term "Non-Owned Car" is defined in the Policies as:

[A] car that is in the lawful possession of you or any resident relative and that neither:

1. is owned by:
 - a. you;
 - b. any resident relative;
 - c. any other person who resides primarily in your household; or
 - d. an employer of any person described in a, b, or c, above; nor
2. has been operated by, rented by, or in the possession of:
 - a. you, or
 - b. any resident relative;

during any part of each of the 31 or more consecutive days immediately prior to the date of the accident or loss.

The term "Temporary Substitute Car" is defined in the Policy as:

[A] car that is in the lawful possession of the person operating it and that:

1. Replaces your car for a short time while your car is out of use due to its:
 - a. Breakdown;
 - b. Repair;
 - c. Servicing;
 - d. Damage; or
 - e. Theft; and

2. Neither you nor the person operating it own or have registered.

If a car qualifies as both a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car, then it is considered a temporary substitute car only.

Windham contends that if a vehicle is a "temporary substitute car," it does not meet the definition of a "non-owned car," and therefore must be a vehicle that the insured owns for purpose of the UIM statute. However, not only does the Policy fail to support this argument, the argument is nevertheless irrelevant to a person's ability to stack UIM coverage.

~~The UIM coverage portion of the Policy controls when determining who can stack UIM~~ coverage. Nowhere in the UIM section of the Policy, other than an expanded definition of "insured," are the terms "temporary substitute car" and "non-owned car" used. Thus, Windham's argument regarding "temporary substitute car" is wholly irrelevant to the issue of her ability to stack.

Even if Windham's argument was relevant to her ability to stack UIM coverage, the argument nevertheless fails. As described above, the term "owned by" is expressly defined in the policy and does not include a "temporary substitute car." If the term "owned by" was meant to include a "temporary substitute car," State Farm would have included that in the definition of "owned by."

"Where the contract's language is clear and unambiguous, the language alone determines the contract's force and effect." McGill v. Moore, 381 S.C. 179, 185, 672 S.E.2d 571, 574 (2009) (citation omitted). "Courts must enforce, not write, contracts of insurance, and their language must be given its plain, ordinary[,] and popular meaning." Sloan Constr. Co. v. Cent. Nat'l Ins. Co. of Omaha, 269 S.C. 183, 185, 236 S.E.2d 818, 819 (1977) (citation omitted). "[I]f the intention of the parties is clear, courts have no authority to torture the meaning of policy language to extend or defeat coverage that was never intended by the parties. MGC Mgmt., Inc. v. Kinghorn Ins. Agency, 336 S.C. 542, 549, 520 S.E.2d 820, 823 (Ct. App. 1999). There is no basis in law or the Policy to alter the express definition of "owned by" to include "temporary substitute car" for purposes of stacking.

Windham's reasoning fails under the plain language of the Policy. First, one of the mandatory criteria of being a "temporary substitute car" is that the car must not be owned by the insured. See Policy (defining "temporary substitute car" as "a car that is in the lawful possession of the person operating it and . . . "[n]either you nor the person operating it own or have registered"). Stated another way, by its very definition, a "temporary substitute car" cannot be one that the insured owns. Thus, Windham's argument that because a "temporary substitute car" does not meet the policy definition of a "non-owned car" it must therefore be an owned vehicle is categorically defeated by the very definition upon which she relies.

Rather, it is clear that a vehicle that does not meet the policies definition of a "Non-owned car" does not automatically mean that it is considered an owned vehicle upon which UIM coverages can be stacked under 38-77-160 or the Policies. By not being included in the definition of a “non-owned car,” a temporary substitute vehicle does not somehow morph into a car owned by the insured for the purpose of UIM coverage. By its very definition “temporary substitute car” cannot be owned by the insured. Windham’s attempt to defeat the meanings of both “temporary substitute car” and “owned by” requires a torturing on the policy and is in degradation to the plain and unambiguous terms of the Policy.

When the Policy is read as a whole, it is clear that the “Non-owned car” and “temporary substitute car” definitions do not and were not intended to apply to UIM coverage. In order to stack, the UIM policy unequivocally states that the vehicle being operated at the time of the accident must be “owned by” the insured and provides a definition for that term. As discussed above, “temporary substitute car,” by its very definition, cannot be owned by the insured. If it is owned by the insured, then it does not meet the definition of a “temporary substitute car.” The terms are mutually exclusive. Windham has stipulated that the rental car was a “temporary substitute car” and that the rental car does not meet the definition of a vehicle “owned by” the insured. In conjunction with the clear policy language, Windham’s stipulations defeat her claim that she is entitled to stacking.

The UIM policy does not permit and cannot be sensibly read to permit stacking when the insured is driving a “temporary substitute car.” The policy language should not be tortured and altered by the Court to reach such an absurd result.²

² It is anticipated that Windham will rely on a recent federal court order in State Farm and Casualty Insurance Company v. Carol Holmes, C/A No. 6:14-4050-TMC (D.S.C. Jan. 7, 2016), wherein the district court denied the insurer summary judgment and granted the insured summary judgment on a similar issue. The district court held that because the insured’s rental car was not a non-owned car, it was therefore a temporary substitute car and an owned car, and the insured was entitled to stack UIM coverage. However, the policy language at issue in that case is far different from the policy language in the case sub judice; in fact, the policy in the federal court case did not even define “owned by.” (See Exhibit F). Thus, the circumstances and policy language at issue in the two cases is clearly distinguishable. In any event, the district

IV. CONCLUSION

In sum, section 38-77-160 provides that where an insured "is protected by [UIM coverage], the policy shall provide he is protected only to the extent of the coverage he has on the vehicle involved in the accident," i.e., only where a vehicle is owned by the insured. (emphasis added). State Farm's UIM stacking limitation is consistent with this provision. Per the plain and clear meaning of the Policy language, an insured cannot stack UIM coverage unless operating a vehicle "owned by" the insured or "your car," as expressly identified in the Declarations. The plain and unambiguous definitions of "owned by" and "your car" do not include "temporary substitute car," and the term "temporary substitute car" expressly excludes cars owned by the insured. Windham is certainly entitled to the 'personal and portable' UIM coverage in her Policy because she is an insured. State Farm has already paid the single $100,000 limit that she is entitled to receive. Nevertheless, the Policy, consistent with § 38-77-160, limits Windham's UIM coverage to the single highest UIM limit on any one of Windham's five policies.

Therefore, State Farm is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law and Windham's motion for summary judgment should be denied.

court order has no precedential value in this Court. See Laffitte v. Bridgestone Corp., 381 S.C. 460, 473 n.9, 674 S.E.2d 154, 161 (2009) (noting a federal court decision interpreting state law is not binding on state courts).

INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is in support of Defendant, Myra Windham's Motion for Summary Judgment in regard to her counterclaim and in opposition to Plaintiff, State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance (hereinafter referred to as "State Farm") Motion for Summary Judgment. This is a Declaratory Judgment action in which Ms. Windham claims that she is entitled to stack Underinsured Motorist Coverage from her policies with State Farm.

FACTS

This is a declaratory judgment action arising from a suit concerning two separate automobile accidents, both of which occurred in Lexington County, South Carolina on September 29, 2012, and October 5, 2012, respectively. (Stip. of Facts ¶¶ 1-2). Defendant, Myra Windham, who had been involved in both wrecks, originally filed an action against Stephen H. Keever and Jennifer M. McArdle in the Court of Common Pleas of Lexington County (C/A No.: 13-CP-32-1043). The state-court-action sought damages for personal injuries sustained by Windham in the two wrecks. Accordingly, all claims concerning the wreck on September 29, 2012, have been completely settled; only claims related to the wreck on October 5, 2012, are currently at issue.

On October 5, 2012, Windham was driving a rental car because her vehicle had been rendered inoperable as a result of the first collision on September 29, 2012. (Stip. of Facts ¶ 3). At this time, State Farm insured five vehicles owned by Ms. Windham under the following policy numbers: 162-8590-D19-40C, 234-0370-A08-40M, 203-0864-F04-40C, 186-4629-A16-40Q, and 457-1883-B10-40A. It is undisputed that on October 5, 2012, each of the aforementioned policies was in full force and effect, and each provided the same amount of UIM. (Stip. of Facts ¶ 7). It is also undisputed that State Farm issued payment to Ms. Windham under her UIM coverage in the amount of $100,000. (Stip of Fact ¶ 13). However, State Farm refuses to pay the policy limits of any of her other UIM policies, and is instead seeking a declaration that the remaining UIM policies cannot be stacked because Windham was operating a non-owned rental car at the time of the² accident, despite the fact that Ms. Windham was driving a rental car as a temporary substitute for her owned vehicle. (Pl.'s Mot. for Summ. J.).

