Dear Mr. Shearhouse,

Pursuant to the letter I received from the Court, dated March 1, 2021, I have been asked to correct a deficiency, the letter indicating that in my notice of appeal I failed to specify the date on which I received notice of the order denying my motion to amend or alter judgment.

Please forgive the confusion, as I had stated in my notice of appeal "Written notice of the final order (denying relief) was received on November 2, 2020" By "final order", I meant (or was referring to) the ORDER DENYING APPLICANT'S AMENDED MOTION TO AMEND/ALTER JUDGMENT, entered October 21, 2020.

Please advise whether it will be necessary for me to file an amended notice of appeal, clarifying that the "final order" I referred to was the ORDER DENYING APPLICANT'S AMENDED MOTION TO AMEND/ALTER JUDGMENT.

Please also allow the Court's records to reflect my changed address, as indicated above.

Sincerely,

Gary Z Thomas
