Greetings SC COA,

Since my email this morning was not included with the court filing, I have drafted the attached letter and re-attached the email with the filings so that I may receive a response from the court. I do not want my appeal dismissed and I too want to respond appropriately. Please see attached.

Greetings SC COA,

Attached is my Dec 11, 2019 filing that never showed online and has somehow mysteriously disappeared from the Court, so if your people are not rearranging the papers or omitting them, now your throwing my filings away. I asked for an investigation into this matter by motion, that has not showed up online either.

The Judgment before this Court violated my constitutional rights to include due process in the above matter is a void judgment and the law says one need not appeal. I asked to view my filings and request equal access to the Court and to let me know how to prepare and present the record on appeal. Im not trying to stall the court, I had legitimate questions and instead of assisting me your agencies says you're going to dismiss the appeal of a void judgment in 10 days, why are people in buildings getting paid from our tax dollars if you can't help people like me? But you can throw my court filed documents out; omit or mis file them.

Please see attached.