PROCEDURAL STANDARD

Rule 56(c) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure provides that a party's motion for summary judgment shall be granted "if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file..., show that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." S.C.R. Civ. P. 56(c). The South Carolina Supreme Court has held that when deciding on such a motion, a court "must construe all ambiguities, conclusions, and inferences arising from the evidence against the moving party; however, the opposing party may not rest upon mere allegations or denials, but must respond with specific facts showing a genuine issue.” City of Columbia v. Town of Irmo, 316 S.C 193, 195, 447 S.E.2d 855, 857 (1994).

ARGUMENT

I. THE RENTAL VEHICLE BEING DRIVEN BY WINDHAM AT THE TIME OF THE SUBJECT WRECK WAS AN ADMITTED TEMPORARY SUBSTITUTE VEHICLE.

State Farm takes the position that since none of the insured vehicles in the Windham’s household were involved in the wreck, Ms. Windham is not entitled to stack the policies mentioned above. (Compl. ¶ 23). State Farm contends that the rental vehicle the Defendant was driving at the time of the wreck was a non-owned car, thus, she should not be allowed to stack her UIM coverage. This argument ignores the fact that the rental vehicle being driven at the time of the wreck was being driven as a result of a previous wreck Myra Windham had been an innocent participant in a mere six days prior. Accordingly, the State Farm Insurance Policy in question expressly defines a rental car as a temporary substitute car; a car included under an insured’s UIM coverage. The relevant definition reads as follows:

Temporary Substitute Car – means a car that is in the lawful possession of the person operating it and that:

1. Replaces your car for a short time while your car is out of use due to its:
 - a. Breakdown;
 - b. Repair;
 - c. Servicing;
 - d. Damage; or
 - e. Theft; and
2. Neither you nor the person operating it own or have registered.

If a car qualifies as both a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car, then it is considered a temporary substitute car only.

(State Farm Policy Booklet, Pg. 5, larger type added).

The foremost rule in interpreting an insurance contract is to give effect to the intent of the parties as shown by the language of the contract itself. When the contract language is clear and unambiguous, the language alone determines the contract's force, and terms must be construed to give effect to their "plain, ordinary, and popular meaning." Gray v. State Farm Auto Ins. Co., 327 S.C. 646, 650, 491 S.E.2d 272, 274 (Ct. App. 1997); Sphere Drake Ins. Co. v. Litchfield, 313 S.C. 471, 473, 438 S.E.2d 275, 277 (Ct. App. 1993). The plain language reading of the definition of temporary substitute car differentiates between a temporary substitute car and a non-owned car. Furthermore, State Farm defines non-owned car as follows:

Non-Owned Car – means a car that is in the lawful possession of you or any resident relative and that neither:

1. is owned by:
 - a. you
 - b. any resident relative;
 - c. any other person who resides primarily in your household; or
 - d. an employer of any person described in a., b., or c. above; nor
2. has been operated by, rented by, or in the possession of:
 - a. you; or
 - b. any resident relative
during any part of each of the 31 or more consecutive days immediately prior to the date of the accident or loss

(State Farm Policy Booklet, Pg. 5).

The use of the rental vehicle which was involved in the wreck in this case is consistent with a plain language reading of State Farm's definition of a temporary substitute car. Specifically, Ms. Windham was driving a rental car only because her car had been damaged to the point of inoperability in a previous wreck. Additionally, State Farm expressly states in the insurance policy that if a car could qualify as either a temporary substitute car or a non-owned car, than such car will be treated as a temporary substitute car under the insured's policies. In the present case, Myra Windham was driving a rental car as a temporary substitute for her vehicle, which at the time of the collision was out of use due to damage. By State Farm's own definition, if this Court finds that the rental vehicle was a temporary substitute car, then it must be considered an owned car for the purposes of stacking coverage. Defendant is thus a Class 1 insured.

In addition to the rental vehicle meeting the definition of a temporary substitute car per the policy definitions, our Court has found that rental vehicles qualify as temporary substitute cars. In the Dorman case, our state Supreme Court concluded that Mr. Dorman rented a car from Alamo Rent-A-Car, Inc. as a temporary substitute vehicle for a family car being repaired. Dorman v. Allstate Ins. Co., 332 S.C. 176, 504 S.E.2d 127 (1998). While the main issue in this case was not determining whether or not the rental car was a temporary substitute vehicle, our Court made the determination that if an individual rents a vehicle while their insured car is being repaired, this qualifies as a temporary substitute vehicle. Id.

A recent Order issued by the Honorable Timothy M. Cain in United States District Court for the District of South Carolina: Greenville Division dealt with almost identical wording and issues in a State Farm policy. State Farm Fire and Casualty Insurance Company v. Carol Holmes. State Farm v. Holmes, C/A No. 6:14-4050-TMC (D.S.C. January 20, 2016). (The Order is attached and incorporated by reference as Exhibit A.) In Holmes, the defendant had been involved in a wreck while driving a rental car; she was driving the rental car because her car was undergoing repair. Id. At the time, she had two insured vehicles with State Farm. Id. During mediation, it was agreed that State Farm would pay the limits of one of the two policies, but not the other. Id. Accordingly, State Farm brought a declaratory judgment action arguing that Holmes should not be entitled to stack her policies because she was driving a rental vehicle when the wreck occurred. Id. However, in Holmes' insurance policy, a temporary substitute car was defined as:

A car not owned or leased by or leased to you or your spouse, if it replaces your car for a short time. Its use has to be with the consent of the owner. Your car has to be out of use due to its breakdown, repair, servicing, damage or loss. A temporary substitute car is not considered a non-owned car. Id.

This clear and unambiguous definition coupled with the undisputed fact that Holmes was driving the rental car while her car was being repaired led the court to find that Holmes was entitled to stack her UIM policies under the terms of the agreement, and subsequently granted her motion for summary judgment.

The circumstances present in Holmes are essentially identical to the ones found in Ms. Windham's case. Just like the defendant in Holmes, it is undisputed that Myra Windham was driving a rental car as a substitute because her vehicle was rendered completely inoperable from the wreck on September 29, 2012. (Stip. of Facts ¶ 3). Furthermore, the agreement between Ms. Windham and State Farm, much like the agreement in Holmes, includes a "temporary substitute" clause extending coverage to a non-owned vehicle in the lawful possession of the insured. For the aforementioned reasons, Ms. Windham should be entitled to stack her UIM coverage just like the defendant in Holmes.

State Farm wrote the policy and included the language:

If a car qualifies as both a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car, then it is considered a temporary substitute car only.

(State Farm Policy Booklet, Pg. 5).

State Farm cannot include this language in the policy try to get stacking precluded pursuant to the definition of Non-owned car. State Farm agrees that Ms. Windham was driving a temporary substitute vehicle. Any ambiguity must be construed against the insurer who drafted the policy. The UIM and UM statutes are remedial in nature and enacted for the benefit of injured persons and should be construed liberally to effect the purpose intended by the Legislature. Id.

citing Floyd v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., 367 S.C. 253, 260, 626 S.E.2d 6, 10 (2005) (Emphasis Added).

II. NO VALID POLICY PROVISIONS OR STATUTE(S) EXIST FOR LIMITING THE DEFENDANTS' ABILITY TO STACK UIM POLICIES.

Stacking of uninsured and underinsured coverages, which are both statutorily required coverages, is governed specifically by statute. See S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160. Our courts have held an insured is entitled to stack underinsured or uninsured in an amount no greater than the amount of coverage on the vehicle involved in the accident. S.C. Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mooneyham, 304 S.C. 442, 405 S.E.2d 396 (1991). To this extent, stacking cannot be contractually prohibited. Ruppe v. Auto-Owners Ins. Co., 329 S.C. 402, 496 S.E.2d 631 (1998) citing Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co. v. Howard, 288 S.C. 5, 339 S.E.2d 501 (1985). Generally, stacking of additional coverage for which the insured has contracted is permitted unless limited by statute or a valid policy provision. Jackson v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co., 288 S.C. 335, 342 S.E.2d 603 (1986). As a general proposition, UIM coverage follows the individual insured rather than the vehicle insured, that is, UIM coverage, like UM is 'personal and portable.' Thus a Class I insured may pursue stacking whether or not he was injured in his vehicle. Carter v. Std. Fire Ins. Co., 406 S.C. 609, 753 S.E.2d 515 (2013). The UIM and UM statutes are remedial in nature and enacted for the benefit of injured persons and should be construed liberally to effect the purpose intended by the Legislature. Id. citing Floyd v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., 367 S.C. 253, 260, 626 S.E.2d 6, 10 (2005) (Emphasis Added).

