RECEIVED

Jan 22 2021

SC Court of Appeals

The State, ..... Respondent, v.

Dameion E. Thomas, ..... Appellant,

MOTION TO EXTEND FINAL BREIF AND MOTION TO SUPPLEMENT RECORD ON APPEAL

COMES NOW Defendant Damrion E. Thomas by and through his undersigned attorney Tyrone J. Walls, respectfully moves the Court to extend the time to submit the final brief and grant Appellant the right to supplement the record on appeal. In support of foregoing motion, the defendant would show unto the court as follows:

I.

Appellant's Attorney filed the record on appeal January 4, 2021 and served a copy on Respondent.

II.

Appellant's Attorney neglected to add the designation of matter of the Respondent and was provided the trial transcript as of recently.

II.

The respondent joins in the request for said extension to submit the final brief and to supplement the record of appeal.

Conclusion

Appellant's respectfully request the Court to grant Appellant the right to supplement the record on appeal by 40 days and to extend the time to submit the final brief by 20 to run consecutively.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dear Mr. Walls:

The Respondent's Final Brief of Respondent is due by the end of today, Friday, January 22, 2021. As previously discussed, the Record on Appeal needs to be supplemented.

To avoid not meeting our deadlines, can you file a motion to supplement the Record today, so that our Final Brief of Respondent deadline can be recalculated.

Thank you Mr. Walls. Please feel free to contact me.
