We join Mr. Newton in his admonition to you regarding third party communications. Govern yourself accordingly. We will enforce our rights.

As well, you are directed to cease and desist in any continued communications to Mr. Kiehl, who is represented.

Moreover, cease communicating with Messrs. Collins and Lacy; they are not counsel in this matter and need not be dragged into your nonsensical and wildly inappropriate communications, including this purported filing. Further, by virtue of your election to appeal some of Judge Hood's orders to the Court of Appeals, jurisdiction of the appellate matter resides with that Court. You need not continue to email Judge Hood's chambers. It is unnecessary and inappropriate.

You may be a pro se but the rules of procedure and the customs of our courts apply to you as well. We will continue to insure they are enforced through zealous motions practice to strike filings like this. Hence, our motion for injunctive relief to the Court of Appeals.

We include the Court of Appeals in this communication to register our opposition to the Court accepting your filing. We will be moving to strike.

Mr. Hutson,

Anything you say to any non-parties will become the basis for another defamation lawsuit against you.
