The appellant's counsel moves for an additional one-day extension of time, until today, March 23, 2021, to file and serve the appellant's initial brief and Designation of Matter. Two prior extensions of two weeks each have been requested and granted to appellant.

The reason for the one-day extension is that the initial brief and Designation of Matter, which are now submitted and filed, were served and believed to have been timely e-mailed for filing to the Court of Appeals on March 22, 2021, but counsel believes the e-mailed filing was not delivered to the Court of Appeals.

To David Vance Benson and James W. Boyd

Gentlemen,

I am attaching a copy of the Appellant's Motion for Extension of Time, which I am e-serving on you and filing with the Court of Appeals. Also attached is the Proof of Service, which I will file with a copy of this e-mail.

The reason for this, to my shame, is apparently that I never hit the "send" button last night to submit my initial brief and designation of matter to the Court by e-mail.