State Farm is not able to present any valid reason why the Defendant should not be allowed to stack UIM policies. Their Complaint indicates that because none of the Windhams' vehicles were involved in the accident, the Defendant is not allowed to stack. (See Complaint, ¶ 23). As discussed above, that the rental vehicle was a temporary substitute car and, as such, should be treated no differently than any of the Windhams' insured vehicles. If this Court finds that the rental vehicle used by the Defendant at the time of the wreck qualifies as a temporary substitute vehicle, and thus an "owned car," then State Farm is unable to point to any policy provision limiting the Defendant's right to stack.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, the Court should grant the Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment as to her counterclaim for and issue its order declaring that that Defendant Windham is entitled to stack UIM coverage under the five State Farm policies issued to her.

TO: THE HONORABLE G. THOMAS COOPER, JR., PRESIDING JUDGE and JOHNSTON COX, ESQUIRE, ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Defendant will move before the Honorable G. Thomas Cooper, Jr. presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas on the tenth (10th) day after service hereof, or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, for an Order granting relief from the Order issued on August 1, 2016, pursuant to Rule 60 and Rule 59, SCRPC. This Order was received by the Defendant on August 26, 2016.

The basis for the Motion is as follows:

a) The Court's findings and conclusion that Ms. Windham is prevented from qualifying as a Class I insured under Section 38-77-160 because she did not own a vehicle involved in the accident is erroneous and against established South Carolina law. It has been established by Carter v. Standard Fire Insurance Company that as a general proposition UIM coverage is understood to follow the individual rather than stay with the vehicle insured; thus, an insured may pursue stacking whether or not he was injured in his own vehicle. See Carter v. Std. Fire Ins. Co., 406 S.C. 609, 617, 735 S.E.2d 515, 519 (2013); See also Burgess v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., 373 S.C. 37, 644 S.E.2d 40 (2007).

b) The Court's finding and conclusion that Ms. Windham is prevented from stacking UIM coverage because she was driving a temporary substitute car at the time of the accident is erroneous and against the probative evidence in the record. The relevant provisions of State Farm's insurance agreement, Plaintiff's Exhibit A, state that for the purposes of liability coverage a "temporary substitute vehicle" is to be distinguished from a "non-owned vehicle", while such distinction does not expressly categorize a "temporary substitute vehicle" as an "owned vehicle", the present ambiguity creates an implication that a "temporary substitute vehicle" for the purposes of liability coverage in general, including UIM coverage, should be seen as analogous to an "owned vehicle"; a fact reinforced by State Farm's definition of a "temporary substitute vehicle," which states that such a vehicle replaces your vehicle while your vehicle is out of use. (Emphasis Added).

c) The Court's failure to find and conclude that Ms. Windham is entitled to stack UIM coverage pursuant to the Doctrine of Reasonable Expectations is erroneous and against the probative evidence in the record is and an error of law.

Myra Windham hereby moves for the Court to reconsider its findings and conclusions and amend its Order. Defendant respectfully requests that the Court amend its Order to find that Myra Windham's operation of a temporary substitute vehicle at the time of her accident entitles her to stack her UIM coverage and that her Motion for summary judgment should be granted and that the Plaintiff's Motion for summary judgment should be denied.

Pursuant to Rule 11, SCRCP, Defendant's counsel asserts that consulting opposing counsel would serve no useful purpose.

1 THE COURT: State Farm verses Windham.

2 MR. COOK: I'll hand up my briefs.

3 MR. COX: I have one as well, Judge.

4 MR. COOK: This is actually also a motion, the schedule
5 cross motions.

6 THE COURT: I see. Well, since State Farm is listed as 7 the first party, I'll just defer to Mr. Cox at this point.

8 MR. COX: Thank Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Tell me what this is about?

10 MR. COX: Your Honor, this is -- this is going to be 11 more exciting -- we are here -- this is a declaratory
12 judgment action, Your Honor. As Steve said we have cross or 13 competing motions for summary judgment. We have stipulated
14 to some facts which I have handed up, as part of my packet,
15 to you, and so we believe, both of us, there really are no
16 issues of fact. This is purely an issue of law for the 17 Court to decide and that's why we're here today.

18 This is a UIM stacking case and the question that is 19 being presented to is whether Ms. Windham, who was a State
20 Farm insured is entitled either under South Carolina law or 21 under State Farm's policy to stack UIM coverages when she is 22 driving a vehicle that she does not own. And you may be 23 thinking to yourself, well, that's been settled quite some 24 time and you'd be right. Our Courts have held for years in 25 order for an insurer to stack UIM coverage that it has to be

1 driving a vehicle that they have or own and that is the
2 Rhoden case, 728 S.E. 2d 477. It's all to do with, you know,
3 the class one, class two insured. Class one insured has to 4 be an insured who has a vehicle or owns a vehicle involved
5 in an accident. Class two insured is quote "None of his 6 vehicles are involved in the accident." That's State Farm
7 verses James, 522 S.E. 2d 445. Which the Courts decided in 8 our favor. We think that the issue is very clear and falls
9 within these -- within these well settled cases in law in 10 South Carolina. It's undisputed in this case that Ms.
11 Windham was driving a vehicle that she did not own and is 12 not listed on any of her policies at the time of the 13 accident and therefore she is not permitted to stack either
14 under 38-77-160 or under State Farm's policy. So let me --
15 let me just kind of give you the basic facts of this so we 16 can understand where they're coming from on their argument.
17 Ms. Windham was involved in an automobile accident September
18 29, 2012. And as a result of that accident the liability
19 carrier put her into a rental car. Five days or six days
20 later she's driving a rental car and she gets into another
21 accident with Ms. McCardle (sp). And we are talking here
22 today about UIM that would be applicable to the McCardle
23 accident while Ms. Windham was driving a rental car. There
24 are five cars in the Windham household. I'm not sure why
25 she rented a car as to opposed to driving one of the other

1 five, but it doesn't really matter she was in a rental car
2 at the time. So State Farm issued five UIM policies each
3 with limits of $100,000. As a result of the McCardle
4 accident the liability carrier paid $100,000 in liability
5 money for the McCardle accident. The one --

6 THE COURT: When was the McCardle accident?

7 MR. COX: Well, it happened on October 5, 2012.

8 THE COURT: What happened on the first accident?

9 MR. COX: She received liability and a bunch of UIM for 10 that one, too.

11 THE COURT: What do you mean?

12 MR. COX: Well, she was in this first automobile
13 accident. The at fault carrier was All State. So All State
14 ended up paying her, I think it was $100,000. $100,00 for 15 that accident and then she also received UIM from State Farm
16 for that accident and I can't remember --

17 THE COURT: She was driving her car?

18 MR. COX: She was driving her car at the time. That's 19 right. So she was actually able to stack policies for the 20 first accident. And she got most of them, didn't she?

21 MR. COOK: Your Honor, it -- I believe she got three 22 hundred to four hundred -- somewhere in that range.

23 MR. COX: I think that's probably right. So the first
24 accident she was driving her own vehicle. She did receive 25 liability and she also stacked some UIM. I'm sorry, I

1 should know that, I just don't remember the amount.

2 THE COURT: It doesn't matter.

3 MR. COX: So then the second accident comes along, she's 4 driving a rental car on October 5, 2012. And the GEICO was 5 the liability carrier on that. They paid her $100,000, as 6 well, for that accident. And State Farm also has paid her
7 one level of UIM of $100,000 for the second accident.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. COX: Went to mediation to try and get the thing
10 settled. But to get into the procedural history of 11 everything else --

12 THE COURT: You answered the question.

13 MR. COX: Okay. Got it. So this is where the dispute
14 comes in. They say that she should be able to stack because 15 she's driving a rental car which under the policy meets the 16 definition of a temporary substitute car, okay. And we say 17 that it does -- that they are not able to stack because 18 there is an anti-stacking provision in the UIM policy that 19 says you can only stack UIM if you're driving a vehicle that 20 meets the definition of one that owned by -- and that is a
21 defined term in the policy, the insured. So what I've given
22 you, Judge, is I've given you a big old copy of the policy,
23 but if you go to the first yellow tab there I have put in 24 there for you just the three or four specific policy
25 provisions that we are talking about, okay, because this can

1 be, you know, if you're not looking at it it can be kind of
2 hard to listen to all this and get it.

3 Okay. So what I've given you, if you've got it. It
4 says policy provisions at issue. It should be one or two
5 pages. The first yellow tab?

