Re: Earnest E. Vaughn, Petitioner vs. South Carolina, Respondent
Appellate Case No. 2020-000750

Dear Clerk,

On December 21, 2020, I filed a motion with this court for the Assessment of Costs for the Appendix and for the Extension of Time to File the Petition for Writ of Certiorari and Appendix in the above titled matter. This motion was based on a conversation that I had with Mr. Herverly Young, General Counsel for the Office of Indigent Defense (OID), indicating that any costs over five-hundred-dollars ($500.00) would require a court order. Subsequent to the filing of my motion, I was contacted by Mr. Young, who indicated that pursuant to a previously-entered order in this matter relative to counsel that I relieved, Ashley McMahan, the costs of preparing the Appendix would be covered by OID without the necessity of filing an additional motion. Thus, at this time I am respectfully withdrawing my motion for an order for the assessment of costs for the appendix directed to OID. However, I respectfully ask this Honorable Court to grant an extension of time to file the Petition for Writ of Certiorari and Appendix until January 21, 2021, pursuant to the request in my motion and based on the schedule of my printer, Legal Eagle.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter. Please let me know if you have questions regarding the enclosed. With kind regards, I remain

Very Truly Yours,

s/Scarlet B. Moore
