Re: Billy W. McIntosh 87742 v. State
Appellate Case No. 2020-000741

Dear Mr. McIntosh:

The Court is in receipt of your record on appeal, and initial brief. The time for filing an initial brief and a record on appeal has not come. See Rules 208, 209, and 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Therefore, we are returning your filings with this letter.

Our records show an order was issued on October 23, 2020 giving you until December 01, 2020 "to make satisfactory arrangements, including agreement regarding payment for the transcript, in writing with the court reporter for furnishing the transcript." The Court received the copy of the letter you sent to the court reporter concerning the transcript. Once you receive the transcript, you are to notify the Court, along with all parties involved in this appeal, when you received the transcript so that our records may reflect the correct due date for your initial brief and designation of matter.

Although we have relieved you from the requirement of paying filing fees to the Court in our order dated October 15, 2020, you are still required to make satisfactory arrangements for payment of the transcript with the court reporter. See Rule 207, SCACR. Failure to make satisfactory arrangements for payment of the transcript will result in dismissal of the appeal. You must order the transcript and make satisfactory arrangements for payment within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
