RE: DIRECT APPEAL

Dear Mr. Lipscomb:

I hope this letter finds you well. As you will recall, you stated that you wished for me to file on your behalf, a Notice of Intent to Appeal, which I did.

However, under current practice, the Court of Appeals now requires that an "arguable basis" exists before the court will hear appeals from guilty pleas. I previously provided the court with my position in this matter, and am enclosing for you another copy of this. In your case, the Judge was sitting in his proper jurisdiction and sentenced you within the statutory penalties.

I have been requested to advise you that you must inform the SC Court of Appeals, in writing, of the grounds of your arguable basis that there are issues preserved for your appeal from the guilty plea. I am including a copy of the letter I received from the South Carolina Court of Appeals, which contains the mailing address. If you do not respond in a timely fashion, your appeal will be dismissed.

Be aware of the one year statute of limitation for filing for a PCR.

Sincerely yours,

E. Joshua Schultz
