The Kitchen Planners, LLC, Appellant

v.

Samuel E. Friedman and Jane Breyer Friedman and Branch Banking and Trust, Respondents

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OUT OF TIME A RESPONSE TO APPELLANT'S PETITION FOR CERTIORARI

Respondents come before this Court and request a Motion for Leave to File Out of Time Response to Appellant's Petition for Certiorari. A Motion for an extension of time was filed on February 11, 2021 requesting an extension of thirty (30) days and was believed that the thirty (30) day request was granted due to the receipt and filing of the Motion. Counsel for Respondents have no record of receiving the Order which granted only 20 days for the filing of the Return. As such, Counsel believed that the deadline for filing the Response was February 12, 2021 and calendared it as such.

Counsel was first made aware of the twenty (20) day extension on March 10, 2011, when an email was received from the Court regarding the Respondents' Return to the Writ of Certiorari. Counsel immediately filed the Return and this Motion in response. Counsel sent a request to opposing counsel for consent to this Motion, but as of the time of filing had not received a response.

Counsel for Respondents does not have an explanation as to why there is no record of the Order in their office other than over the past ninety (90) days, our firm has encountered numerous email and server outings. These outings have been extremely disruptive and numerous communications have been lost. This may be the reason as to why the Order was not received and calendared correctly. As a result, the extension was calendared for March 12, 2021 which is what Respondents requested in their Motion

Respondents' respectfully ask this Court to allow the parties to respond to Appellant's Petition for Certiorari which would have been due on March 2, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,
