STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

MOTION FOR TRANSCRIPTS

v.

Theodore Bolick,
Defendant

RECEIVED

MAR 17 2021

SC Court of Appeals

NOW COMES Defendant, Theodore Bolick pro se and in an attempt to expedite matters and use the court's time and resources in the most efficient manner, hereby moves this Honorable Court to order the production of transcripts in the above captioned matters. To support of this motion Defendant shows unto the court as follows:

1. The Defendant has several motions that are to be heard in the near future by order of the South Carolina Court of Appeals;

2. That these motions include, but are not limited to Motion For Mistrial, Motion For New Trial, Motion For Standing And Continued Objections, Motion

For Transcripts, and Motion To Reconsider;

3. That Defendant has also recently filed a Supplemental Pleading And Motion For Mistrial;

4 That at his first opportunity Defendant intends to move the court to consolidate for judgment the Motion For Mistrial, Supplemental Pleading And Motion For Mistrial, and Motion For New Trial, and hereby moves the court to do so by this motion This would conserve time and resources;

5 The transcripts the Defendant is requesting will be used to prove the allegations the Defendant has made in his outstanding motions which include, but are not limited to, improper joinder of indictments for trial, ambiguity about when the trial could begin, or should begin, the proper adjudication on the Motion To Sever, and the voluntariness of the waiver of his right to be present at trial;

6. That these transcripts will be needed to clarify the record for the court, and will also be used should an appeal become necessary;

7. The Defendant has previously requested these transcripts by way of written motion more than once;

8. It is well established law that Defendant is entitled to these transcripts pursuant the U.S. Supreme Court ruling in Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12, 76 S.Ct. 585 (1956);

9. The Defendant is indigent and cannot afford these transcripts;

10. These transcripts will be needed before any scheduled hearing;

WHEREFORE Defendant prays the court order the transcripts from the following dates in the foregoing captioned matters:

1. state v. Bolick May 18, 2018

2. state v. Bolick March 6, 2019

3. state v. Bolick July 22-24, 2019

4. state v. Bolick September 16, 2020

In the event there are no transcripts on the requested dates, the Defendant ask the Court to instruct the stenographer to state so in writing.

Respectfully Submitted