6 THE COURT: I have it.

7 MR. COX: Okay. Good. All right. So the first one 8 we're talking about, Judge, is the only provision in the 9 policy dealing with stacking of UIM and it's found on Page 10 27 of the policy and it is the anti-stacking provision and 11 it says very clearly if you or any resident relative
12 sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying a
13 motor vehicle not owned by you, is also a defined term, you
14 or any resident relative. And you can skip down. And under 15 insured motor vehicle insured coverage -- in one or more
16 other vehicle policies issued to you or any resident
17 relative by State Farm Company apply to the same bodily
18 injury or property damage. Maximum amount that may be paid
19 from all such policies combined is the single highest limit
20 provided by any one of the policies. Okay. So just boiling
21 that down what that says is if you are occupying a vehicle
22 which meets the definition of owned by, and when you read
23 the policy, Judge, these bold items are the defined terms,
24 so if you are operating a vehicle that is owned by you or a
25 resident relative you can stack. If you are not driving a

1 vehicle that meets the definition of owned by, then you
2 cannot stack. You are only entitled to one level of 3 coverage, which is consistent with South Carolina law.
4 Okay. 38-77-160, and the court cases after that say you
5 have -- you own the car you can stack, if you don't you
6 can't. Okay. So you go to the term "owned by" in the 7 policy to see what vehicles are encompassed within that 8 definition. So you have "owned by" means owned by,
9 registered to or leased, if the lease is written for a
10 period of one or more consecutive days.

11 Now, in this situation, Ms. Windham, and so we've 12 stipulated some facts, it is stipulated in this case that 13 none of her cars were involved in the accident. It is also
14 stipulated that the rental car does not meet the definition
15 of "owned by", which -- I mean, it doesn't. So those are 16 just the facts. It doesn't meet those definitions. And so 17 it is State Farm's position that that is dispositive of the 18 issue before the Court because the provision as written is 19 consistent in South Carolina law and the vehicle that she
20 was driving, she didn't own it, and there's no -- Enterprise
21 Rental Car owned it and it does not meet the definition of 22 "owned by" in the policy.

23 Seems to be a very simple argument. We have a very good
24 lawyer in here, Mr. Cook, who has come up with an argument
25 against it, which we do not believe makes any sense, really,

1 or that carries the day. So what they're arguing -- they
2 want to ignore the only provision in the policy that deals
3 with stacking and when you can stack, which is found in the 4 Underinsured Motorist coverage policy. That they want to 5 shift the Court's focus to two other definitions and that is 6 the definition in the policy of a non-owned car and a
7 definition of a temporary substitute car, and I've got that 8 definition for you too, Judge. Those two definitions for 9 you in this handout that will make it easier for you.

10 All right. So temporary substitute cars is pretty, you
11 know, it's a car that's in lawful possession but it replaces
12 your car, being a defined term, the car that's in the policy
13 for a short time while your car is out of use due to break
14 down, repair, blah, blah, blah. That neither you nor the 15 person operating it own or have registered. And this is the 16 -- this is the part that they really focused on and it says, 17 if a car qualifies as both a non-owned car, as defined in 18 the policy, and a temporary substitute car, as defined in 19 the policy, then it is considered a temporary substitute car
20 only.

21 Those are very specific defined terms in the policy.
22 In a non-owned car you can get an idea that there two but 23 it's basically it is a car that is neither owned by you or 24 resident relative or any other person who resides in the 25 household and other issues.

1 We have stipulated on our side that this car would
2 constitute a temporary substitute car as defined in the 3 policy. It's just our position it doesn't make any 4 difference, you know, whether it meets the definition of a 5 temporary substitute car or not. So their argument is that 6 because this car, as a temporary substitute car, can't be 7 under the policy considered a non-owned car as defined in 8 the policy then it magically is transformed into a car that 9 the insured owns in general, okay. Which is an argument --
10 I mean there's just really no way to interpret the policy
11 without absolutely torturing it to reach that conclusion and 12 the reason being is that their argument fails with the very 13 definition of a temporary substitute car. In order for it
14 to be considered a temporary substitute car you cannot own
15 it. The insured can't own it. If the insured owns it then 16 it's not a temporary substitute car as defined by the 17 policy. So there are -- the argument that just because it
18 doesn't meet the definition of a non-owned car does not 19 automatically transport to a car the insured owns. They 20 can't own it and it be considered a temporary substitute
21 car. There is, in this policy, a very specific defined term
22 of "owned by". And this car, they have stipulated, does not 23 fall within that definition.

24 The temporary substitute car definition is mentioned
25 nowhere in the anti-stacking provision. The only term,

1 identified term in there is owned by. So if you're in a car
2 that is owned by you that is defined by the policy then you
3 can stack. If State Farm had intended that its insureds
4 can stack temporary -- can stack coverage while they driving
5 a temporary substitute car they would have included that in 6 the definition of "owned by", but they didn't very clearly.
7 And so there really is no way that you can, under the terms
8 of this policy, shove temporary substitute car within the 9 definition of "owned by". And especially since they 10 stipulated that it does not meet that definition.

11 Now, they are going to -- Steve is going to get up and 12 lay around this Holmes case, which is a recent district
13 court decision that State Farm had up in Greenville, and in 14 that case this issue of whether or not you can stack under 15 -- actually the State Farm policy at issue in that case was 16 heard for a rental car. Same, temporary substitute car.
17 And the judge, the district court judge ruled against State
18 Farm in that case. And they are relying heavily on that 19 decision.

20 I would just like to point out -- I know he's going to 21 talk about it, but before he gets up and talks about it. As 22 you know, Judge, that decision has no precedential value to 23 you because it's not a state court case so it's not binding
24 on you. The second thing is is that the policy that was at 25 issue in that case is completely different than the policy

1 that we have in this case. I did hand up to you, in case
2 you wanted to look at it, the answer that was filed by the
3 insured in that case which attached a copy of the policy
4 that was at issue in that case.

5 In that case there was no -- because it looks like a
6 really old -- to me -- I don't know -- but there is no
7 defined term of "owned by" number on, in that policy. And 8 -- and there is no discussion in that case at all about any 9 anti-stacking provision within the policy at all. And 10 didn't consider any of the arguments, that order did not
11 consider any of the arguments that I'm making today.
12 Especially, you know, I just don't understand how a 13 temporary substitute car is defined as a car that the 14 insured does not own, but somehow not be included in a very 15 specific non -- definition of a non-owned car turns it into 16 a car that the insured owns. I -- with all due respect to 17 the judge I just think he got the wrong -- and it has no
18 precedential value to you, but it is different, our case is 19 different in that we have a very different anti-stacking
20 provision which very clearly and unambiguously lays out when 21 you can stack and when can't and what type of vehicle you
22 need to be driving in order to be able to stack. There's no
23 -- did not have in that case.

24 So for that reason, Judge, we have a clear and 25 unambiguous policy provision that only allows stacking when

1 and insured is driving a vehicle that meets the definition
2 of owned by. It is stipulated that the rental car is not
3 owned by her and does not meet the definition of "owned by"
4 in the policy and it's also stipulated that none of their
5 cars were involved in the accident. So either under South
6 Carolina law they're not entitled to stack under the clear
7 cases that we have and State Farm's policy is not providing
8 any broad coverage that -- than is stated in South Carolina
9 law. So for that reason we ask for summary judgment on this 10 issue.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Cook.

12 MR. COOK: Thank Your Honor. Steve Cook on behalf of 13 the defendant.

14 Just to refresh a little bit we had a wreck on 15 September 29. She's in a rental car. Six days later she's 16 involved in a second wreck.

17 THE COURT: The first wreck she was in her own car?

18 MR. COOK: Yes, sir, she was in her own car and then
19 she's in a wreck.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. COOK: And so she is in a rental car at the time of 22 the second wreck six days later.

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. COOK: And they stipulate that she was driving a 25 temporary substitute car as defined in the policy. Our

1 position is she would be a Class I insured because the
2 temporary substitute vehicle by its clear and unambiguous --
3 she steps into replacing what you were driving. That's what 4 a temporary substitute vehicle was and that's exactly what
5 Judge Cain said in the order that was issued in January up
6 in the Greenville District of US Federal Court. State Farm
7 says since it's not an owned car it can't be stacked, but 8 the policy provides a provision that if the car qualifies as 9 a non-owned car and a temporary substitute car then it's 10 considered a temporary substitute car. So they not -- it's 11 our position they take that location and at a minimum create
12 an ambiguity in the policy that would have to be construed
13 against State Farm who drafted the policy. And I've 14 attached Judge Cain's order as Exhibit A to our memorandum,
15 Your Honor, and that case, which is almost identical facts
16 as this, a person driving a rental car and a passenger. He 17 has the same analysis as we're arguing today, that she was a
18 Class I insured because she's driving a temporary
19 replacement vehicle and that she would be entitled to stack
20 her policies. Again, the -- we put the language in our 21 memo, Your Honor, from that policy, from the policy in 22 Greenville, which I also says -- and Cain's, Judge Cain's
23 case that a temporary substitute car is not considered a 24 non-owned car.

