Sure Jeffrey, I understand. I was just trying to find a way to respond meaningfully to the motion.

Scott,

Respectfully, I don't think I am required to and I don't think I should. I don't believe it was intended in this way, but even asking the question appears to question my veracity and credibility. I hope and expect that you understand my position.

Sincerely,

Hey Jeffrey,

So that I could meaningfully respond to your motion, could you please elaborate on what you mean by "unexpected personal and professional obligations"?

Scott,

My apologies. I don't know how that mistake was made. Please find attached a copy of the Motion for Extension of Time to File Brief that was filed with the Court of Appeals on 3/12/21.

Good morning Jeffrey,

Sorry I should've made clear in that last email that I do not consider myself served with your motion yet. You may serve me by email or mail to the address I mentioned. Thank you.

Hi Jeffrey,

My old law firm got your recent motion. Please don't send things to that law firm; instead, send things either via email or to my PO Box below.
