Okay, understood. I will make a note in the file that the request is not to be construed as a request for an order from the Court of Appeals to transport exhibits.

Respectfully,

LaToyla Burns

Dear Ms. Burns,

I intended my letter to the clerk of circuit court as a request for copies of all exhibits that could be reproduced and copied for the record on appeal. I was pointing out that any that could not be copied would require that I obtain an order to transport. The clerk of circuit court was able to make me a copy of everything that was designated so no order to transport will be necessary. I didn't intend my letter to be interpreted as a request that the court of appeals issue an order as I wasn't sure if that would be needed. I apologize for the confusion that I created in my inartfully drafted letter.
