

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Jennie Cox, Employee, Appellant,

v.

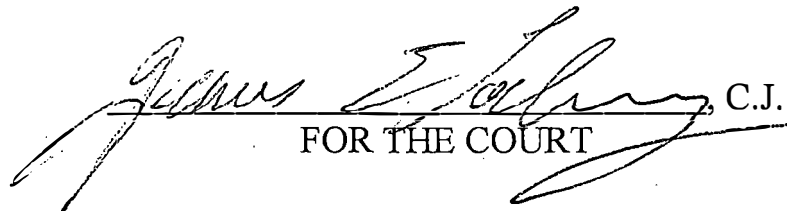

Palmetto State Transportation, Employer, and Cherokee
Insurance Company, Carrier, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2019-001936

ORDER

This appeal arises out of a notice of appeal filed November 21, 2019. After requesting and receiving multiple extensions of time to file the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, the appellant requested the appeal be held in abeyance in July of 2020. That request was granted, and upon a request from the Court for a status update, counsel filed a sixth and seventh motion for an extension of time to file the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter, which we granted. At this time, the appellant is requesting an eighth extension of time.

Counsel for the appellant indicates he has not filed his brief due to an inadvertent calendaring error. However, as of today's date, the appellant still has not filed an initial brief and designation of matter. After considering the age of the case and the unusually high number of extensions, the period of time the case was held in abeyance, and the return filed by the respondents, the motion is denied. The appellant must file the initial brief and designation of matter within ten days of the date of this order or the appeal will be dismissed.