25 So it's our position that actually that the clear and

1 unambiguous definition of temporary substitute vehicle puts
2 it into a Class I status. But when you get to the situation
3 where they're claiming, it does meet the definition of owned
4 since the policy itself says if it's an associated vehicle
5 it does not meet the definition of non-owned. It worse for 6 us created an ambiguity in the policy and any ambiguity in 7 the policy has to be construed in favor of us.

8 I'll remind the Court, and I know the Court's very 9 familiar with stacking and otherwise, but UIM and UM
10 statutes are remedial in nature and enacted for the benefit
11 of injured persons and should be construed liberally to 12 affect the purpose intended by the legislature. That's 13 Foley (sp) verses Nationwide.

14 It's interesting that they went -- where insurance
15 companies love to be, lost this case, filed a motion for 16 reconsideration which was denied and then they did not 17 appeal that case. That became the law of the cases as to 18 State Farm and it is at least persuasive on Your Honor if 19 not binding, it is persuasive, that case.

20 The foremost rule when interpreting insurance contracts
21 give effect to the attendant parties as shown by the 22 language in the contract itself. In this situation the 23 plain ordinary popular meaning which is what Wray (sp)
24 verses State Farm says is the following, the substitute
25 vehicle is replaced what she had. It is in effect of the

1 car she had. It was a Class I vehicle and she was driving
2 it. Again, it meets the definitions. The policy
3 specifically say it's a temporary substitute car. And again
4 the UIM statutes are remedial in nature to the effect and 5 benefit of an active person. Person should be construed
6 literally for the purpose intended.

7 One of the doctrine which we haven't found on this is 8 if there's an ambiguity in the policy that under the 9 doctrine of reasonable expectations the insured's entitled
10 to expect that they're going to be covered for this.

11 Again, I don't think there's a whole lot more I can or 12 should say. Judge Cain's order uses the exact rational
13 we're using here. It was a temporary substitute vehicle
14 which they set up in the policy. They set up that 15 definition. It became a Class I insured because it was 16 replacing her car while it was being repaired. Secondly,
17 they specifically say if it was temporary substitute it does 18 not meet the definition of non-owned vehicle. That at 19 minimum in their favor creates an ambiguity in the policy
20 and as the drafter of the policy ambiguity must be 21 completely construed against State Farm and we would ask
22 that the Court follow the logic of Judge Cain in the case.
23 We've attached the Holmes case and determine that she is 24 entitled to stack the other four policies on the car.

25 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, anything further?

1 MR. COX: Yes, Your Honor. Just real briefly. We are
2 not dealing here with the plain and ordinary meaning of
3 terms. We are dealing with very specific defined terms
4 within this insurance policy. We have a very clear
5 provision and a very clearly defined definition of owned by 6 which does not follow the clear and ordinary meaning of 7 owned by. I mean, if you look at that owned by includes the 8 party lease. You don't really own it, you're leasing it.
9 So we're not dealing with the plain and ordinary meaning.
10 We're dealing with the specific definitions involved in this
11 policy and if you look at the policy there is no ambiguity
12 in this policy. It is crystal clear that you can only stack
13 if the car meets the definition of "owned by". There is no
14 ambiguity in that. A temporary substitute vehicle is not 15 within that definition. She can't stack.

16 You should not follow the logic of Judge Cain in this 17 case for the reasons I've already said. The policy in that 18 case was completely different from the policy in this case,
19 number one. Number two, I honestly have a hard time
20 following the logic and it's not a persuasive, it's not a 21 case that is binding upon the -- these definitions of a non-22 owned car and a temporary car, they are both categories of 23 cars that the insured does not own. They're just -- have a 24 different definition because throughout the policy if you're 25 driving one or the other different people get different

1 types of coverage when you're driving one or two of those
2 vehicles. It has nothing to do with whether or not you can
3 stack UIM coverage. If it did it would have been defined,
4 you would see it in the UIM policy. It doesn't. So for that 5 reason, Judge, we ask that you uphold the clear language of 6 the policy. What Steve is asking you to do is to expand the 7 law. He's asking you to expand the law to say, well, you
8 don't really have to own it to stack, you can be renting it,
9 which is not the law in South Carolina. I imagine the 10 Supreme Court is going to have to, you know, change that or 11 the legislature if that's what they want, but that's not for 12 you to do.

13 Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 MR. COOK: If I can briefly respond. The definition of 16 temporary substitute vehicle is there specifically subject
17 insured can be covered when they end the temporary coverage.
18 They don't have to go out and buy other coverage when they 19 specifically in their words say that if you're temporary
20 substitute you're not a non-owned. They -- and if anything
21 they create an ambiguity and that gets construed against 22 them. They can say the exact word, exact words, but they 23 put the terms in the policy and she gets the benefit of any 24 ambiguity.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 MR. COX: If I could just clarify that real quickly. If
2 Ms. Windham gets into a non-owned car with permission just
3 like a temporary substitute car she's going to be covered
4 then, too. It doesn't make any difference to her. It might
5 make a difference to other people who are, you know, riding
6 with her or -- you know, she can't give permission to 7 somebody else to drive her car, you know, a non-owned car,
8 but as far as -- it doesn't have anything to do with UIM
9 coverage.

10 THE COURT: All right. I'll take proposed orders within 11 ten days.

12 MR. COX: Thanks, Your Honor.

13 MR. COOK: Thank you, Your Honor.

 - (a) The cost agreed to by both the owner of the covered vehicle and us;
 - (b) A bid or repair estimate approved by us; or
 - (c) A repair estimate that is written based upon or adjusted to:

- (ii) the lower of painless dent repair pricing established by an agreement we have with a third party or the painless dent repair price that is competitive in the market; or
- (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii) above.

The prevailing competitive price means prices charged by a majority of the repair market in the area where the covered vehicle is to be repaired as determined by a survey made by us. If asked, we will identify some facilities that will perform the repairs at the prevailing competitive price. The estimate will include parts sufficient to restore the covered vehicle to its pre-loss condition.

You agree with us that the repair estimate may include new, used, recycled, and reconditioned parts. Any of these parts may be either original equipment manufacturer parts or non-original equipment manufacturer parts.

You also agree that replacement glass need not have any insignia, logo, trademark, etching, or other marking that was on the replaced glass.

- (2) The cost to repair the covered vehicle does not include any reduction in the value of the covered vehicle after it has been repaired, as compared to its value before it was damaged.
- (3) If the repair or replacement of a part results in betterment of that part, then you or the owner of the covered vehicle must pay for the amount of the betterment;

- b. Pay the actual cash value of the covered vehicle minus any applicable deductible.

- (1) The owner of the covered vehicle and we must agree upon the actual cash value of the covered vehicle. If there is disagreement as to the actual cash value of the covered vehicle, then the disagreement will be resolved by appraisal upon written request of the owner or us, using the following procedures:

- (a) The owner and we will each select a competent appraiser.
- (b) The two appraisers will select a third competent appraiser. If they are unable to agree on a third appraiser within 30 days, then either the owner or we may petition a court that has jurisdiction to select the third appraiser.
- (c) Each party will pay the cost of its own appraiser, attorneys, and expert witnesses, as well as any other expenses incurred by that party. Both parties will share equally the cost of the third appraiser.
- (d) The appraisers shall only determine the actual cash value of the covered vehicle. Appraisers shall have no authority to decide any other questions of fact, decide any questions of law, or conduct appraisal on a class-wide or class-representative basis.
- (e) A written appraisal that is both agreed upon by and signed by any two appraisers, and that also contains an explanation of how they arrived at their appraisal, will be binding on the owner of the covered vehicle and us.

(f) We do not waive any of our rights by submitting to an appraisal.

(2) The damaged covered vehicle must be given to us in exchange for our payment, unless we agree that the owner may keep it. If the owner keeps the covered vehicle, then our payment will be reduced by the value of the covered vehicle after the loss; or

c. Return the stolen covered vehicle to its owner and pay, as described in I.a. above, for any direct, sudden, and accidental damage that resulted from the theft.

2. The most we will pay for transportation expenses under Comprehensive Coverage is $25 per day subject to an aggregate limit of $750 per loss.

Coverage for the Use of Other Cars

The liability coverage extends to the use, by an insured, of a newly acquired car, a temporary substitute car or a non-owned car.

Who Is an Insured

When we refer to your car, a newly acquired car or a temporary substitute car, insured means:

1. you;
2. your spouse;
3. the relatives of the first person named in the declarations;
4. any other person while using such a car if its use is within the scope of consent of you or your spouse; and

5. any other person or organization liable for the use of such a car by one of the above insureds.

