Re: Emily Williams v. L'Oreal USA, Inc.
Appellate Case No. 2012-213713

Madam Clerk,

I am writing in response to your letter dated March 5, 2013. The transcript for the above referenced appeal has been ordered, and is being transcribed. Upon its receipt we will proceed with preparing the initial brief. I have corresponded with the court reporter via telephone. The court reporter indicates that she will produce the transcript within two weeks. Unbeknownst to my office, she did not forward the request for transcription due to Ms. Williams inability to pay. Our office was unaware of this and has submitted payment and notified Ms. Hill that she is to begin transcribing the transcript. We were notified by Ms. Hill that it will take two weeks to produce the transcript. We will forward notification of its receipt upon delivery. Once the transcript is received we will proceed with the preparation of the initial brief.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Re: Emily Williams vs. L'Oreal USA, Inc.
Case Nos.: 2010-CP-15-405

Dear Ms. Hill:

Please find enclosed our check in the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) as the deposit for the preparation of the transcript regarding the above-mentioned matter. I would also like to request that you request an extension of time to the Court of Appeals for the time it will take you to provide our office with the completed transcript.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

CURRY & HOUSEY, PA
