RE: Corrected – Motion to provide Record out of time

Wells Fargo Bank, N. A. v. Michelle Hodges et al
Appellant Case No. 2019-001565

Per the Court, the Record was due on 2/8/2021. However, I received the court's letter regarding the need for additional copies on 2/8/2021. Per Appellant Court rules the Record is not to be served on any party that has not filed a brief and I did not get the Respondent's out of time initial brief until 2/10/2021. I believe that I did send them a record.

Please accept this letter as a Motion to file the record out of time, pursuant to South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and per the Court's correspondence. I have had financial difficulties in being able to provide the copies, as my water bill went up to $240.00 for 2 months in a row and we found a leak and I had to have brakes on my car this past weekend.

Good cause exists for this motion and it is due to the timing of the court's letter, financial difficulties and when I received the Respondent's initial brief. Further, this is my first request for an extension.

There would be no prejudice, as the Respondent has requested a correct final brief and to send the final brief after the record.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle Hodges, Pro Se Appellant