When we refer to a non-owned car, insured means:

1. the first person named in the declarations;
2. his or her spouse;
3. their relatives; and
4. any person or organization which does not own or hire the car but is liable for its use by one of the above persons.

THERE IS NO COVERAGE FOR NON-OWNED CARS:

1. IF THE DECLARATIONS STATE THE "USE" OF YOUR CAR IS OTHER THAN "PLEASURE AND BUSINESS"; OR
2. WHILE:
 - a. BEING REPAIRED, SERVICED OR USED BY ANY PERSON WHILE THAT PERSON IS WORKING IN ANY CAR BUSINESS; OR
 - b. USED IN ANY OTHER BUSINESS OR OCCUPATION. This does not apply to a private passenger car driven or occupied by the first person named in the declarations, his or her spouse or their relatives.

Trailer Coverage

1. Trailers designed to be pulled by a private passenger car or a utility vehicle, except those trailers in 2.a. below, are covered while owned or used by an insured.

Farm implements and farm wagons are considered trailers while pulled on public roads by a car we insure for liability.

These trailers are not described in the declarations, and no extra premium is charged.

2. The following trailers are covered only if described on the declarations page and extra premium is paid:

- a. those trailers designed to be pulled by a private passenger car or a utility vehicle:

- (1) if designed to carry persons; or
- (2) while used with a motor vehicle whose use is shown as "commercial" on the declarations page (trailers used only for pleasure use are covered even if not described and no extra premium paid); or
- (3) while used as premises for office, store or display purposes; or

- b. any trailer not designed for use with a private passenger car or a utility vehicle.

THERE IS NO COVERAGE WHEN A TRAILER IS USED WITH A MOTOR VEHICLE OWNED OR HIRED BY YOU WHICH WE DO NOT INSURE FOR LIABILITY COVERAGE.

Limits of Liability

The amount of bodily injury liability coverage is shown on the declarations page under "Limits of Liability - Coverage A - Bodily Injury, Each Person, Each Accident". Under "Each Person" is the amount of coverage for all damages due to bodily injury to one person. "Bodily injury to one person" includes all injury and damages to others resulting from this bodily injury. Under "Each Accident" is the total amount of coverage, subject to the amount shown under "Each Person", for all damages due to bodily injury to two or more persons in the same accident.

The amount of property damage liability coverage is shown on the declarations page under "Limits of Liability - Coverage A - Property Damage, Each Accident".

We will pay damages for which an insured is legally liable up to these amounts.

The limits of liability are not increased because more than one person or organization may be an insured.

A motor vehicle and attached trailer are one vehicle. Therefore, the limits are not increased.

The liability coverage shall be excess over and shall not pay again any expenses paid under the personal injury protection or medical payments coverages.

When Coverage A Does Not Apply

In addition to the limitations of coverage in Who Is an Insured and Trailer Coverage:

THERE IS NO COVERAGE:

1. WHILE ANY VEHICLE INSURED UNDER THIS SECTION IS:

a. RENTED OR LEASED TO OTHERS.

b. USED TO CARRY PERSONS FOR A CHARGE. This does not apply to the use on a share expense basis of:

(1) a private passenger car; or

(2) a utility vehicle, if all passengers are riding in that area of the vehicle designed by the manufacturer of the vehicle for carrying passengers.

c. BEING REPAIRED, SERVICED OR USED BY ANY PERSON EMPLOYED OR ENGAGED IN ANY WAY IN A CAR BUSINESS TO THE EXTENT THE LIMITS OF LIABILITY OF THIS POLICY EXCEED THE LIMITS OF LIABILITY REQUIRED BY LAW. This does not apply to:

(1) you or your spouse;

(2) any relative;

(3) any resident of your household; or

(4) any agent, employee or partner of you, your spouse, any relative or such resident.

This coverage is excess for (3) and (4) above.

2. FOR ANY BODILY INJURY TO:

a. A FELLOW EMPLOYEE WHILE ON THE JOB AND ARISING FROM THE MAINTENANCE OR USE OF A VEHICLE BY ANOTHER EMPLOYEE IN THE EMPLOYER'S BUSINESS. You and your spouse are covered for such injury to a fellow employee.

b. ANY EMPLOYEE OF AN INSURED ARISING OUT OF HIS OR HER EMPLOYMENT. This does not apply to a household employee who is not covered or required to be covered under any workers' compensation insurance.

3. FOR:

a. THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA OR ANY OF ITS AGENCIES; OR

b. ANY PERSON WHO IS AN EMPLOYEE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA OR ANY OF ITS AGENCIES, IF THE PROVISIONS OF THE FEDERAL TORT CLAIMS ACT APPLY.

4. FOR ANY DAMAGES TO PROPERTY OWNED BY, RENTED TO, IN THE CHARGE OF OR TRANSPORTED BY AN INSURED. But coverage applies to a rented:

a. residence; or

b. private garage

damaged by a car we insure.

5. FOR ANY OBLIGATION OF AN INSURED, OR HIS OR HER INSURER, UNDER ANY TYPE OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION OR DISABILITY OR SIMILAR LAW.

6. FOR LIABILITY ASSUMED BY THE INSURED UNDER ANY CONTRACT OR AGREEMENT.

If There Is Other Liability Coverage

1. Policies Issued by Us to You, Your Spouse or Any Relative

If two or more vehicle liability policies issued by us to you, your spouse, or any relative apply to the same accident, the total limits of liability under all such policies shall not exceed that of the policy with the highest limit of liability.

2. Other Liability Coverage Available From Other Sources

Subject to item 1, if other vehicle liability coverage applies, we are liable only for our share of the damages. Our share is the per cent that the limit of liability of this policy bears to the total of all vehicle liability coverage applicable to the accident.

3. Temporary Substitute Car, Non-Owned Car, Trailer

Subject to items 1 and 2, if a temporary substitute car, a non-owned car or a trailer designed for use with a private passenger car or utility vehicle:

- a. has other vehicle liability coverage on it; or
- b. is self-insured under any motor vehicle financial responsibility law; a motor carrier law or any similar law, then this coverage is excess over such insurance or self-insurance.

4. Newly Acquired Car

THIS COVERAGE DOES NOT APPLY IF THERE IS OTHER VEHICLE LIABILITY COVERAGE ON A NEWLY ACQUIRED CAR.

Motor Vehicle Compulsory Insurance Law or Financial Responsibility Law

1. Out-of-State Coverage

If an insured under the liability coverage is in another state or Canada and, as a nonresident, becomes subject to its motor vehicle compulsory insurance, financial responsibility or similar law:

- a. the policy will be interpreted to give the coverage required by the law; and
- b. the coverage so given replaces any coverage in this policy to the extent required by the law for the insured's operation, maintenance or use of a car insured under this policy.

Any coverage so extended shall be reduced to the extent other coverage applies to the accident. In no event shall a person collect more than once.

2. Financial Responsibility Law

When certified under any law as proof of future financial responsibility, and while required during the policy period, this policy shall comply with such law to the extent required. The insured agrees to repay us for any payment we would not have had to make under the terms of this policy except for this agreement.

What We Pay

We will pay for bodily injury to an insured, caused by accident, resulting from the maintenance or use of a motor vehicle as a vehicle:

1. Medical Expenses. These are reasonable expenses incurred, for services furnished within three years of the date of the accident, for necessary medical, surgical, X-ray, dental, ambulance, hospital, professional nursing services, eyeglasses, hearing aids and prosthetic devices.

REASONABLE MEDICAL EXPENSES DO NOT INCLUDE EXPENSES:

- a. FOR TREATMENT, SERVICES, PRODUCTS OR PROCEDURES THAT ARE:

- (1) EXPERIMENTAL IN NATURE, FOR RESEARCH, OR NOT PRIMARILY DESIGNED TO SERVE A MEDICAL PURPOSE; OR
- (2) NOT COMMONLY AND CUSTOMARILY RECOGNIZED THROUGHOUT THE MEDICAL PROFESSION AND WITHIN THE

UNITED STATES AS APPROPRIATE FOR THE TREATMENT OF THE BODILY INJURY; OR

- b. INCURRED FOR:

- (1) THE USE OF THERMOGRAPHY OR OTHER RELATED PROCEDURES OF A SIMILAR NATURE; OR
- (2) THE PURCHASE OR RENTAL OF EQUIPMENT NOT PRIMARILY DESIGNED TO SERVE A MEDICAL PURPOSE.

Expenses are reasonable only if they are consistent with the usual fees charged by the majority of similar medical providers in the geographical area in which the expenses were incurred for the specific medical service.

