Re: South Beach Village v. Zigniew Drzazgowski
Appellate Case No. 2019-001420

Dear Mr. Drzazgowski:

At this time, the Court of Appeals is permitting and encouraging e-filing pursuant to the Supreme Court's order in response to the global pandemic. See RE: Operation of the Appellate Courts During the Coronavirus Emergency (S.C. Sup. Ct. Order dated March 20, 2020, amended May 29, 2020). We are only sending correspondence to attorneys via email. Self-represented litigants are still entitled to receive correspondence via U.S. mail. We interpret your December 6, 2020 letter as a request to forgo your right to receive communications from the Court and from opposing counsel via U.S. mail. After careful consideration, we will grant your request and send Court communications to you solely via the following email address: drzazgowski@sbcglobal.net. Upon receipt of a reply email confirming this address, the Court and opposing counsel will send all communications related to this case to your email address.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
