S.C. SUPREME COURT

Applicant Michael P. Donovan hereby appeals from the Order of dismissal from Honorable Daniel De Hall, chief Administrative Judge (16th) Judicial Circuit. Order dated December 21, 2020 and received by appellant on January 7, 2021.

Pursuant to Appellate Court Rule 243, this appeal is filed because there existed sufficient evidence in the record to show that the Applicant provide specific reasons, factual and legal why his application for (PCR) Post-Conviction relief should be granted.

On March 1, 2020 the South Carolina Dept. of Corrections implemented a state wide emergency because of the [COVID-19] coronavirus, this modified operation has delayed his right to access to the Courts.

The Judge should have viewed the evidence in a light most favorable to the Applicant and granted a evidentiary hearing on claims of ineffective assistance of counsel.
