I'm not sure what the problem is, but will resend.

Also, I was contacted by the firm representing 1250 OLD GILLIARD ROAD LLC, requesting me to send them a copy of the transcript concerning the hearing July 26, 2020. When I contacted the firm, Spitz and Neville, Mr. Neville informed me of: 1 - he had a copy of the transcript but would not provide me with a copy, 2 - the name of the company they contracted to record the hearing. Since they already have a copy, am I compelled to provide them a copy? May I request compensation for providing them with that which I paid for?

Thank you.