Services are necessary only if the services are rendered by a medical provider within the legally authorized scope of the provider's practice and are essential in achieving maximum medical improvement for the bodily injury sustained in the accident.

We have the right to make or obtain a utilization review of the medical expenses and services to determine if they are reasonable and necessary for the bodily injury sustained.

The bodily injury must be discovered and treated within one year of the date of the accident.

2. Funeral Expenses. These are funeral, burial or cremation expenses. Subject to the Aggregate Limit shown for your coverage symbol in the Schedule in Limits of Liability, the most we pay for Funeral Expenses is $3,000 per person.

If your coverage symbol is P1, P2, P3, P4, P5, P6 or P7, we will also pay for the following for bodily injury to an insured, caused by accident, resulting from the maintenance or use of a motor vehicle as a vehicle:

1. Loss of Income. This is 85% of an insured's actual loss of earnings from work due to bodily injury to the insured. This applies only if the insured was receiving earnings from work at the time of the accident. The loss must be incurred within three years of the date of the accident and while the insured is living.
2. Essential Services Expenses. These are reasonable expenses incurred for needed services the insured would have done for his or her family. This benefit applies only if the insured was not receiving earnings from work at the time of the accident. The expense must be incurred within three years of the date of the accident and while the insured is living.

Deciding Amount

The amount due under this coverage shall be decided by agreement between the insured and us. If there is no agreement, the amount due shall be decided by arbitration upon written request of the insured or us. Each party shall select a competent and impartial arbitrator. These two shall select a third one. If unable to agree on the third one within 30 days, either party may request a judge of a court of record in the county in which the arbitration is pending to select a third one. The written decision of any two arbitrators shall be binding on us, the insured, any assignee of the insured and any person or organization with whom the insured expressly or impliedly contracts for the rendition of medical, essential or funeral services. The arbitrators shall not award punitive damages or other noncompensatory damages.

The cost of the arbitrator and any expert witness shall be paid by the party who hired them. The cost of the third arbitrator and other expenses of arbitration shall be shared equally by both parties.

The arbitration shall take place in the county in which the insured resides unless the parties agree to another place. State court rules governing procedure and admission of evidence shall be used.

If There Is Other Coverage

1. No Duplication of Benefits
No insured shall recover more than once for the same expense or loss under this or similar vehicle insurance or self-insurance.
2. If an insured sustains bodily injury while occupying your car, and your car is described on the declarations page of another policy providing personal injury protection coverage:

- a. the total limits of liability under all such coverages shall not exceed that of the coverage with the highest limit of liability; and
 - b. we are liable only for our share. Our share is that percent of the damages that the limit of liability of this coverage bears to the total of all such personal injury protection coverage applicable to the accident.
3. If an insured sustains bodily injury while occupying a motor vehicle which is not your car or a newly acquired car; and:
- a. such vehicle is described on the declarations page of another policy providing personal injury protection coverage; or
 - b. its driver, other than you, your spouse or any relative, is an insured under another policy,

- a. as excess to any similar coverage that applies to the vehicle or driver as primary coverage; but
 - b. only in the amount by which the limits of this coverage exceed the primary coverage.
- If coverage from more than one policy applies as excess:
- a. the total limit of liability shall not exceed the difference between the limit of liability of the coverage that applies as primary and the highest limit of liability of any one of the coverages that apply as excess; and
 - b. we will pay our share. Our share is that percent of the expense or loss that the excess coverage provided by this policy bears to the total of all applicable limits of liability of all personal injury protection coverages that apply as excess.
4. If an insured sustains bodily injury:
- a. as a pedestrian; or
 - b. while occupying a motor vehicle which is not your car or a newly acquired car; and:
 - (1) such vehicle is not described on the declarations page of another policy providing personal injury protection coverage; and
 - (2) its driver is:
 - (i) you or your spouse; or
 - (ii) any other person who does not have personal injury protection coverage that covers the occupants of such vehicle;
- then:
- a. the total limits of liability under all policies issued by us shall not exceed that of the policy with the highest limit of liability; and
 - b. we will pay our share. Our share is that percent of the expense or loss that the applicable limit of liability of this policy bears to the total applicable limit of liability.
5. Coverage under this policy applies as excess over any benefits recovered under any workers' compensation law.
6. THIS COVERAGE DOES NOT APPLY IF THERE IS OTHER PERSONAL INJURY PROTECTION COVERAGE ON A NEWLY ACQUIRED CAR.
- What Is Not Covered Under Coverage P

- (2) each of the other policies we issued shall apply only in an amount equal to the minimum limits required by the Financial Responsibility Act for bodily injury and property damage liability.

Subject to the above, if policies issued by other insurers apply, we are liable only for our share. Our share is that percent of the damages that the amount of the limit of liability that applies from this policy bears to the total of all such uninsured motor vehicle coverage that applies to the accident.

2. If:

- a. the insured sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying your car; and

- b. your car is described on the declarations page of another policy providing uninsured motor vehicle coverage:

- (1) the total limits of liability under all such coverages shall not exceed that of the coverage with the highest limits of liability; and

4. If you, your spouse or a relative sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying a vehicle not owned by or leased to you, your spouse or any relative, this coverage applies as excess to any uninsured motor vehicle coverage which applies to the vehicle as primary coverage.

- b. each of the other policies we issued shall apply only in an amount equal to the minimum limits required by the Financial Responsibility Act for bodily injury and property damage liability.

Subject to the above, if policies issued by other insurers apply, we are liable only for our share. Our share is that percent of the damages that the amount of the limit of liability that applies from this policy bears to the total of all uninsured motor vehicle coverage that applies as excess to the accident.

3. If you, your spouse or a relative sustains bodily injury or property damage while occupying a motor vehicle owned by or leased to you, your spouse or relative which is not your car or a newly acquired car, this policy shall:

- a. be excess; and

- b. apply only in an amount equal to the minimum limits required by the Financial Responsibility Act for bodily injury and property damage liability.

Subject to the above, if other policies apply as excess, we are liable only for our share. Our share is that percent of the damages in excess of the limits of the primary coverage that the minimum amount required by the Financial Responsibility Act for bodily injury and property damage liability bears to the total of all underinsured motor vehicle coverage that applies as excess to the accident.

Breakage of glass, or loss caused by missiles, falling objects, fire, theft, larceny, explosion, earthquake, windstorm, hail, water, flood, malicious mischief or vandalism, riot or civil commotion, is payable under this coverage. Loss due to hitting or being hit by a bird or an animal is payable under this coverage.

2. We will repay you for transportation costs if your car is stolen. We will pay up to $16 per day for the period that begins 48 hours after you tell us of the theft. The period ends when we offer to pay for loss.

COLLISION - COVERAGE G. You have this coverage if "G" appears in the "Coverages" space on the declarations page. The deductible amount is shown by the number beside "G".

We will pay for loss to your car caused by collision but only for the amount of each such loss in excess of the deductible amount. The deductible amount does not apply to loss to safety glass. If the collision is with another motor vehicle insured with us, you do not pay your deductible if it is $100 or less as we pay it.

Collision - means your car upset or hit or was hit by a vehicle or other object.

Clothes and Luggage - Comprehensive and Collision Coverages

We will pay for loss to clothes and luggage owned by the first person named in the declarations, his or her spouse, and their relatives. These items have to be in or on your car. Your car has to be covered under this policy for:

1. Comprehensive, and the loss caused by fire, lightning, flood, falling objects, explosion, earthquake, or theft. If the loss is due to theft YOUR ENTIRE CAR MUST HAVE BEEN STOLEN; or
2. Collision, and the loss caused by collision.

We will pay up to $200 for loss to clothes and luggage in excess of any deductible amount shown for comprehensive or collision. $200 is the most we will pay in any one occurrence even though more than one person has a loss. This coverage is excess over any other coverage.

Limit of Liability - Comprehensive and Collision Coverages

The limit of our liability for loss to property or any part of it is the lower of:

1. the actual cash value; or
2. the cost of repair or replacement.

Actual cash value is determined by the market value, age and condition at the time the loss occurred. Any deductible amount that applies is then subtracted.

The cost of repair or replacement is based upon one of the following:

1. the cost of repair or replacement agreed upon by you and us;
2. a competitive bid approved by us; or
3. an estimate written based upon the prevailing competitive price. The prevailing competitive price means prices charged by a majority of the repair market in the area where the car is to be repaired as determined by a survey made by us. If you ask, we will identify some facilities that will perform the repairs at the prevailing competitive price. We will include in the estimate parts sufficient to restore the vehicle to its pre-loss condition. You agree with us that such parts may include either parts furnished by the vehicle's manufacturer or parts from other sources including non-original equipment manufacturers.

Any deductible amount that applies is then subtracted.

