Appellate Case No. 2020-001006
Case No. 2010-CP-38-1749

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

Sara Gleaton, as Personal Representative of the Estate of Wilton Gleaton, Appellant, v.

Orangeburg County, a Political Subdivision of the State of South Carolina, Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE INITIAL BRIEF OF RESPONDENT

The Respondent Orangeburg County respectfully moves this Court for an additional extension of time until January 28, 2021, by which to file and serve its Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal.

The Respondent's motion is based on the following grounds:

1. The Respondent's Initial Brief is currently due to be filed and served on January 8, 2021.

2. The undersigned counsel requires additional time to complete the Respondent's Initial Brief because the undersigned counsel has had numerous other deadlines that prevented him from completing the Respondent's Initial Brief by the current deadline. In addition, the undersigned counsel only recently made an appearance as appellate counsel and is needing additional time to review the record below and prepare the Respondent's Initial Brief.

3. The undersigned has consulted with Jay Parker, counsel for the Appellant, and he consented to the requested extension by email (copy attached).

WHEREFORE, the Respondent Orangeburg County respectfully requests that it be allowed until January 28, 2021, by which to file and serve its Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal.

Jay:

This will follow up our telephone call from this morning. As I indicated, I was late to this appeal and the record is actually more detailed than I first understood, and I need additional time for the briefing. I plan to ask the Court of Appeals for an additional 20 days to file the Respondent's Initial Brief. You kindly consented to that extension. Can you confirm that extension by return email?

Thanks and have a good weekend.

Andrew
