Opposition to motion to dismiss

I did look for a form type to respond to motion to Dismiss. One could not be found but I did see I could write a letter of opposition.

Although elegant in their wording the facts are very much mis construed and I see moot.

At the point of the process (790 hearing) there was a valid incapacity of the court making due process impossible. Validated out of the mouth of the court & Audio recording. Confirmed by Haven representatives at next hearing.

I did file motion for valid 790 hearing to have correct content & figures with the ability to procure my side. Although the original judge was still on leave. Judge Wood stated it looked fine clerically. My argument was content and the compromised way it was received. She did state I had a right to appeal. I did state in open court that day I wanted to appeal decision. What I do see is correct to 18-7-20 Acting Pro se as I was

Over ->

I was hamstrung by the court after that point to obtain recording & evidence to file. I did receive it weeks later and to my surprise the hearing with judge woode had not recorded due to a failure of recording equipment.

I do have empathy for the judge and his health condition he suffered as I to have chronic heart issues & know a episode can come on with no warning, at that point I can not be focused on anything but the condition and getting it to stop.

As I said this process stopped at 790 hearing.

I could write a very startling record of issues since that hearing & appeal (Assault), Petition for the abolition of me on change.org & BLM Internet site supported by Haven reps. They too would be moot on my side the focus is on point in time (790) when process was compromised.

Thanks for your time
