The Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), under the South Carolina Appellant Court Rules, for an extension of time in which to file the record on appeal and a corrected final brief, to be provided after the record on appeal, per court's request in its letter dated February 4, 2021.

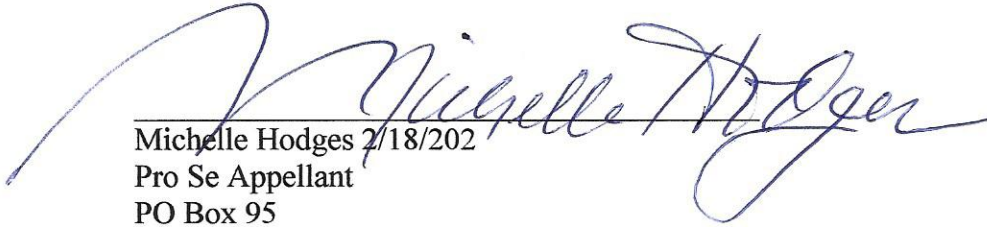

The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. I need to review the Case Management record to see if any additional attorneys have filed an appearance. There has never been a Notice of Appearance filed by Mr. Caldwell. However, out of an abundance of caution; I will forward 1 copy to Mr. Caldwell's office for Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Carroll to review together. Mr. Laney and Mr. Caldwell have both filed documents in this appeal that do not appear to be timely.
2. The Court's letter is dated on February 4, 2021 and requests an additional copy of the record be sent directly to the court and the Court's letter was issued less than 5 days before the Record was due.
3. There would be no prejudice to the opposing party, as Mr. Caldwell has made note of the corrections that must be made to the final brief, in a letter to the Court dated February 3, 2021.
4. The extraordinary circumstance of my low income, is the additional reason for this request for an extension of time. I pulled the court's letter out of the mail box on February 8, 2021, the day the Record was due.
5. I have not requested any other extensions in this appeal.

263

WHEREFORE Appellant pray for an order extending the time in which to file a corrected final brief and the Appellant prays for time to send the Record and additional copies to opposing counsel by February 23, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
