APPEAL FROM THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Appellate Case No. 2020-001474

David Casey, Employee, Respondent

v.

APTIM Federal Services, LLC, Employer, and XL Specialty Insurance Company, Carrier, Appellants.

RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS AND REQUEST FOR EXTENSION TO FILE INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER

Pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR, David Casey, Respondent, hereby requests these proceedings be held in abeyance and, alternatively, a 30-day extension of time to serve and file Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. The grounds for the Motion are as follows:

1. The above case is pending in the South Carolina Court of Appeals with Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter due on March 31, 2021.
2. The primary/sole issue set before the Court of Appeals is Respondent's entitlement to back-owed temporary compensation as ordered by the South Carolina Workers Compensation Commission Appellate Panel.
3. Contemporaneously, Appellants filed a Form 21, Request for Hearing, with the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission to address the remaining issues in the underlying workers' compensation claim, including Respondent's entitlement to permanent disability compensation and medical benefits.

4. The hearing for these lower court proceedings was originally scheduled for March 25, 2021 but has subsequently been rescheduled to April 15, 2021 due to scheduling conflicts.

5. Based on relevant information and belief, Respondent's Counsel does not see any scenario in which the issues before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission are not appealed and ultimately heard by the Court of Appeals for the State of South Carolina.

6. As such, Respondent's Counsel believes that in the interest of judicial economy, it would be prudent to stay the current proceedings pending before the Court of Appeals until the current lower court proceedings reach the same court so that two concurrent appeals are not pending regarding the same case with the same underlying facts.

7. Respondent sees no prejudice in staying the current appellate proceedings, as Appellants are under no current/continuing obligation to provide Respondent anything based on the lower court's order until their appeal rights have been exhausted. Additionally, with an imminent appeal of the lower court proceedings forthcoming, both sides would be saddled with twice the costs associated with multiple appeals being litigated, but not tried simultaneously.

8. This stay, if granted, would suspend all current and future deadlines for the current Court of Appeals proceeding until the lower court proceedings reach the South Carolina Court of Appeals and can be joined with the current case.

9. Alternatively, if a stay is not granted, Respondent requests an extension of thirty (30) days for filing Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. If granted, this would make April 30, 2021 the new deadline for service and filing of Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

10. Respondent has consulted with Appellants about our request, and they have stated they cannot agree.

Accordingly, Respondent respectfully requests that the Court grant their request for a stay or, alternatively, a 30-day extension.