Settlement of Loss - Comprehensive and Collision Coverages

We have the right to settle a loss with you or the owner of the property in one of the following ways:

1. pay the agreed upon actual cash value of the property at the time of the loss in exchange for the damaged property. If the owner keeps the damaged property, we will deduct its value after the loss from our payment. The damaged property cannot be abandoned to us;
2. pay to:
 - a. repair the damaged property or part, or
 - b. replace the property or part.

If the repair or replacement results in betterment, you must pay for the amount of betterment; or

3. return the stolen property and pay for any damage due to the theft.

If we can pay the loss under either comprehensive or collision, we will pay under the coverage where you collect the most.

When there is loss to your car, clothes and luggage in the same occurrence, any deductible will be applied first to the loss to your car. You pay only one deductible.

If the owner of the property and we cannot agree on the amount due, it shall be decided by an appraisal of the loss upon written request by either party. Each party shall select a competent appraiser. These two shall select a third appraiser. The written decision of any two appraisers shall be binding on each party. The cost of the appraiser shall be paid by the party who hired him or her. The cost of the third appraiser and other appraisal expenses shall be shared equally by both parties. We do not waive any of our rights by any act relating to appraisal. The terms of the provision titled Limit of Liability - Comprehensive and Collision Coverages are not subject to appraisal. If you give us your consent, we may move the damaged property, at our expense, to reduce storage costs during the appraisal process. If you do not give us your consent, we will pay only the storage costs which would have resulted if we had moved the damaged property.

The Settlement of Loss provision for comprehensive and collision coverages incorporates the Limit of Liability provision of those coverages.

FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

C/A No. 6:14-4050-TMC

ORDER

This matter is before the court on cross-motions for summary judgment. Plaintiff State Farm Fire and Casualty Insurance Company ("State Farm") filed a motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 51). Defendants Carol Holmes ("Holmes"), and Danyelle Young ("Young"), individually and also as parent and natural guardian of D.Y. ("D.Y."), a minor under the age of 14 years (collectively referred to herein as "Defendants") filed a response opposing State Farm's motion. (ECF No. 53). Defendants also filed a motion for summary judgment. (ECF No. 52). However, State Farm did not file any response to Defendants' motion, and the time to do so has now run. For the reasons below, the court denies State Farm's summary judgment motion and grants Defendants' summary judgment motion.

I. Background/Procedural History

On April 24, 2010, Defendants Young and D.Y. were passengers in a rental vehicle being driven by the third Defendant, Holmes, which was involved in a car accident. Holmes had two automobile insurance policies with State Farm with each providing $50,000 per person of underinsured motorists ("UIM") coverage and $100,000 per accident. A lawsuit was filed in state court seeking recovery of the UIM benefits under the two policies via stacking.¹ During mediation, the parties reached an agreement that State Farm would pay Defendants the limits of one of the policies and file a declaratory action to determine if Defendants were entitled to coverage under the other policy.² State Farm then filed this action seeking a declaration that the two UIM policies cannot be stacked because Holmes was driving a rental car at the time of the accident.

Exhibit A

6:14-cv-04050-TMC Date Filed 01/07/16 Entry Number 55 Page 2 of 6

II. Applicable Law

Summary judgment is appropriate only "if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(a). In deciding whether a genuine issue of material fact exists, the evidence of the non-moving party is to be believed and all justifiable inferences must be drawn in his favor. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 255 (1986). However, "[o]nly disputes over facts that might affect the outcome of the suit under the governing law will properly preclude the entry of summary judgment. Factual disputes that are irrelevant or unnecessary will not be counted." Id. at 248. A litigant "cannot create a genuine issue of material fact through mere speculation or the building of one inference upon another." Beale v. Hardy, 769 F.2d 213, 214 (4th Cir. 1985).

"Where the record taken as a whole could not lead a rational trier of fact to find for the non-moving party, disposition by summary judgment is appropriate." Monahan v.

¹ Stacking permits an insured to recover damages under more than one policy until the insured satisfies all of his damages or exhausts the limits of all available policies. Giles v. Whitaker, 376 S.E.2d 278 (S.C. 1989).

² Accordingly, State Farm has already paid $75,000 to Holmes, $100,000 to Young, and $25,000 to D.Y. under one of the State Farm policies.

III. Discussion

In South Carolina, stacking of insurance coverage is permitted unless limited by statute or a valid policy provision. Jackson v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co., 342 S.E.2d 603 (S.C. 1986). Section 38-77-160 provides, in pertinent part:

If . . . an insured or named insured is protected by uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage in excess of the basic limits, the policy shall provide that the insured or named insured is protected only to the extent of the coverage he has on the vehicle involved in the accident. If none of the insured's or named insured's vehicles is involved in the accident, coverage is available only to the extent of coverage on any one of the vehicles with the excess or underinsured coverage.

S.C. Code Ann. § 38-77-160. There are two classes of insureds under § 38-77-160. South Carolina Farm Bureau Mut. Ins. Co. v. Mooneyham, 405 S.E.2d 396, 397 n.1 (S.C. 1991). Class I applies when an insured or named insured has a vehicle involved in the accident. Id. Class II applies to an insured whose vehicle was not involved in the accident. Id. A Class II insured is an insured whose vehicle was not involved in the accident and is not entitled to stack. Id. To stack under § 38-77-160, the insured or named insured must be a Class I insured. Ohio Casualty Ins. Co. v. Hill, 473 S.E.2d 843 (S.C. Ct.App.1996).

¹ State Farm's failure to file a response does not relieve Defendants from the burden imposed upon the moving party. See Custer v. Pan Am. Life Ins. Co., 12 F.3d 410 (4th Cir.

There are two applicable policy provisions. The policy defines a "Temporary Substitute

Car" as a car not owned or leased by or leased to you or your spouse, if it replaces your car for a short time. Its use has to be with the consent of the owner. Your car has to be out of use due to its breakdown, repair, servicing, damage, or loss. A temporary substitute car is not considered a non-owned car.

(ECF No. 52- 3 at 4).

1993)(holding that while "the failure to respond to a summary judgment motion may leave uncontroverted those facts established by the motion, the moving party must still show the uncontroverted facts entitle the party to 'a judgment as a matter of law.'" (quoting Fed.R.Civ.P. 56(c)).

The policy also provides that a "Non-Owned Car" means a car not owned by, registered to or leased to:

1. you, your spouse;

2. any relative unless at the time of the accident or loss:

a. the car currently is or has within the last 30 days been insured for liability coverage; and

b. the driver is an insured who does not own or lease the car;

3. any other person residing in the same household as you, your spouse or any relative; or

4. an employer of you, your spouse or any relative.

Non-owned car does not include a:

1. rented car while it is used in connection with the insured's employment or business; or
2. car which has been operated or rented by or in the possession of an insured during any part of each of the last 21 or more consecutive days. If the insured is an insured under one or more other car policies issued by us, the 21 day limit is increased by an additional 21 days for each such additional policy.

(ECF No. 52-3 at 4).

The foremost rule in interpreting an insurance contract is to give effect to the intent of the parties as shown by the language of the contract itself." Dorman v. Allstate Ins. Co., 504 S.E.2d 127, 129 (S.C.App.1998). "When the contract language is clear and unambiguous, the language alone determines the contract's force, and terms must be construed to give effect to their 'plain, ordinary, and popular meaning.' " Id. (citing Gray v. State Farm Auto Ins. Co., 491 S.E.2d 272 (S.C.App. 1997)).

The pivotal issue in this case is whether the vehicle involved in this accident, a rental car, is a non-owned car under the policy so as to allow for stacking. Holmes was driving a rental car because she had been involved in another accident on April 14, 2010, and her car was being repaired. State Farm contends that the rental car was owned by the rental company and not owned by Holmes. Defendants contend that the rental car was a temporary substitute car and because the policy specifically provides that a temporary substitute car is "not a non-owned car," the rental car should be treated no differently than either of Holmes' insured vehicles.

Holmes was driving a rental car because her car was being repaired after having been damaged in a prior accident two weeks earlier. She was using the rental car as a substitute car while her car was being repaired. Clearly, the rental car Holmes was using in this case falls under the policy's definition of a temporary substitute car. And as the policy specifically states that a temporary substitute car is "not a non-owned car," the policy allows for stacking under the circumstances of this case. Further, there is no argument that Holmes was using the rental car for employment or business or had rented the car for longer than 21 days. Accordingly, pursuant to the policy, Defendants are entitled to stack UIM coverage.

IV. Conclusion

Accordingly, based on the foregoing, State Farm's Summary Judgment (ECF No. 51) is DENIED, and Defendants' Summary Judgment Motion (ECF No. 52) is GRANTED.
